Felt Sense Writing With The Body:

Felt Sense Sondra Perl, 2004 Derived from the work of philosopher and psychologist Eugene Gendlin felt sense allows writers to attend to what is on the edge of their thinking To the Islands Anne Schuster, 2014-09-25 To the Islands is a practical guide for writers beginners and seasoned explorers alike Discover five imaginary islands that lie waiting for you in the sea of creativity each with an itinerary specially devised to lead you on writing adventures Using poetry and prose the 25 excursions in this workbook will encourage you to experiment and cultivate a writing habit even if you only have half an hour a day to spare There are many approaches to learning creative writing The approach that underpins this workbook is inspired by practice It is founded on the idea that what writers need most is to write Writers find their feet by writing They tune their voices by writing To write frequently and with abandon allows you to explore the palettes and scenery of your creative universe It is through writing that you discover your own islands Based on a course designed by acclaimed writing facilitator Anne Schuster To the Islands is a practical and invaluable sourcebook for individuals for writing groups and for facilitators of creative learning processes Wild With Child Rebecca Jaremko Bromwich, Elana Finestone, 2024-04-02 This book invites readers to step lightly into a transformative realm where the conventional narratives of pregnancy motherhood and femininity are defied reshaped and celebrated In response to decades of limited portrayals of pregnant women and mothers as merely good bad or monstrous this anthology intervenes with a diverse array of contributions from scholars artists activists and those who have lived the journey of motherhood It brings forth a colourful mosaic of perspectives that push beyond the confines of societal norms presenting images writings and creative expressions bursting with authenticity and power This anthology is an affirmation a celebration and a transformative journey that invites all to join in reframing the pregnant body and the lived experiences of motherhood and in to deeper engagements with maternal feminist writing and thought The Invisible Art of Literary Editing Bryan Furuness, Sarah Layden, 2023-02-09 A field guide to the trade and art of editing this book pulls back the curtain on the day to day responsibilities of a literary magazine editor in their role and to the specific skills necessary to read mark up and transform a piece of writing Combining a break down of an editor's tasks including creating a vision acquisitions responding to submissions and corresponding with authors with a behind the scenes look at manuscripts in progress the book rounds up with a test editing section that teaches by way of engaging exercises the nitty gritty strategies and techniques for working on all kinds of texts Generous in its insight and access to practicing editors annotations and thought processes The Invisible Art of Literary Editing offers an exclusive look at nonfiction fiction and poetry manuscripts as they were first submitted as they were marked up by an editor and how the final piece was presented before featuring an interview with the editor on the choices they made about that piece of work as well as their philosophies and working practices in their job As a skill and a trade learnt through practice and apprenticeship this is the ultimate companion to editing any piece of work offering opportunities for learning by doing through exercises reflections and cases studies and inviting readers to embody the role of an editor to improve their craft and demystify the processes involved in this exciting and highly coveted profession

Transacting Sites of the Liminal Bodily Spaces Catalina Florina Florescu, 2011-01-18 This book focuses on liminal bodies and their delicate transaction with themselves and other people's bodies. More specifically, it explores the spatiality and discourses of the body dying, the body opened in surgery or through MRIs, CATs, and sometimes in autopsies, the body preserved through computerized images such as those created by the Visual Human Project, the metonymic body that continues to live in another body through organ replacement, and the bodily parts cast in silver and then abandoned in a museum. This study also analyzes the discourses of the contemporary body commissioned by the vast industry of mass media. This type of body has started to direct itself toward frugal, almost furtive pleasures; consequently, unlike those seriously affected by illnesses, a body constantly guarded by fear eventually runs on empty, becomes a corpse, and thus moves toward different types of minimal and liminal topology. The primary works examined include memoirs: Marjorie Williams's Hit by Lightning: A Cancer Memoir, Arthur W. Frank's At the Will of the Body: Reflections on Illness, Audre Lorde's The Cancer Journals; films: Alejandro Amenábar's The Sea Inside, Akira Kurosawa's Ikiru, Pedro Almodóvar's All about My Mother; stories: Marisa Silver's Night Train to Frankfurt; visual artworks as accomplished by Jo Spence, David Wojnarowicz, Félix Gonzales Torres, and Natalie Horne; and plays: Bryony Lavery's Last Easter, Paula Vogel's Baltimore Waltz, William Hoffman's As Is, which are read comparatively, namely as works positioned at the intersection between literature, visual art, and social diaries. This book has become part of the collections of the world's leading universities: Harvard, Princeton, Columbia, the Library of Congress, and more.

Teachers on the Edge John Boe, David Masiel, Eric Schroeder, Lisa Sperber, 2017-02-17 For over 25 years, the journal Writing on the Edge has published interviews with influential writers, teachers, and scholars. Now Teachers on the Edge: The WOE Interviews 1989-2017 collects the voices of 39 significant figures in modern writing studies, forming an accessible survey of the modern history of rhetoric and composition. In a conversational style, Teachers on the Edge encourages a remarkable group of teachers and scholars to tell the stories of their influences and interests, tracing the progress of their contributions. This engaging volume is invaluable to graduate students, writing teachers, and scholars of writing studies.

Vernacular Eloquence Peter Elbow, 2012-01-13 Since the publication of his groundbreaking books Writing Without Teachers and Writing with Power, Peter Elbow has revolutionized how people think about writing. Now in Vernacular Eloquence, he makes a vital new contribution to both practice and theory. The core idea is simple: we can enlist virtues from the language activity most people find easiest (speaking) for the language activity most people find hardest (writing). Speech, with its spontaneity, naturalness of expression, and fluidity of thought, has many overlooked linguistic and rhetorical merits. Through several easy-to-employ techniques, writers can marshal this wisdom of the tongue to produce stronger, clearer, more natural writing. This simple idea, it turns out, has deep repercussions. Our culture of literacy, Elbow argues, functions as though it were a plot against the spoken voice, the human body vernacular language and those without privilege making it harder than necessary to write with comfort or power Giving speech a central role in writing overturns many empty preconceptions It causes readers to think critically about the relationship between speech writing and our notion of literacy Developing the political implications behind Elbow s previous books Vernacular Eloquence makes a compelling case that strengthening writing and democratizing it go hand in hand

Everyone Can Write Peter Elbow,2000-01-27 With Writing without Teachers OUP 1975 and Writing with Power OUP 1995 Peter Elbow revolutionized the teaching of writing His process method and its now commonplace free writing techniques liberated generations of students and teachers from the emphasis on formal principles of grammar that had dominated composition pedagogy This new collection of essays brings together the best of Elbow s writing since the publication of Embracing Contraries in 1987 The volume includes sections on voice the experience of writing teaching and evaluation Implicit throughout is Elbow s commitment to humanizing the profession and his continued emphasis on the importance of binary thinking and nonadversarial argument The result is a compendium of a master teacher s thought on the relation between good pedagogy and good writing it is sure to be of interest to all professional teachers of writing and will be a valuable book for use in composition courses at all levels

The Academic Writer Lisa Ede,2010-12-27 Written in Lisa Ede s accessible supportive style The Academic Writer is an affordable brief guide to the essentials of academic writing and research By framing writing situations in terms of the writer reader text and medium the text helps students think rhetorically and make effective choices as they write Abundant student models advice on writing in the disciplines and attention to visuals and design make this text a perfect introduction to college writing at a great price

Voice First Sonya Huber,2022-09 Though it is foundational to the craft of writing the concept of voice is a mystery to many authors and teachers of writing do not have a good working definition of it for use in the classroom Written to address the vague and problematic advice given to writers to find their voice Voice First A Writer's Manifesto recasts the term in the plural to give writers options movement and a way to understand the development of voice over time By redefining voice Sonya Huber offers writers an opportunity not only to engage their voices but to understand and experience how developing their range of voices strengthens their writing Weaving together in depth discussions of various concepts of voice and stories from the author's writing life Voice First offers a personal view of struggles with voice as influenced and shaped by gender place of origin privilege race ethnicity and other factors reframing and updating the conversation for the twenty first century Each chapter includes writing prompts and explores a different element of voice helping writers at all levels stretch their concept of voice and develop a repertoire of voices to summon

Landmark Essays on Writing Process Sondra Perl, 1994 First Published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Small Cinemas in Global Markets David Desser, Janina Falkowska, Lenuta Giukin, 2014-12-18 Small Cinemas in Global Markets addresses aspects such as identity revisiting the past internationalized genres new forms of experimental cinema markets and production as well as technological developments of alternative small screens that open new perspectives into small cinema possibilities Small and big markets for small industries reveal an unimagined diversification of the cultural product and consequently the need to analyze the impact at local regional and global levels Much needed to continue and expand the existing scholarship in the field this volume is based on research by authors who approach their subject from Western theoretical perspectives with a professional mostly native knowledge of the language cultural realities and film industry practices It covers aspects from fifteen different countries including Bolivia Brazil China Hong Kong Croatia East Africa Kenya Tanzania and Uganda Greece Indonesia Lithuania Bulgaria Poland Romania Morocco and the United States Since both film and documentary distribution from certain areas of the globe on international markets remains problematic it is important for the academic field to discuss and circulate them as much as possible and to create the basis for further exploration Documenting and reflecting on the role state and reception of the film industry provides scholarly understanding to the industry's wide range of seemingly chaotic technological transformations

How Higher Education Feels Kathleen M. Quinlan, 2016-09-27 Teaching and learning in higher education can evoke strong feelings including confusion anxiety boredom curiosity surprise and exhilaration These emotions affect students learning progress and overall success Teachers emotions affect how they teach and their relationships and communication with students Yet the emotional dimensions of teachers and students experiences are rarely discussed in the context of improving higher education This book addresses that gap offering short evocative case studies to spark conversation among university teachers It challenges readers to reflect on how higher education feels to explore the emotional landscape of courses and programmes they create and consider the emotional effects of messages embedded in various policies and practices Following the student lifecycle from enrolment to reunion each of the main chapters contains 10 to 15 accessible emotionally engaging poems that serve as succinct case studies highlighting how some aspect of learning teaching or development in higher education feels Each chapter also contains an expert scholarly commentary that identifies emergent themes across the cases and establishes connections to theory and practice in higher education The poems as case studies are ideal for use in faculty or educational development workshops or for individual reflection A variety of theoretical perspectives and associated reflection prompts provide lenses for variously interpreting the poems An appendix offers suggestions for structuring case discussions as part of educational development activities The book promotes a person centered discourse giving voice to previously neglected aspects of higher education and reminding us that education is essentially a human endeavor

Rhetorical Touch Shannon Walters, 2014-10-20 Rhetorical Touch argues for an understanding of touch as a rhetorical art by approaching the sense of touch through the kinds of bodies and minds that rhetorical history and theory have tended to exclude In resistance to a rhetorical tradition focused on shaping able bodies and neurotypical minds Shannon Walters explores how people with various disabilities psychological cognitive and physical employ touch to establish themselves as communicators and to connect with disabled and nondisabled audiences In doing so she argues for a theory of rhetoric that understands and values touch as rhetorical Essential to her argument is a redefinition of key concepts and terms the rhetorical situation rhetorical identification and the appeals of ethos character pathos emotion and logos logic or message By connecting Empedoclean and sophistic theories to Aristotelian rhetoric and Burkean approaches Walters s methods mobilize a wide range of key figures in rhetorical history and theory in response to the context of disability Using Empedocles tactile approach to logos Walters shows how the iterative writing processes of people with psychological disabilities shape crucial spaces for identification based on touch in online and real life spaces Mobilizing the touch based properties of the rhetorical practice of mētis Walters demonstrates how rhetors with autism approach the crafting of ethos in generative and embodied ways Rereading the rhetorical practice of kairos in relation to the proximity between bodies Walters demonstrates how writers with physical disabilities move beyond approaches of pathos based on pity and inspiration The volume also includes a classroom based exploration of the discourses and assumptions regarding bodies in relation to haptic or touch based technologies Because the sense of touch is the most persistent of the senses Walters argues that in contexts of disability and in situations in which people with and without disabilities interact touch can be a particularly vital instrument for creating meaning connection and partial identification She contends that a rhetoric thus reshaped stretches contemporary rhetoric and composition studies to respond to the contributions of disabled rhetors and transforms the traditional rhetorical appeals and canons Ultimately Walters argues a rhetoric of touch allows for a richer understanding of the communication processes of a wide range of rhetors who use embodied strategies

Evocative Qualitative Inquiry Joanne Yoo, 2021-11-16 Evocative Qualitative Inquiry explores academic research that evokes vitality and life It provides a road map into integrating the personal with professional to engage in intrinsically meaningful forms of inquiry The book centers on the key considerations of engaging in evocative forms of writing in the academy It depicts academic inquiry as an embodied process that is captured and understood through rhythm and resonance It relays how pleasurable sensory and rhythmic forms of inquiry can engender a sense of timelessness expansiveness growth and generativity Evocative Qualitative Inquiry relates the challenges that may arise from following this less trodden academic inquiry path It conveys the importance of faith and courage in forging one's own unique and authentic writing voice The book concludes with an analogy of a poker game to illustrate how all academic writers possess the embodied capacity to write vibrant words that evoke Finally each chapter ends with reflection questions and activities to help readers practice the skills of writing evocatively This book will be a valuable guide for those seeking evocative writing techniques to engage in vibrant forms of academic research It is primarily written for academics who desire to learn more about creative poetic and embodied writing methodologies

The Collaborative Body in Qualitative Research Bodies Collective, Ryan Bittinger, Claudia Canella, Jess Erb, Sarah Helps, Mark Huhnen, Davina Kirkpatrick, Alys Mendus, 2023-11-03 The Collaborative Body in Qualitative Research challenges normative philosophies that have frequently neglected the body's place in research and then illustrates how the body is essential for all meaning making By voicing the body the first part of this rebellious book problematizes how the body is used assessed yet often silenced in academic writing This book then fluidly moves to celebrating the body through discussing taboo topics like sex sexuality in friendship underwear knickers ageing and death as well as how a non binary body moves in a heteronormative world Through the lens of Bodyography this book does research differently illuminating how the body flourishes excites knowledge and is complicated when placed on a screen This book celebrates a collaborative and arts based approach This book is a dialogue between The Bodies Collective with dialogic resonance sections between each chapter and art pieces throughout This book will encourage all scholars to do research differently Anyone with a thirst to challenge normative practices in academia and who wants research to be inspiring and playful will fall in love with this book N B Please cite the authorship of this book as The Bodies Collective 2023

The Focusing Student's and Companion's Manual Ann Weiser Cornell, Barbara McGavin, 2002 Trauma and Expressive Arts Therapy Cathy A. Malchiodi, 2020-02-12 From pioneering therapist Cathy A Malchiodi this book synthesizes the breadth of research on trauma and the brain and presents an innovative framework for treating trauma through the expressive arts The volume describes powerful ways to tap into deeply felt bodily and sensory experiences as a foundation for safely exploring emotions memories and personal narratives Rich clinical examples illustrate the use of movement sound play art and drama with children and adults Malchiodi's approach not only enables survivors to express experiences that defy verbalization but also helps them to transform and integrate the trauma regain a sense of aliveness and imagine a new future Purchasers get access to a companion website where they can download and print reproducible tools from the book in a convenient 8 1 2 x 11 size as well as full color versions of 26 figures Contemplative and Artful Openings Susan Casey

Walsh, 2017-07-06 Highlighting an arts based inquiry process that involves contemplation mindful awareness and artful writing this book explores women's difficult experiences in teaching. It weaves a strong autobiographical thread with artifacts from several research projects with female teachers. By linking innovative approaches to research that involve visual images and poetic writing with feminist poststructuralist theories and Buddhist inspired practices Walsh offers new understandings about what it means to be critical in research and teaching and also what transformation both social and personal might entail.
