Feminism And Materialism:

Feminism and Materialism (RLE Feminist Theory) Annette Kuhn, AnnMarie Wolpe, 2013-05-20 These original essays are planned to provide a coherent basis for an understanding of women's social and historical situation. This is achieved by outlining the foundation of a systematic approach to an analysis of women's relationship to modes of production and reproduction within a materialist framework. The essays each with a brief editorial introduction deal with issues and perspectives brought increasingly to the fore in recent years not only in the women's movement but in the social sciences generally. The articles are wide ranging covering such issues as patriarchy paid and unpaid labour and the state. The centrality of two of the major themes the family and the labour process suggests that an understanding of women's situation is necessarily based on an analysis of the structures of production and reproduction. The authors aim in producing Feminism and Materialism is to confront systematically theoretical issues current in the developing area of women's studies while recognising that this must constitute a critique of existing theoretical frameworks. The book will be of interest to teachers and students in the social sciences and in women's studies as well as to all those who wish to develop an understanding of what a materialist approach to feminism might be.

Between Feminism and Materialism G. Howie, 2010-10-11 In her latest book Gillian Howie offers a bold new way to make sense of the relationship between feminist theory and capitalism. This exciting combination of existentialism phenomenology and critical theory delivers a proactive feminism ready to respond to the challenges presented by our thoroughly modern times.

Mattering Victoria Pitts-Taylor, 2016-08-30 Feminists today are re-imagining nature biology and matter in feminist thought and critically addressing new developments in biology physics neuroscience epigenetics and other scientific disciplines. Mattering edited by noted feminist scholar Victoria Pitts Taylor presents contemporary feminist perspectives on the materialist or naturalizing turn in feminist theory and also represents the newest wave of feminist engagement with science The volume addresses the relationship between human corporeality and subjectivity questions and redefines the boundaries of human non human and nature culture elaborates on the entanglements of matter knowledge and practice and addresses biological materialization as a complex and open process This volume insists that feminist theory can take matter and biology seriously while also accounting for power taking materialism as a point of departure to rethink key feminist issues The contributors an international group of feminist theorists scientists and scholars apply concepts in contemporary materialist feminism to examine an array of topics in science biotechnology biopolitics and bioethics These include neuralplasticity and the brain machine interface the use of biometrical identification technologies for transnational border control epigenetics and the intergenerational transmission of the health effects of social stigma ADHD and neuropharmacology and randomized controlled trials of HIV drugs A unique and interdisciplinary collection Mattering presents in grounded concrete terms the need for rethinking disciplinary boundaries and research methodologies in light of the shifts in feminist theorizing and transformations in the sciences

Materialist Feminism Rosemary Hennessy, Chrys Ingraham, 1997 During the 1980s capitalism triumphantly secured its global reach anti communist ideologies hammered home socialism s inherent failure the New Left increasingly moved into the professional middle class and many of feminism s earlier priorities were marginalized Identity politics often formulated in terms of social reconstructionism or multiculturalism has increasingly suppressed materialist feminism s systematic perspective replacing it with discourse analysis or cultural politics Materialist Feminism A Reader argues against the retreat to multiculturalism for keeping invisible the material links among the explosion of meaning making practices in highly industrialized social sectors the exploitation of women s labor and the appropriation of women s bodies that continues to undergird the scramble for profits and state power in multinational capitalism

On the Feminist Philosophy of Gillian Howie Daniel Whistler, Victoria Browne, 2016-10-20 Over three decades Gillian Howie wrote at the forefront of philosophy and critical theory before her untimely death in 2013 This interdisciplinary collection uses her writings to explore the productive yet often resistant interrelationship between feminism and critical theory examining the potential of Howie s particular form of materialism The contributors also bring to this debate a serious engagement with Howie s late turn towards philosophies of mortality therapy and living with dying The volume considers how differently embodied subjects are positioned within public institutions discourses and spaces and the role of philosophy art film photography and literature in facing situations such as sexual oppression and life limiting illness

Woman Questions Lise Vogel, 1995 For more than two decades Lise Vogel has been an important voice in feminist theory Woman Questions brings Drawing upon the life stories essays on socialist feminism Marxist theory and the problem of equality The collection provides not only a compendium of one influential thinker s work but a thoughtful overview of the evolution of US socialist feminism The essays are grouped in three sections covering the relationship between feminism and socialism the significance of the Marxist theoretical tradition for women s liberation and issues of difference diversity and equality A lengthy autobiographical introduction offers readers access to Vogel s personal story of civil rights work in Mississippi the early women s liberation movement a radical career switch and growing up in a politically active family Materialist Feminism and the Politics of Discourse (RLE Feminist Theory) Rosemary Hennessy,2012-11-27 Materialist Feminism and the Politics of Discourse confronts the impasses in materialist feminist work on rethinking woman as a discursively constructed subject The book looks at the problem of examining critically the social dimensions on which theories of discourse are premised how such theories understand materiality the relation between women s experience and feminist politics and that between history and discourse Rosemary Hennessy considers the work of Kristeva Foucault Laclau and Mouffe and argues for a materialist feminist re articulation of discourse as ideology Concerns over identity and difference are incorporated into a rewriting of materialist feminism s analysis of women s oppression across capitalist and patriarchal structures In adapting postmodernist theories in this way Hennessy develops a project of social change where feminism while maintaining its specificity is necessarily aligned with other emancipatory movements

Materialist Feminism and the Politics of Discourse Rosemary Hennessy,2012-10-11 Materialist Feminism and the Politics of Discourseconfronts the impasses in materialist feminist work on rethinking woman as a discursively constructed subject The book looks at the problem of examining critically the social dimensions on which theories of discourse are premised how such theories understand materiality the relation between women s experience and feminist politics and that between history and discourse Rosemary Hennessy considers the work of Kristeva Foucault Laclau and Mouffe and argues for a materialist feminist re articulation of discourse as ideology Concerns over identity and difference are incorporated into a rewriting of materialist feminism s analysis of women s oppression across capitalist and patriarchal structures In adapting postmodernist theories in this way Hennessy develops a project of social change where feminism while maintaining its specificity is necessarily aligned with other emancipatory movements Between Feminism and Materialism Gillian

Howie,2010-09-15 Between Feminism and Materialism is a bold attempt to make sense of the relationship between feminist theory and capitalism Addressing a number of philosophical problems that have engaged feminists over the last few decades universals and reason nature and essentialism identity and non identity sex and gender power and patriarchy local and global this innovative book breaks through feminist waves and explains the paradoxes of feminist theory by demonstrating the on going relevance of dialectics and the concepts of exploitation ideology and reification Drawing on first second and third waves of feminist theory this exciting combination of existentialism phenomenology and critical theory delivers a proactive feminism ready to respond to the challenges presented by our thoroughly modern times Materialist Feminisms Donna Landry,Gerald McLean,1993-10-08 Materialist Feminisms investigates the crucial theoretical and political debates that have determined the course of British and American feminism over the last thirty years As intellectual terrain has shifted during these decades from Marxism to cultural materialism and poststructuralist literary theory questions of race and ethnicity sexuality postcoloniality and green politics have converged and sometimes collided with the categories within feminism but analyze many of the most important texts and movements of contemporary cultural theory Offering not so much a unified history as an analysis of important moments within these debates this book examines the work of such feminist theorists as MichUle Barrett Judith Butler Rosalind Coward Donna Haraway bell hooks the m f collective Tania Modleski Jacqueline Rose Gayle Rubin Hortense Spillers and Gayatri Spivak Materialist Feminisms includes new exemplary readings of feminist detective African American and postcolonial fiction three kinds of textures commodity currently fetishized in the literary marketplace What might the success of these kinds of writing signify about politics and desire in contemporary Anglo American culture Demonstrating how the poststructuralis critique of essences and identities need not end in a complete paralysis of political action as has sometimes been claimed Materialist Feminisms argues that feminism socialism and deconstruction are not theoretical dead ends but names for unfinished business Money, Sex, and Power Nancy C. M. Hartsock, 1985

New Materialism and Intersectionality Katve-Kaisa Kontturi, Taru Leppänen, Tara Mehrabi, Milla Tiainen, 2025-02-20 New Materialism and Intersectionality advances the interplay of intersectionality theories and feminist new materialisms arguing that co constitutive influences between these fields will provide feminist and gender studies scholars with improved tools to analyse markers of difference and identity in 21st century realities In exploring the intersection of new materialisms and intersectionality studies this volume puts forward a concept of the middle It refers to the situation bound mutual impact of material social human and more than human elements in the formation of differences identities subject positions and power relations The chapters elaborate this understanding of the middle in empirical research concerned with the relational emergence of differences in various social cultural artistic and ecological settings The middle is also proposed as a verb whereby researchers who practise middling cultivate a capacity to account for the open ended processes and relationships through which intersectional and materially lived differences unfold and reconfigure in particular contexts This concept of the middle enriches understandings of how intersectional differences exist and can be studied and what ethical and political implications they involve The volume will interest scholars and students working with intersectionality feminist new materialist and posthumanist theories across the humanities and the social sciences Karen

Barad's Feminist Materialism David Harris, 2021-01-13 This book discusses the prodigious output of one of the most influential proponents of social theory Professor Karen Barad Her work attracts a wide readership in feminist theory and politics philosophy and science studies and she pursues a particular interdisciplinary approach diffraction to pursue links and connections between these disciplines Her new terminology including terms like intra action has been widely explored and applied She shows how these terms have been developed from her interest in quantum theory especially the work of Niels Bohr This book is an immanent critique exploring the processes by which different academic concerns and schools have been connected and treated as examples of a very general account of how the whole universe works which Barad terms agential realism There is no intention here to reject or dismiss these arguments to replace them with a rival account or to adopt some detached objective stance although any alternatives which occur during the process are acknowledged and briefly discussed The main objective in this book is to consider the consistency of Barad's arguments and how they have been used in actual discussions Some of the supporting work by other authors like Haraway Kirby Schrader and Ziarek is also considered in six chapters covering the quantum world animals and machines as nonhuman agents social relations as intra actions diffraction as a method and general philosophical underpinnings Feminist New Materialism, Girlhood, and the School Ball Toni Ingram, 2023-08-24 Engaging with feminist new materialism Toni Ingram reveals the ways in which the school ball or prom can be understood as an assemblage of material objects spaces practices ideas and imaginings which contribute to the process of becoming school ball girl The ball girl is not a fixed identity or subject but is an intra active becoming a dynamic shifting process where bodies sexuality and femininities are relationally produced Re conceptualising the school ball girl as emergent phenomena provides openings for thinking about girls and this schooling practice beyond popular cultural narratives Building on the social theory of Barad Bennett Best Deleuze and Guattari this book offers a new perspective on girls sexuality gender and schooling while also exploring the potential of feminist new materialisms for rethinking educational practices and the human subject Feminism Dennis S. Erasga, Michael Eduard L. Labayandoy, 2023-12-13 By focusing on new materiality this edited volume offers new optics on the affordance of women's physical and objective body The interdisciplinary essays assembled in the book interrogate the concepts of corporeality and embodiment by interpreting them as material enactivism of a woman's physical body geared toward performance and demonstration respectively The book situates body bodily movements as agentic initiatives to make sense of women's bodies in motion Although flesh in its constitution a woman's body is the very material entity that does not only perform what it is expected to do for its many audiences as in spectacle but also its corporeality imputes a demonstrative kinetics hitherto associated with the objective body in recent social theorizing Feminist New Materialisms Beatriz Revelles Benavente, Monika Rogowska-Stangret, Waltraud Ernst, 2020-03-05 For the editors of this collection new materialisms have always been the entanglement of epistemology ontology ethics and politics Looking back to the notion of situated knowledges Haraway 1988 that among others planted the seed for feminist new materialism van der Tuin 2015 26 one sees how those at least four planes are entangled Rogowska Stangret 2018 in order to bring forth response able Haraway 2008 research New materialism is thus an ethico onto epistemological framework Barad 2007 Revelles Benavente 2018 that by activating its ethico politics helps to diagnose infer and transform gendered environmental anthropocentric social injustices from a multidimensional angle Social injustices are a driving motivation to pursue research and are the reason why the editors and authors of this Special Issue cannot understand new materialism without feminism in the lines of eds Hinton Teusch 2015 Contemporary feminist researchers are providing new materialisms with a transversal approach Yuval Davis 1997 that comes
