Fellini Satyricon:

Federico Fellini Tullio Kezich, 2006 Sample Text      On the Set of Fellini Satyricon Eileen Lanouette Hughes, 1971

Political Fellini Andrea Minuz, 2015-10-01 Federico Fellini is often considered a disengaged filmmaker interested in self-referential dreams and grotesquerie rather than contemporary politics. This book challenges that myth by examining the filmmaker's reception in Italy and by exploring his films in the context of significant political debates. By conceiving Fellini's cinema as an individual expression of the nation's mythical biography, the director's most celebrated themes and images—a nostalgia for childhood, unattainable female figures, fantasy, the circus, carnival—become symbols of Italy's traumatic modernity and perpetual adolescence.      Classical Myth & Culture in the Cinema Martin M. Winkler, 2001 This title comprises a collection of essays presenting a variety of approaches to films set in Ancient Greece and Rome and to films that reflect archetypal features of classical literature. The book illustrates the continuing presence of antiquity in the most varied and influential medium of modern popular culture. The diversity of content and theoretical stances found in this work should make this volume required reading for scholars and students interested in the presence of Greece and Rome in modern popular culture.      The Ancient World in the Cinema Jon Solomon, Robert D. Novak Professor of Western Civilization and Culture, Jon Solomon, 2001-01-01 This entertaining and useful book provides a comprehensive survey of films about the ancient world from The Last Days of Pompeii to Gladiator. Jon Solomon catalogues, describes, and evaluates films set in ancient Greece and Rome, films about Greek and Roman history and mythology, films of the Old and New Testaments, films set in ancient Egypt, Babylon, and Persia, films of ancient tragedies, comic films set in the ancient world, and more. The book has been updated to include feature films and made-for-television movies produced in the past two decades. More than two hundred photographs illustrate both the films themselves and the ancient sources from which their imagery derives.      Federico Fellini Hava

Aldouby, 2013-01-01 Aldouby employs an innovative pictorial approach that allows her to uncover a wealth of visual evocations overlooked by Fellini scholars over the years.      Classical Myth and Culture in the Cinema Martin M. Winkler Professor of Classics, George Mason University, 2001-05-29 Classical Myth and Culture in the Cinema is a collection of essays presenting a variety of approaches to films set in ancient Greece and Rome and to films that reflect archetypal features of classical literature. The diversity of content and theoretical stances found in this volume will make it required reading for scholars and students interested in interdisciplinary approaches to text and image.      Fellini's Eternal Rome Alessandro Carrera, 2018-12-13 Winner of the 2019 Flaiano Prize in the category Italian Studies. In Fellini's Eternal Rome, Alessandro Carrera explores the co-existence and conflict of paganism and Christianity in the works of Federico Fellini. By combining source analysis, cultural history, and jargon-free psychoanalytic film theory, Carrera introduces the reader to a new appreciation of Fellini's work. Life-affirming Franciscanism and repressive Counter-Reformation dogmatism live side by side in Fellini's films, although he clearly tends toward the former and resents the latter. The fascination with pre-Christian Rome shines through La Dolce Vita and finds its culmination in Fellini Satyricon the most audacious attempt to imagine what the West would be if Christianity had never replaced classical Rome Minimal clues point toward a careful extremely subtle use of classical texts and motifs Fellini's interest in the classics culminates in Olympus a treatment of Hesiod's Theogony for a never realized TV miniseries on Greek mythology here introduced for the first time to an English speaking readership Fellini's recurrent dream of the Mediterranean Goddess is shaped by the phantasmatic projection of paganism that Christianity created as its convenient Other His characters long for a maternal space where they will be protected from mortality and left free to roam Yet Fellini shows how such maternal space constantly fails not because the Church has erased it but because the utopia of unlimited enjoyment is a self defeating fantasy

Federico Fellini Marco Malvestio, Jessica Whitehead, Alberto Zambenedetti, 2024-11-30 A complex and at times controversial film maker whose career spanned the second half of the twentieth century Federico Fellini 1920 1993 remains central to the Italian cultural imagery and the object of ongoing debates and critical scrutiny at home and abroad Images from his films Gelsomina's tears Marcello's sunglasses have become global signifiers not only for Fellini and Italian cinema but for Italy itself as steadily lodged in the world's collective unconscious as the Colosseum's arches and Venice's gondolas Marking the centenary of Fellini's birth Federico Fellini Centenary Essays reassesses the film maker's legacy with diverse contributions from established and emerging Fellini scholars as well as renowned Canadian film makers From literary influences to pictorial references from artistic collaborations to politics and from exhibition history to revivals the collection covers the pivotal aspects of Fellini's poetics through contemporary methodological tools and features a wide array of scholarly approaches With complexity and nuance the book takes stock of the enormous cultural legacy of one of the most celebrated directors in cinema history and is essential reading for scholars and cinephiles alike

Epic Films Gary Allen Smith, 2015-09-03 Epic films those concerned with monumental events and larger than life characters cover the period from the Creation to the A D 1200s and have been churned out by Hollywood and overseas studios since the dawn of filmmaking Cecil B DeMille a master of the genre hit upon the perfect mixture of sex splendor and the sacred to lure audiences to his epic productions The 355 film entries include casts and credits plot synopsis and narratives on the making of the films There are 190 photographs in this edition

Brill's Companion to Ancient Greek and Roman Warfare on Film, 2023-12-18 Brill's Companion to Ancient Greek and Roman Warfare on Film is the first volume exclusively dedicated to the study of a theme that informs virtually every reimagining of the classical world on the big screen armed conflict Through a vast array of case studies from the silent era to recent years the collection traces cinema's enduring fascination with battles and violence in antiquity and explores the reasons both synchronic and diachronic for the central place that war occupies in celluloid Greece and Rome Situating films in their artistic economic and sociopolitical context the essays cast light on the industrial mechanisms through which the ancient battlefield is refashioned in cinema and investigate why the medium adopts a revisionist approach to textual and visual sources      The Cinema of Federico Fellini Peter Bondanella, 2021-01-12 This major artistic biography of Federico Fellini shows how his exuberant imagination has been shaped by popular culture literature and his encounter with the ideas of C G Jung especially Jungian dream interpretation Covering Fellini's entire career the book links his mature accomplishments to his first employment as a cartoonist gagman and sketch artist during the Fascist era and his development as a leading neo realist scriptwriter Peter Bondanella thoroughly explores key Fellinian themes to reveal the director's growth not only as an artistic master of the visual image but also as an astute interpreter of culture and politics Throughout the book Bondanella draws on a new archive of several dozen manuscripts obtained from Fellini and his scriptwriters These previously unexamined documents allow a comprehensive treatment of Fellini's important part in the rise of Italian neorealism and the even more decisive role that he played in the evolution of Italian cinema beyond neorealism in the 1950s By probing Fellini's recurring themes Bondanella reinterprets the visual qualities of the director's body of work and also discloses in the films a critical and intellectual vitality often hidden by Fellini's reputation as a storyteller and entertainer After two chapters on Fellini's precinematic career the book covers all the films to date in analytical chapters arranged by topic Fellini and his growth beyond his neorealist apprenticeship dreams and metacinema literature and cinema Fellini and politics Fellini and the image of women and La voce della luna and the cinema of poetry      Tradition, Translation, Trauma Jan Parker, Timothy Mathews, 2011-06-30 Tradition Trauma Translation is concerned with how Classic texts mainly Greek and Latin but also Arabic and Portuguese become present in later cultures and how they resonate in the modern A distinguished international team of contributors and responders examine the topic in different ways Some discuss singular encounters with the Classic those of Heaney Pope Fellini Freud Ibn Qutayba Cavafy and others and show how translations engage with the affective impact of texts over time and space Poet translator contributors draw on their own experience here Others offer images of translation as movement of a text over time space language and culture Some of these images are resistant even violent tradition as silencing translation as decapitation cannibalistic reception Others pose searching questions about the interaction of modernity with tradition what is entailed in The Price of the Modern Drawing as it does on Classical Modernist Translation Reception Comparative Literary and Intercultural Studies the volume has the potential to suggest critiques of practice in these disciplines but also concerns that are common to all these fields      Federico Fellini as Auteur John C. Stubbs, 2015-11-13 Federico Fellini as Auteur Seven Aspects of His Films offers a comprehensive auteurist study of the renowned Italian director Film scholar John C Stubbs dispenses with a traditional film career review of the man focusing instead on the key elements of the filmmaker's style the influence of Carl Jung and dreams the autobiographical depiction of childhood and adolescence the portrait of the artist the filmmaker's working relationship with his wife Fellini's comic strategies and his adaptation of works by others Each of the aspects is fully contextualized This examination of the critical elements in Fellini films offers a better understanding of the artistry that is uniquely Fellini      A Bibliography of
