Gary Genosko, 2002 This is the first detailed assessment of the life and work of Felix Guattari Mr Anti as the French press labelled him the friend of and collaborator with Gilles Deleuze Jacques Lacan and Antonio Negri and one of the 20th Century's last great activist intellectuals Guattari is widely known for his celebrated writings with Deleuze but these writings do not represent the true breadth and impact of his thinking writing and activism Guattari's major work as a clinical and theoretical innovator in psychoanalysis was closely linked to his participation in struggles against Europe Felix Guattari Gary Genosko, 2009-05-15 This book offers a detailed look at Guattari's working methods in transdisciplinary experimentation from the time of his youth to his final years His youthful adventures in the post war Youth Hostels movement decisive contact with institutional pedagogy and the mentor figures of Fernand Oury and his brother Jean give rise to an extraordinary penchant for organizational innovation in his life at Clinique de La Borde in Cour Cheverny France and collective forms of expression manifested in publishing ventures and diverse collaborative research formations Guattari's highly original and hitherto neglected theories of a signifying semiotics and minor cinema are explored in depth with reference to the political goals of the critique of infoculture and the molecular revolutionary tendencies that are released in the search for a people to come Guattari's engagement with eco politics and art practices displays his originality as a political thinker and is firmly grounded on his exploration of how subjectivity is produced in late capitalism Guattari's ground breaking conception of transversal politics is fully explored in relation to Michel Foucault's sense of the concept and its role in global political theory Felix

Guattari's Schizoanalytic Ecology Hanjo Berressem, 2020-05-28 Hanjo Berressem establishes the notion of a schizoanalytic ecology as the most consistent conceptual spine of Felix Guattari's work He covers the whole range of Guattari's solo work and the books co authored with Gilles Deleuze primarily a rigorous explication and analysis of Schizoanalytic Cartographies Félix Guattari Franco Berardi Bifo, 2008-11-05 Felix Guattari Thought Friendship and Visionary Cartography by Franco Berardi Bifo originates in the author's close personal acquaintance with Felix Guattari's writings and political engagement in the context of Berardi Bifo's activism in Italian autonomist politics and his ongoing collaboration with Guattari in the 1970s and 1980s. This biography gains distinction from its keen insight into Guattari's political practice and from a precise understanding of how this practice relates to the theoretical and conceptual aspects of Guattari's writings alone and with Gilles Deleuze. Thanks to an approach at once personal and theoretically well informed, Bifo's biography provides a clear and accessible introduction to Guattari's works. This edition also includes a critical introduction and a 2005 interview with Bifo on a range of topics relating Guattari's works to the current political conjuncture.

The Architecture of Psychoanalysis Jane Rendell, 2017-03-01 In this thought provoking book Jane Rendell explores how architectural space registers in psychoanalysis. She investigates both the inherently spatial vocabulary of psychoanalysis and ideas around the physical setting of the psychoanalytic encounter with reference to Sigmund Freud, D.W. Winnicott and Andre Green. Building on the innovative writing methods employed in Art and Architecture and Site Writing, she also addresses the concept of architecture as social condenser, a Russian constructivist notion that connects material space and community relations. Tracing this idea's progress from 1920s Moscow to 1950s Britain, Rendell shows how interior and exterior meet in both psychoanalysis and architectural practice. Illuminating a novel field of interdisciplinary enquiry, this book breathes fresh life into notions of social space.

Avatar and Nature Spirituality Bron Taylor, 2013-08-14 Avatar and Nature Spirituality explores the cultural and religious significance of James Cameron's film Avatar (2010), one of the most commercially successful motion pictures of all time. Its success was due in no small measure to the beauty of the Pandora landscape and the dramatic heart wrenching plight of its nature venerating inhabitants. To some audience members the film was inspirational, leading them to express affinity with the film's message of ecological interdependence and animistic spirituality. Some were moved to support the efforts of indigenous peoples who were metaphorically and sympathetically depicted in the film to protect their cultures and environments. To others the film was politically, ethically or spiritually dangerous. Indeed, the global reception to the film was intense, contested and often confusing. To illuminate the film and its reception, this book draws on an interdisciplinary team of scholars, experts in indigenous traditions, religious studies, anthropology, literature and film and post colonial studies. Readers will learn about the cultural and religious trends that gave rise to the film and the reasons these trends are feared, resisted and criticized, enabling them to wrestle with their own views, not only about the film but about the controversy surrounding it. Like the film itself, Avatar and Nature Spirituality provides an opportunity for considering afresh the ongoing struggle to determine how we should live on our home planet and what sorts of political, economic and spiritual values and practices would best guide us.

Deleuze and Politics Ian Buchanan, 2008-05-20 This volume in the Deleuze Connections series debates and extends Deleuze's political thought through engagement with contemporary political events and concepts. Against recent critique of Deleuze as a non-political thinker, this book explores the specific innovations and interventions that Deleuze's profoundly political concepts bring to political thought and practice. The contributors use

Deleuze's dynamic theoretical apparatus to engage with contemporary political problems themes and possibilities including micropolitics cynicism war democracy ethnicity friendship revolution power fascism militancy and fabulation The Reinvention of Social Practices Gary Genosko, 2018-03-27 The Reinvention of Social Practices shows the relevance of Félix Guattari's thought for the analysis of contemporary social and cultural encounters ranging across an alternative skateboard school informatic subjugations urban ecological dilemmas drug subcultures and countercultures Gary Genosko the leading English interpreter of Guattari expands upon Guattari's conception of schizoanalysis as a transformative process of critical self modelling that leads to the creation of new maps of existence highlighting an interpretive dream pragmatics a peripatetic psychiatric practice a rethinking of epilepsy and a post media vision of digital interfaces beyond the keyboard The folds of Guattari's collaborations with Gilles Deleuze and Antonio Negri are explored and his philosophical friendship with Franco Bifo Berardi is brought into focus

The Minor Gesture Erin Manning, 2016-05-19 In this wide ranging and probing book Erin Manning extends her previous inquiries into the politics of movement to the concept of the minor gesture The minor gesture although it may pass almost unperceived transforms the field of relations More than a chance variation less than a volition it requires rethinking common assumptions about human agency and political action To embrace the minor gesture's power to fashion relations its capacity to open new modes of experience and manners of expression is to challenge the ways in which the neurotypical image of the human devalues alternative ways of being moved by and moving through the world in particular what Manning terms autistic perception Drawing on Deleuze and Guattari's schizoanalysis and Whitehead's speculative pragmatism Manning's far reaching analyses range from fashion to depression to the writings of autistics in each case affirming the neurodiversity of the minor and the alternative politics it gestures toward

The Epic Cinema of Kumar Shahani Laleen Jayamanne, 2014-10-22 Laleen Jayamanne examines the major works of leading Indian film director Kumar Shahani and explores the reaches of modernist film aesthetics in its international form More than an auteur study Jayamanne approaches Shahani s films conceptually as those that reveal cinema s synaesthetic capabilities or cinaesthesia As the author shows Shahani s cinematic project entails a modern reformulation of the ancient oral tradition of epic narration and performance in order to address the contemporary world establishing a new cinematic expression an epic idiom As evidenced by his films constructing cinematic history becomes more than an archival project of retrieval and is instead a living history of the present which can intervene in the current moment through sensory experiences propelling thought
