Feminism And Nationalism In The Third World:

Feminism and Nationalism in the Third World Kumari Jayawardena, 1986 This book is about the history of those political struggles women launched in the Asian countries of India Sri Lanka China Indonesia Vietnam Japan Korea and the Philippines and the Middle Eastern countries of Egypt Turkey and Iran from the late 19th century onwards The author challenges the view that feminism is a foreign ideology currently being imposed on Third World countries Feminism and Nationalism in the Third World Kumari Jayawardena, 1992 Feminism and Nationalism in the Third World in the 19th and 20th Centuries, 1982 Comparison of women's social movements and nationalism in developing countries refers to the 19th and early 20th centuries examines reformism and women's rights in Egypt social conflicts for emancipation in Iran Islamic Republic and Turkey sex discrimination in Japan women under social reform in India and under revolution in China includes several case studies Bibliography and illustrations

Feminism June Hannam, 2014-06-11 The sheer number of publications on Feminism make it difficult for students who approach the subject for the first time to gain a sense of what the main issues and interpretations are This book addresses this by offering students an overview of feminism and its history across several countries and time periods along with an annotated guide to direct them in their further reading Feminism by June Hannam provides comprehensive coverage right from how feminists began to write the history of their movement as early as the late nineteenth century to the impact feminism has had on higher education The text also looks in depth at propaganda and the cult of the heroine in suffrage campaigning and how first wave feminists constructed their own history which then affected future generations of historians and activists

Mapping Global Justice Arnaud Kurze, Christopher K. Lamont, 2022-10-14 Persistent international conflicts increasing inequality in many regions or the world and acute environmental and climate related threats to humanity call for a better understanding of the processes actors and tools available to face the challenges of achieving global justice This book offers a broad and multidisciplinary survey of global justice bridging the gap between theory and practice by connecting conceptual frameworks with a panoply of case studies and an in depth discussion of practical challenges Connecting these critical aspects to larger moral and ethical debates is essential for thinking about large abstract ideas and applying them directly to specific contexts Core content includes Key debates in global justice from across philosophy postcolonial studies political science sociology and criminology The origins of global justice and the development of the human rights agenda peacekeeping and post conflict studies Global poverty and sustainable development Global security and transnational crime Environmental justice public health and well being Rather than providing a blueprint for the practice of global justice this text problematizes efforts to cope with many justice related issues The pedagogical approach is designed to map the difficulties that exist between theory and praxis encourage critical thinking and fuel debates to help seek alternative solutions Bringing together perspectives from a wealth of disciplines this book is essential reading for courses on global justice across criminology sociology political science anthropology philosophy and law Women's Roles in Asia Kathleen Nadeau, Sangita Rayamajhi, 2013-06-11 This insightful book examines women's lives across Asia challenging typical stereotypes and providing a fresh look at the changing role of women in various regions of the vast continent. All around the world, women's important role in history has only recently been acknowledged. Asia is no exception. Despite a long record of achievements, women's experiences in South, Southeast, and East Asia go largely untold. This compelling book looks at women's lives in contemporary Asia and reviews the cultural similarities and differences in the patterns and experiences of women across various regions. Women's Roles in Asia examines the full scope of women's lives throughout history, including specific topics such as education, family life, marriage, and childbearing, religion, public life, economics, legal status, and literature and the arts. A timeline and introduction provide a backdrop to the events, achievements, and issues that have impacted Asian women from pre-colonial time to the present day.

Modern Criticism and Theory Nigel Wood, David Lodge, 2014-06-11 This third edition of Modern Criticism and Theory represents a major expansion on its previous incarnations, with some twenty-five new pieces or essays included. This expansion has two principal purposes. Firstly, in keeping with the collection's aim to reflect contemporary preoccupations, the reader has expanded forward to include such newly emergent considerations as ecocriticism and post-theory. Secondly, with the aim of presenting as broad an account of modern theory as possible, the reader expands backwards to take in exemplary pieces by formative writers and thinkers of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, such as Marx, Freud, and Virginia Woolf. This radical expansion of content is prefaced by a wide-ranging introduction which provides a rationale for the collection and demonstrates how connections can be made between competing theories and critical schools. The purpose of the collection remains that of introducing the reader to the guiding concepts of contemporary literary and cultural debate. It does so by presenting substantial extracts from seminal thinkers and surrounding them with the contextual materials necessary to a full understanding. Each selection has a headnote which gives biographical details of the author and provides suggestions for further reading, and footnotes that help explain difficult references. The collection is ordered both historically and thematically, and readers are encouraged to draw for themselves connections between essays and theories. Modern Criticism and Theory has long been regarded as a necessary collection. Now revised for the twenty-first century, it goes further and provides students and the general reader with a wide-ranging survey of the complex landscape of modern theory and a critical assessment of the way we think and live in the world today.

Literary Theory Julie Rivkin, Michael Ryan, 2004-07-23 This anthology of classic and cutting-edge statements in literary theory has now been updated to include recent influential texts in the areas of Ethnic Studies Postcolonialism and International Studies A definitive collection of classic statements in criticism and new theoretical work from the past few decades All the major schools and methods that make up the dynamic field of literary theory are represented from Formalism to Postcolonialism Enables students to familiarise themselves with the most recent developments in literary theory and with the traditions from which these new theories derive Making a World after Empire Christopher J. Lee, 2019-08-19 In April 1955 twenty nine countries from Africa Asia and the Middle East came together for a diplomatic conference in Bandung Indonesia intending to define the direction of the postcolonial world Ostensibly representing two thirds of the world s population the Bandung conference occurred during a key moment of transition in the mid twentieth century amid the global wave of decolonization that took place after the Second World War and the nascent establishment of a new Cold War world order in its wake Participants such as Jawaharlal Nehru of India Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt Zhou Enlai of China and Sukarno of Indonesia seized this occasion to attempt the creation of a political alternative to the dual threats of Western neocolonialism and the Cold War interventionism of the United States and the Soviet Union The essays collected here explore the diverse repercussions of this event tracing diplomatic intellectual and sociocultural histories that ensued as well as addressing the broader intersection of postcolonial and Cold War history With a new foreword by Vijay Prashad and a new preface by the editor Making a World after Empire speaks to contemporary discussions of decolonization Third Worldism and the emergence of the Global South thus reestablishing the conference s importance in twentieth century global history Contributors Michael Adas Laura Bier James R Brennan G Thomas Burgess Antoinette Burton Dipesh Chakrabarty Julian Go Christopher J Lee Jamie Monson Jeremy Prestholdt and Denis M Tull

Autobiography and Decolonization Philip Holden, 2008 Philip Holden reveals deeply gendered connections between the writing of individual lives and of the narratives of nations emerging from colonialism Autobiography and Decolonization is the first book to give serious academic attention to autobiographies of nationalist leaders in the process of decolonization attending to them not simply as partial historical documents but as texts involved in remaking the world views of their readers Holden examines Mohandas K Gandhi s An Autobiography The Story of My Experiments with Truth Marcus Garvey s fragmentary Autobiography Joseph Ephraim Casely Hayford s Ethiopia Unbound Lee Kuan Yew s The Singapore Story Nelson Mandela s Long Walk to Freedom Jawaharlal Nehru s An Autobiography and Kwame Nkrumah s Ghana The Autobiography of Kwame Nkrumah Holden argues that these examples of life writing have had significant influence on the formation of new and often profoundly gendered national identities These narratives constitute the nation less as an imagined community than as an imagined individual Moving from the past to the promise of the future they mediate relationships between public and private and between individual and collective stories Ultimately they show how the construction of modern selfhood is inextricably linked to the construction of a postcolonial polity Journal of Feminist Studies in Religion, 2000

Postnational Feminisms Hena Ahmad, 2010 Postnational Feminisms Postcolonial Identities and Cosmopolitanism in the Works of Kamala Markandaya Tsitsi Dangarembga Ama Ata Aidoo and Anita Desai offers a significant contribution to the field of postcolonial and Third World feminist studies It reevaluates the ways in which Third World women writers interrogate the relationship between woman and nation in the postcolonial context Hena Ahmad brings forth the concept of postnational feminism which she deploys to show how these major writers challenge the role of women as signifiers of national cultures in their works This innovative concept illuminates the ambivalence of these uniquely positioned writers as Ahmad explores the connection between postnationalism and Third World feminism BOOK JACKET Mapping Difference Marian J. Rubchak, 2011-04-01 Drawn from various disciplines and a broad spectrum of research interests these essays reflect on the challenging issues confronting women in Ukraine today The contributors are an interdisciplinary transnational group of scholars from gender studies feminist theory history anthropology sociology women s studies and literature Among the issues they address are the impact of migration education early socialization of gender roles the role of the media in perpetuating and shaping negative stereotypes the gendered nature of language women and the media literature by women and local appropriation of gender and feminist theory Each author offers a fresh and unique perspective on the current process of survival strategies and postcommunist identity reconstruction among Ukrainian women in their current climate of patriarchalism
