Female Fault And Fulfilment In Gnosticism:

Female Fault and Fulfilment in Gnosticism Jorunn Jacobsen Buckley, 1986 Buckley challenges scholarly stereotypical views of females in Gnosticism which tend either toward idealization or outright devaluation Examining six Gnostic texts or traditions that illuminate female figures she analyzes a variety of females within their contexts She makes no attempt to classify Gnostic females according to simplifying formulae rather she treats them individually allowing them to make sense within their own contexts Originally published in 1986 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

Female Fault and Fulfilment in Gnosticism Jorunn J. Buckley, 1986 Images of the Feminine in Gnosticism Karen L. King, 2000-09-01 Essays on the feminine face of God in Gnostic philosophy and theology are collected in a fascinating introduction to this early and often persecuted strand of Christian thought Original

Religion and Female Body in Ancient Judaism and Its Environments Géza G. Xeravits, 2015-04-24 The volume publishes papers read at the ninth International Conference on the Deuterocanonical Books Budapest 2012 The title of the conference and the issuing volume covers an on the one hand extremely important and on the other hand regrettably neglected aspect particularly of the ancient Jewish and Christian traditions Traditional manifestations of both Judaism and Christianity are predominantly masculine theological constructions Despite their harsh masculine orientation however neither Judaism nor Christianity lacks elaboration on the female principle When an ancient author chooses female imagery in order to make his message more emphatic the female body as such forms an integral part of their metaphors The contributions in this volume explore this phenomenon within the literature of early Judaism and within its broad environments

Women and Marriage in Paul and His Early Interpreters Gillian Beattie, 2005-12-20 Beattie undertakes a comparative survey of the treatment of women and marriage in three different kinds of text an authentic Pauline letter namely 1 Corinthians the deuterio Pauline literature Colossians Ephesians and the Pastoral Epistles and some tractates from the Nag Hammadi library giving particular attention to the Gospel of Philip the Exegesis on the Soul the Hypostasis of the Archons and the Gospel of Thomas The theoretical position she takes is based upon the neo pragmatist thought of Richard Rorty and Stanley Fish the former's notions of contingency and redescription being of particular importance The aim of this book is twofold to draw attention to the contingency that is to say the situatedness and vested interests attendant on all acts of interpretation and to engage in a redescription of the category of gnosticism to which the Nag Hammadi texts have traditionally been assigned and thus also of the canonical texts as seen in relation to them It is not the intention to suggest in a simplistic fashion that the Nag Hammadi texts should somehow displace the canonical documents as the correct reading of Paul but rather to show that texts can be read in ways as diverse and numerous as the goals of their interpreters JSNTS 296

Female Fault and Fulfillment in Gnosticism Jorunn J. Buckley, The Gospel According to Philip Martha Turner, 2020-10-26 Study of the Gospel according to Philip an important gnostic Christian text has been hampered by unresolved questions about the unity genre and sectarian contexts of the work This book argues that terms of self designation use of controversial vocabulary style hermeneutic strategies and theological commitments together present persuasive evidence of derivation from multiple sectarian milieux The document s organizing principles are found to be in accord with the excerpting and collection practices of Late Antiquity The coherence of the text lies in its compiler s distinctive interests and choices not in the uniformity of its materials The persuasive case made by this book will help to advance research on this significant document of early Christianity The Valentinian Temple Matthew Twigg, 2022-04-11 Is the Nag Hammadi Apocalypse of Paul a Valentinian text Many would say no few would say yes The Valentinian Temple brings together all the available evidence to produce a systematic argument in favour of the Apocalypse of Paul s Valentinian origins From Valentinus himself to the Gospel of Truth and the Gospel of Philip this book traces one of the most neglected trajectories in Valentinian Christianity namely the pursuit of mystical experiences oriented around a heavenly temple Starting with the divine Name in the fragments of Valentinus the development of a high priestly Christology is uncovered across a range of primary sources culminating in the Gospel of Philip s temple based rituals of initiation The Valentinian Temple argues that it is against this intellectual background that the Apocalypse of Paul ought to be understood This book will be of interest to experts and students in Gnosticism Valentinianism early Christianity Coptic and biblical literature and Pauline studies The Gospel of Thomas Richard Valantasis, 2008-03-07 This volume offers the first full commentary on the Gospel of Thomas a work which has previously been accessible only to theologians and scholars Valantasis provides fresh translations of the Coptic and Greek text with an illuminating commentary examining the text line by line He includes a general introduction outlining the debates of previous scholars and situating the Gospel in its historical and theological contexts The Gospel of Thomas provides an insight into a previously inaccessible text and presents Thomas gospel as an integral part of the canon of Biblical writings which can inform us further about the literature of the Judeo Christian tradition and early Christianity The Mandaean Rivers Scroll (Diwan Nahrawatha) Brikha Nasoraia, 2022-09-30 This book features detailed analysis of an ancient secret scroll from the Middle East known as the Rivers Scroll or Diwan Nahrawatha providing valuable insight into the Gnostic Mandaean religion This important scroll offers a window of understanding into the Mandaean tradition with its intricate worldview ritual life mysticism and esoteric qualities as well as intriguing art The text of the Rivers Scroll and its artistic symbolism have never before been properly analyzed and interpreted and the significance of the document has been lost in scholarship This study includes key segments translated into English for the first time and gives the scroll the worthy place it deserves in the history of the Mandaean tradition It will be of interest to scholars of Gnosticism religious studies archaeology and Semitic languages The Resurrection of Mary Magdalene Jane

Schaberg,2004-08-31 The controversy surrounding Dan Brown s novel The Da Vinci Code has intensified interest in Mary Magdalene and Jane Schaberg provides an authoritative source for a deeper understanding and re assessment of this popular figure Within a progressive feminist framework The Resurrection of Mary Magdalene approaches Christian Testament sources through analysis of legend archaeology and gnostic apocryphal traditions This is the story of the suppression and distortion of a powerful woman leader Schaberg presents Mary Magdalene as successor to Jesus in a challenging alternative to the Petrine primacy

Nag Hammadi Bibliography 1970-1994 David Scholer,2020-10-26 This is a sequel to the immensely useful Nag Hammadi Bibliography 1948 1969 which was the first volume to appear in the Nag Hammadi Studies series The volume provides a complete integration of Supplements I XXIV to the Bibliography as published in Novum Testamentum 1971 1997 with additions and corrections In total the update contains over 6092 entries Nag Hammadi and Gnostic studies continue to be of critical importance for the study of ancient religions in the Graeco Roman world and for the study of the world of early Christianity and the present bibliography provides an indispensable reference tool for work in these fields

The Mandaeans Jorunn Jacobsen Buckley,2002 The Mandaeans were a gnostic sect that arose in the Middle East around the same time as Christianity This text examines the lives and religion of contemporary Mandaeans and provides an introduction to the religion showing how its ancient texts inform the living religion and vice versa

Various Aspects of Worship in Deuterocanonical and Cognate Literature Géza G. Xeravits,József Zsengellér,Ibolya Balla,2017-06-26 The volume contains papers read at the International Conference of the ISDCL held in Budapest in 2015 The contributors explore various aspects of worship as reflected in the literature of Judaism from the Second Temple period to Late Antiquity The volume provides a fresh reading of various crucial issues especially within Old Testament Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha Rabbinic literature Gnostic traditions and the emerging synagogue The papers analyse texts and artefacts that reveal how various groups of Judaism understood the concept of worship a pre eminent form of expressing religious identity and interpreting fundamental traditions

Suffering Religion Robert Gibbs, Elliot R. Wolfson,2003-09-02 In a diverse and innovative selection of new essays by cutting edge theologians and philosophers Suffering Religion examines one of the most primitive but challenging questions to define human experience why do we suffer As a theme uniting very different religious and cultural traditions the problem of suffering addresses issues of passivity the vulnerability of embodiment the generosity of love and the complexity of gendered desire Interdisciplinary studies bring different kinds of interpretations to meet and enrich each other Can the notion of goodness retain meaning in the face of real affliction or is pain itself in conflict with meaning Themes covered include philosophy s own failure to treat suffering seriously with special reference to the Jewish tradition Martin Buber s celebrated interpretations of scriptural suffering suffering in Kristevan psychoanalysis focusing on the Christian theology of the cross the pain of childbirth in a home setting as a religiously significant choice Gods primal suffering in the kabbalistic tradition Incarnation as a gracious willingness to suffer

Mariam, the Magdalen, and the Mother Deirdre Joy Good, 2005 Revelatory essays on the Mary figures of the Bible Patterns of Women's Leadership in Early Christianity Joan E. Taylor, Ilaria L. E. Ramelli, 2021-02-18 This authoritative collection brings together the latest thinking on women's leadership in early Christianity Patterns of Women's Leadership in Early Christianity considers the evidence for ways in which women exercised leadership in churches from the 1st to the 9th centuries CE This rich and diverse volume breaks new ground in the study of women in early Christianity This is not about working with one method based on one type of feminist theory but overall there is nevertheless a feminist or egalitarian agenda in considering the full equality of women with men in religious spheres a positive goal with the assumption that this full equality has yet to be attained The chapters revisit both older studies and offers new and unpublished research exploring the many ways in which ancient Christian women's leadership could function Women & Christian Origins Ross Shepard Kraemer, 1999 This new collection of fourteen integrated original essays by prominent scholars and experienced teachers provides a comprehensive and accessible entree to current research on women and the origins of Christianity Engaging for both the interested reader and the specialist in religion Women and Christian Origins is sensitive to feminist theory and attentive to distinctions between the re construction of women's history in early Christian churches and ancient constructions of gender difference

Die Eucharistie ist Jesus Herbert Schmid, 2007-09-30 Given the concept of salvation through knowledge in Valentinian Gnosis which is basically anti materialist one would not expect concrete physical rituals to play a large role in its practice The Nag Hammadi Gospel of Philip is widely recognized as a Valentinian text yet it contains portions of a treatise on the value of baptism anointing and the eucharist The text which arguably comes from the end of the second century presents the first developed theory and justification of these sacraments in Early Christianity The present study reconstructs this theory from the fragmentary text and considers its consequences for the organization of the community Thus the book is also an attempt to address the problem of institutionalization in early Christian communities Lex Crucis William P. Loewe, 2016-06-03 What is the true story of God and humankind and how does that story become a saving story These are pivotal questions that constitute the narratives Christians tell about themselves their values and how the Christian life is to be lived In shaping those stories into a coherent intelligible framework that provides comprehensive meaning soteriology the doctrine of redemption developed as a keystone to Christian consciousness This study investigates that development of the soteriological tradition Employing Bernard Lonergan's notion of the stages of meaning as a hermeneutic the volume traces the origins of soteriology in the early Christian tradition represented by Irenaeus to its establishment as a systematic theory in Anselm Aquinas and subsequent developments in the Protestant tradition of Luther and Schleiermacher The author concludes with a constructive exploration of Lonergan's own work on the question of soteriology that overcomes the modernist distortions that hinder Schleiermacher's account and offers an articulation of the dynamics of Christian conversion that opens onto the social cultural and political mediations of redemption necessary for the contemporary age
