Feminism Without Borders Chandra Talpade Mohanty, 2005-12 Forging vital links between daily life and collective action and between theory and pedagogy this collection highlights the concerns running throughout Mohanty's pioneering work the politics of difference and solidarity decolonising and democratising feminist practice the crossing of borders and the relation of feminist knowledge and scholarship to organising social movements Mohanty offers a sustained critique of globalization and urges a reorientation of transnational feminist practice towards anticapitalist struggles Her probing and provocative analyses of key concepts in feminist thought home sisterhood community lead the way toward a feminism without borders a feminism fully engaged with the realities of a transnational world Feminism Without Borders

Chandra Talpade Mohanty, 2007 A Decolonial Black Feminist Theory of Reading and Shade Andrea N.

Baldwin, 2021-11-04 This book uses a decolonial Black feminist lens to understand the contemporary significance of the practices and politics of indifference in United States higher education It illustrates how higher education institutions are complicit in maintaining dominant social norms that perpetuate difference It weaves together Black feminisms affect and queer theory to demonstrate that the ways in which human bodies are classified and normalized in societal and scientific terms contribute to how the minoritized and marginalized feel White higher education spaces The text espouses a Black Feminist Shade y Theoretics to read the university by considering the historical positioning of the modern university as sites in which the modern body is made and remade through empirically reliable truth claims and how contemporary knowledges and academic disciplinary inheritances bear the fingerprints of racist sexist science even as the academy tries to disavow its inheritance through so called inclusive practices and policies today This book will appeal to students and scholars interested in Black feminism Gender and women's studies Black and ethnic studies sociology decoloniality queer studies and affect theory Feminist Ethics and Social and Political Philosophy: Theorizing the Non-Ideal Lisa Tessman, 2009-07-30 Feminist

Ethics and Social and Political Philosophy Theorizing the Non Ideal is a collection of feminist essays that self consciously develop non idealizing approaches to either ethics or social and political philosophy or both Characterizing feminist ethics and social and political philosophy as marked by a tendency to be non idealizing serves to thematize the volume while still allowing the essays to be diverse enough to constitute a representation of current work in the fields of feminist ethics and social and political philosophy Each of the essays either serves as an instance of work that is rooted in actual non ideal conditions and that as such is able to consider any of the many questions relevant to subordinated people or reflects theoretically on the significance of non idealizing as an approach to feminist ethics or social and political philosophy The volume will be of interest to feminist scholars from all disciplines to academics who are ethicists and political philosophers as well as to graduate students Translocalities/Translocalidades Sonia E. Flaherty, Thomas G. Matyók, Sean Byrne, Hamdesa Tusso, 2015-10-16 The twenty first century has brought with it a shift from the notion of human security being located in secure national borders to the need to secure the safety freedom and dignity of all Despite efforts to equalize women s status in the world evidenced by changes in many international projects requiring a gender focus women and men experience most of the world in very different ways according to gender Further the reality is that humans who do not all fall neatly into one of these categories male or female often find their lives further challenged In the 1980s Peace and Conflict Studies first began to acknowledge and study the different experiences males and females have during war and peace Since then there have been books about women and war women working at grassroots levels to build peace women and transitional justice women and peace education and women s views of human security All of these works have contributed to the discourse of our changing world This book brings together some of those themes and voices and adds more with the final product being more than the sum of its parts We add to the conversation a book that considers foundational fundamental issues that span from the interpersonal to the global Many of the chapters describe empirical research completed with author and community shared here for the first time Part One is a collection of case studies documenting challenges and responses to peacebuilding by women from various parts of the world Part Two focuses on Peace and Conflict Studies PACS as a discipline examining not only what is but also what should be taught This section critiques today s efforts at teaching Peace and Conflict Studies and provides suggestions of how this important work might be shared in more open and equitable ways Part Three enters territory found even less in the PACS literature In this section our authors confront patriarchy engage in a discussion about the contribution queer theory makes to PACS and tussle with the notion of inclusivity with considerations of both gender and disability It then ends with a discussion about the contribution feminist methodologies make to PACS

Women Filmmakers and the Visual Politics of Transnational China in the #MeToo Era Gina Marchetti, 2025-10-01 Manoeuvring around mainland China's censors and pushing back against threats of lawsuits online harassment and physical violence MeToo activists shed a particularly harsh light on the treatment of women in the cinema and entertainment industries Focusing on films from the People's Republic of China Hong Kong Taiwan and the Chinese diaspora this book considers how female directors shape Chinese visual politics through the depiction of the look the stare the leer the glare the glimpse the glance the queer and the oppositional gaze in fiction and documentary filmmaking In the years leading up to and following in the wake of MeToo these cosmopolitan women filmmakers offer innovative angles on body image reproduction romance family relations gender identity generational differences female sexuality sexual violence sex work labor migration career options minority experiences media access feminist activism and political rights within the rapidly changing Chinese cultural orbit

Relational Theory Christine M. Koggel, Ami Harbin, Jennifer J. Llewellyn, 2025-04-18 Relational theory starts from the ontological fact of our being in networks of relationships and draws out what this means for theories of knowledge and for moral and political theory This book uses insights from feminist relational theory to outline the ontological epistemological and moral political implications of this theoretical approach The chapters in this volume focus on relationships of power and oppression how these relationships shape who is taken to have knowledge and who is dismissed or ignored and what all of this means for theories of equality justice and moral and political theory more generally A focus on relationships of power and oppression opens up an examination into structures such as colonialism and capitalism that shape interconnected networks of relationships between humans and human and non human entities and ecosystems This volume which now includes eight additional chapters published both before and after the original special issue offers a significant step forward in the development of feminist relational theory Following early forays in identifying and criticizing mainstream liberal theory in the Western tradition chapters in this collection draw on approaches by anti oppression theorists found in critical disability critical race anti colonial decolonial and non Western theories to further broaden the descriptions and analyses of relationships and networks of relationships and to extend and advance feminist relational theory and its applications The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Global Ethics

Transnational Matrilineage Silvia Schultermandl, 2009 Transnational Matrilineage offers a novel approach to Asian American literature including texts by Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Mei Ng Nora Okja Keller and Vineeta Vijayaraghavan with particular attention to depictions of transnational solidarity that is the sense of community between women of different cultures or cultural affiliations between Asian born mothers and their American born daughters While focusing on the mother daughter conflicts these texts portray this book also contributes to ongoing debates in transnational feminism by scrutinizing the representation of Asia in Asian American literature

Handbook of Curriculum Theory, Research, and Practice Peter Pericles Trifonas, Susan Jagger, 2024-02-22 This Handbook paints a portrait of what the international field of curriculum entails in theory research and practice It represents the field accurately and comprehensively by preserving the individual voices of curriculum theorist researchers and practitioners in relation to the ideas rules and principles that have evolved out of the history of curriculum as theory research and practice dealing with specific and general issues Due to its approach to both specific and general curriculum issues the chapters in this volume vary with respect to scope Some engage the purposes and politics of schooling in general Others focus on particular topics such as evaluation the use of instructional objectives or curriculum integration They illustrate recurrent themes and historical antecedents and the curricular debates arising from and grounded in epistemological traditions Furthermore the issues raised in the handbook cut across a variety of subject areas and levels of education and how curricular research and practice have developed over time This includes the epistemological foundations of dominant ideas in the field around theory research and practice that have led to marginalization based on race class gender sexuality ethnicity age religion and ability The book argues that basic curriculum issues extend well beyond schooling to include the concerns of anyone interested in how people come to acquire the knowledge skills and values that they do in relation to subjectivity and experience

work is an international profession and is increasingly having to respond to the needs of displaced people and those impacted by immigration control systems This book will be a vital resource for service providers students and academics specifically those who provide services to people whose lives are impacted by borders Feminist Media Elke Zobl,Ricarda

Drüeke,2014-04-15 While feminists have long recognised the importance of self managed alternative media to transport their messages to challenge the status quo and to spin novel social processes this topic has been an under researched area Hence this book explores the processes of women s and feminist media production in the context of participatory spaces technology and cultural citizenship The collection is composed of theoretical analyses and critical case studies It highlights contemporary alternative feminist media in general as well as blogs zines culture jamming and street art Contemporary

Social Theory Roger Salerno,2020-07-24 Contemporary Social Theory helps students explore describe and discuss how social theory relates to their own experiences popular culture and the world in which they live It advances the view that new theory can be effectively used to assess social and cultural phenomena The text identifies the important intellectual movements categories and paradigms that have occurred in the study of social theory It also looks at issues closely related to contemporary social theory such as the postmodern condition globalization postcolonialism inequality gender race and human sexuality Translation and Travelling Theory Dongchao Min,2016-07-15 Research has shown that feminist theory has flowed far more easily from North to South and from West to East wheras travel in other directions has proved almost non existent While the hegemony of US feminist theory has been challenged in Europe for example there remain many invisible discursive trajectories that link the development of feminist theories and movements across the world This book brings together and engages with theories of globalisation transnational feminism travelling theory and cultural translation exploring the travelling routes of feminist theory and practice to China over recent decades With attention to the crucial questions of why and how knowledge travels or fails to travel the forms that it takes and by whom it is sent received understood translated or even refused the author examines the development and activities of different groups of women and women s organisations in China thus developing an alternative form of travelling theory A study of the cross cultural translation of knowledge and practices that occur or fail to occur when different cultures interact and their impact this book will appeal to scholars of gender studies sociology and cultural studies with interests in feminist thought and the travel and production of knowledge Handbook on Planning and Power Michael Gunder,Kristina Grange,Tanja

Winkler,2023-05-09 Drawing on research from diverse thinkers in urban planning and the built environment this Handbook articulates the cutting edge of contemporary understandings about power and its impact on planning It identifies the current state of knowledge about planning and power as well as emerging trajectories within this field of research A Companion to Critical and Cultural Theory Imre Szeman,Sarah Blacker,Justin Sully,2017-07-07 This Companion addresses the contemporary transformation of critical and cultural theory with special emphasis on the way debates in the field have changed in recent decades Features original essays from an international team of cultural theorists which offer fresh and compelling perspectives and sketch out exciting new areas of theoretical inquiry Thoughtfully organized into two sections lineages and problematics that facilitate its use both by students new to the field and advanced scholars and researchers Explains key schools and movements clearly and succinctly situating them in relation to broader developments in culture society and politics Tackles issues that have shaped and energized the field since the Second World War with discussion of familiar and under theorized topics related to living and laboring being and knowing and agency and belonging
