Female Stories Female Bodies Narrative Identity And Representation:

Female Stories, Female Bodies Lidia Curti, 1998-02 On women authors and women in literature Female Stories, Female Bodies Lidia Curti, 1998-01-19 This interdisciplinary book explores women's narratives in a wide variety of media and genre from soap opera and film to the post modern novel and Shakespearian drama Adopting an innovative feminist perspective it focuses particularly on the themes of hybridity and monstrosity in language and the body In doing so it raises issues to do with closure and temporal and spatial dislocation drawing on themes of passion paranoia and desire Female Subjectivity in African-American Women's Poetry Tanimu Kumari, 2023-04-17 This book is aimed at constructing the Black female subjectivity of African American women through the works of chosen poets Marilyn Nelson Rita Dove Elizabeth Alexander and Patricia Smith The study delves into the intricacies of African American women's issues such as objectification rape motherhood and racism This work is unique as it takes up the study of African American women's poetry and studies different creative expressions and artistic genres in their struggle for identity It illuminates Black female aesthetics and the liberation of self thus celebrating their blackness By examining historical and contemporary issues the book invites the readers to re counter the dominance of the established White Order and stimulates the question of the agency of Black women This book debunks the perceptions and offers a genuine contribution to the discourse on African American women's lives It goes beyond the customary reflections on women's experiences and addresses the poignant odyssey of women of color marking a shift to politics of survival Modern Genre Theory David Duff, 2014-09-11 Since Aristotle genre has been one of the fundamental concepts of literary theory and much of the world's literature and criticism has been shaped by ideas about the nature function and value of literary genres Modern developments in critical theory however prompted in part by the iconoclastic practices of modern writers and the emergence of new media such as film and television have put in question traditional categories and challenged the assumptions on which earlier genre theory was based This has led not just to a reinterpretation of individual genres and the development of new classifications but also to a radically new understanding of such key topics as the mixing and evolution of genres generic hierarchies and genre systems the politics and sociology of genres and the relations between genre and gender This anthology the first of its kind in English charts these fascinating developments Through judicious selections from major twentieth century genre theorists including Yuri Tynyanov Vladimir Propp Mikhail Bakhtin Hans Robert Jauss Rosalie Colie Fredric Jameson Tzvetan Todorov Gérard Genette and Jacques Derrida it demonstrates the central role that notions of genre have played in Russian Formalism structuralism and post structuralism reception theory and various modes of historical criticism Each essay is accompanied by a detailed headnote and the volume opens with a lucid introduction emphasising the international and interdisciplinary character of modern debates about genre Also included are an annotated bibliography and a glossary of key terms making this an indispensable resource for students and anyone interested in genre studies or literary theory Toni Morrison L.

Wagner-Martin,2015-04-22 A reading of the oeuvre of Toni Morrison fiction non fiction and other drawing extensively from her many interviews as well as her primary texts The author aligns Morrison s novels with the works of Virginia Woolf and William Faulkner assessing her works as among the most innovative and most significant worldwide of the past fifty years

Contemporary French Women's Writing Shirley Ann Jordan,2004 In the 1990s the French literary arena was enlivened by the emergence of a new generation of women writers This book selects six of its most distinctive voices and addresses important questions about the very new in French women s writing What are young women choosing to write about What do they tell us about changing perceptions of feminine identities What does it mean to write and to read as women at the start of the new millennium An introductory chapter explores key issues such as the woman writer in the public imagination and continuity and change within French women s writing since the 1970s It also highlights thematic threads which recur across the work of the authors studied history and time wandering and exile self and other the body and sexuality and writing and telling The remaining chapters propose productive approaches to the fictional worlds of Marie Darrieussecq Virginie Despentes Marie Ndiaye Agn s Desarthe Lorette Nob court and Am lie Nothomb through close readings of their most challenging popular or telling texts They focus on perennial preoccupations in women s writing which are given new treatment by these writers and discuss important developments such as uses of the pornographic myth and fairy tale and parody and irony in new women s writing

The Silent Echo Helen Paloge,2007-01-01 The Silent Echo examines the contemporary female midlife novel and its failure to acknowledge and engage the aging female body Examining novels by authors such as Margaret Atwood Fay Weldon Joan Barfoot and Joyce Carol Oates The Silent Echo integrates various social psychological and philosophical theories with those of cultural studies to analyze how and why the aging female body has become the silent echo at the core of women s fiction

Interactive Fictions Yael Halevi-Wise,2003-09-30 Arguing that genre must play a role in our study of narrative fiction this tour of the novel examines interactive storytelling scenes in which characters argue about how to tell a tale that meets their respective social and aesthetic expectations Through intense readings of interactive storytelling scenes in works spanning the 17th through 20th centuries Halevi Wise demonstrates how dramatized arguments about storytelling open a window on social and generic dilemmas affecting the narrative of each novel at the time of its composition Examined in detail are Cervantes Don Quixote Sterne s Tristram Shandy Austen s Northanger Abbey Dickens s Little Dorrit Conrad s Lord Jim Yehoshua s Mr Mani and Esquivel s I Like Water for Chocolate Redressing an imbalance between sociological approaches that displace aesthetic considerations and aesthetic analyses that bracket cultural phenomena the author shows why both genre and culture must be taken into account when we analyze the formation and reception of a narrative Each interactive storytelling event illustrates how social and aesthetic interests compete and reinvent themselves within their framing texts and those texts respective national and historical contexts Just as social interactions cannot be indefinitely displaced in the study of narrative fiction genre cannot be ignored in the study of identity politics What emerges from this unique examination is a postmodern poetics of the novel that takes genre and history into account

Toni Morrison Linda Wagner-Martin, 2022-02-08 A reading of the oeuvre of Toni Morrison fiction non fiction and other drawing extensively from her many interviews as well as her primary texts Toni Morrison A Literary Life second edition provides an overview of Morrison s intellectual growth as an artist Linda Wagner Martin aligns Morrison s novels with the works of Virginia Woolf and William Faulkner assessing her works as among the most innovative and most significant worldwide of the past fifty plus years The revised edition includes new discussion of God Help the Child The Origin of Others and The Source of Self Regard These additions present and intensify scholarship on Morrison s major literary contributions but also trace her significant role as a public intellectual bringing to light the consistency of Morrison s aesthetic and political visions

Female Subjectivity in Women's Writing Hatice Yurttaş, 2023-09-21 This volume discusses how Angela Carter s Nights at the Circus Margaret Atwood s The Blind Assassin and A S Byatt s Morpho Eugenia approach the question of female subjectivity and how they relate this question to language and literature It shows that the conscious intertextuality and genre transgressions in these writings reflect the authors awareness of the woman writer s problematic position in the literary tradition which does not allow woman a subject position In this discussion Luce Irigaray s criticism of language and theory as the producer and ally of the patriarchal order is used as the main reference point The book reads these in the light of Irigaray s analyses of how language creates the category of woman It highlights that Atwood and Carter are more in accord with Irigaray s insistence on a language that can produce a female subjectivity by acknowledging representing and symbolizing the desire of and for the mother while Byatt on the other hand suffices with deconstructing the male subject without devising a subjective identity for women

Narrating the American West , An Introduction to Literature, Criticism and Theory Andrew Bennett, Nicholas Royle, 2016-03-02 Lively original and highly readable An Introduction to Literature Criticism and Theory is the essential guide to literary studies Starting at The Beginning and concluding with The End chapters range from the familiar such as Character Narrative and The Author to the more unusual such as Secrets Pleasure and Ghosts Now in its fifth edition Bennett and Royle s classic textbook successfully illuminates complex ideas by engaging directly with literary works so that a reading of Jane Eyre opens up ways of thinking about racial difference for example while Chaucer Raymond Chandler and Monty Python are all invoked in a discussion of literature and laughter The fifth edition has been revised throughout and includes four new chapters Feelings Wounds Body and Love to incorporate exciting recent developments in literary studies In addition to further reading sections at the end of each chapter the book contains a comprehensive bibliography and a glossary of key literary terms A breath of fresh air in a field that can often seem dry and dauntingly theoretical this book will open the reader s eyes to the exhilarating possibilities of reading and studying literature

Transgressing Women Jamaluddin Aziz, 2012-01-17 Transgressing Women focuses on the literary and cinematic representation of female characters in contemporary noir thrillers The book argues that as the genre has grown expanded and been subverted since its initial conception along with the changing definition of gender the representation of a female character has also inevitably gone through some dramatic changes So the book asks some important questions What links the female characters in canonical noir to their contemporary counterparts Is gender division still relevant in a text that transgresses gender boundaries What happens when it is the human body itself that betrays the traditional definition or constitution of a human being While many have written about the male protagonists and the femmes fatales in the noir genre little attention has been given to the other female characters who inhabit the noir world and are transgressors themselves The main concern of the book is to trace the transgressive female characters in contemporary noir thrillers both novels and films by engaging itself with some of the most topical debates within both post feminist and postmodernist theories The book is structured around two key concepts space and the body These temporal and spatial indicators are central in contemporary cultural theories such as postmodernism and post feminism along with other theorizations of gender and the noir genre This means that the analysis is drawn from the classical noir examples and will then arrive at the neo noir sub genre and then will move on to the most recent phenomenon in the genre future noir

Women Writing Greece Vassiliki Kolocotroni, 2008

Women Writing Greece explores images of modern Greece by women who experienced the country as travellers writers and scholars or who journeyed there through the imagination The essays assembled here consider women s travel narratives memoirs and novels ranging from the eighteenth to the late twentieth century focusing on the role of gender in travel and cross cultural mediation and challenging stereotypical views of the Greek journey traditionally seen as an antiquarian or Byronic pursuit This collection aims to cast new light on women s participation in the discourses of Hellenism and Orientalism examining their ideological rendering of Greece as at once a luminous land and a site crossed by contradictory cultural memories Arranged chronologically the essays discuss encounters with Greece by among others Lady Elizabeth Craven Lady Hester Stanhope Lady Montagu Lady Morgan Mary Shelley Felicia Skene Emily Pfeiffer Eva Palmer Jane Ellen Harrison Virginia Woolf Ethel Smyth Christa Wolf Penelope Storace and Gillian Bouras and analyse them through a variety of critical historical contextual and theoretical frames

The Bloomsbury Handbook to Toni Morrison Kelly Reames, Linda Wagner-Martin, 2022-12-15

The most substantial collection of critical essays on Morrison to appear since her death in mid 2019 this book contains previously unpublished essays which both acknowledge the universal significance of her writing even as they map new directions Essayists include pre eminent Morrison scholars as well as scholars who work in cultural criticism African American letters American modernism and women s writing The book includes work on Morrison as a public intellectual work which places Morrison s writing within today s currents of contemporary fiction work which draws together Morrison s trilogy of Beloved Jazz and Paradise alongside Dos Passos USA trilogy work which links Morrison to such Black Atlantic artists as Lubaina Himid and others as well as work which offers a reading of influence that goes both directions between Morrison and Faulkner Another cluster of essays treats seldom discussed works by Morrison including an essay on

Morrison as writer of children's books and as speaker for children's education In addition a Teaching Morrison section is designed to help teachers and critics who teach Morrison in undergraduate classes The Bloomsbury Handbook to Toni Morrison is wide ranging provocative and satisfying a fitting tribute to one of the greatest American novelists

Postmodernism for Historians Callum G. Brown, 2013-12-02 Postmodernism is an essential approach to History This is the first dedicated primer on postmodernism for the historian It offers a step by step guide to postmodern theory includes a guide to how historians have applied the theory and provides a review of why its critics are wrong In simple and clear language it takes the reader through the chain of theory that developed in the 20th century to become now in the early 21st century the leading stimulant of new forms of research in History With separate chapters on The Sign The Discourse Post Structuralism The Text The Self and Morality this book will encourage a new critical awareness of Theory when reading books of History and when writing essays and dissertations Armed with the principal ideas of Saussure Barthes Foucault and Derrida the historians can formulate how to combine empirical History with the excitement of fresh perspectives and new skills merged in the new moral impetus of the postmodern condition Designed for the beginner this is the essential postmodern starting point

Practices of Proximity Katherine E. Russo, 2010-04-16 Practices of Proximity investigates the appropriation of the English language taking place in the Australian literary contact zone between an official white Australia the apparent owners of both the land and the English language and Australian Indigenous peoples Rescuing the debate from seemingly peripheral locations the empty Great Sandy Desert or the abject urban margin it insists on the complex ultimately open ended and multilateral ownership of the English language by all who inhabit the intersubjective space of literature rendering the inherited authority of who owns meaning problematical and ethically suspect Documenting the complex practices of bricolage and re lexification of a multi accentuated Australia the book invites readers to consider Australian Indigenous literature as a space from which a re routing of issues of co habitation sovereignty and being and becoming Australian might begin This interdisciplinary study of Australian Indigenous practices of appropriation ranges from texts produced during the first encounters of Indigenous and non Indigenous peoples to the work of established and rising authors such as Oodgeroo Noonuccal Jack Davis Lionel Fogarty Romaine Moreton and Kim Scott

Reading Spiritualities Dawn Llewellyn, 2016-04-01

The phenomenon of sacred text has undergone radical deconstruction in recent times reflecting how religion has broken out of its traditional definitions and practices and how current literary theories have influenced texts inside the religious domain and beyond Reading Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview Caribbean literature drama and jazz women s writings emerging church blogs Neopagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Mich le Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focused snapshot of the textual constructions and representations of the sacred within the contemporary religious climate accessible to the general reader as well as more specialist interests of students and researchers working in the crossover fields of religious theological cultural and literary studies
