Feminist Poetics Poiesis Performance Histories:

Feminist Poetics Terry Threadgold, 2002-09-11 Feminist Poetics is concerned with all of these questions but also with the issue of rewriting an older poetics for what it does not say about the marginalisation of the feminine The first half of the book traces the trajectory of a particular feminine academic subject learning to find her voice The second half uses that differently disciplined voice to re read the textual traces of the Governor murder stories murders committed against white women and children by black men in Australia in 1900 This book is a feminist poetics for those who are engaged in the teaching of literacies and in the making of Knowledge about literacies

Researching Identity and Interculturality Fred Dervin, Karen Risager, 2014-09-19 This volume focuses on advances in research methodology in an interdisciplinary field framed by discourses of identity and interculturality It includes a range of qualitative studies studies of interaction narrative studies conversation analysis ethnographic studies postcolonial studies and critical discourse studies and emphasizes the role of discourse and power in all studies of identity and interculturality The volume particularly focuses on critical reflexivity in every stage of research including reflections on theoretical concepts such as identity and interculturality and their relationship with methodology and analytical practice reflections on researcher identity and subjectivity reflections on local and global contexts of research and reflections on language choice and linguacultural aspects of data generation analysis and communication

Culture & Text Cate Poynton, Alison Lee, 2000 In an exciting departure in the growing field of discourse analysis Culture Text combines a fresh approach to theory with exemplary demonstrations of interdisciplinary analysis Despite its emphasis on text cultural studies has kept most forms of discourse analysis at arm s length Positioned at the conjunction of linguistic and poststructuralist approaches to discourse analysis this book argues for a textual metalanguage for cultural studies and for a reevaluation of methodology

White Mother to a Dark Race Margaret D. Jacobs, 2009-07-01 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries indigenous communities in the United States and Australia suffered a common experience at the hands of state authorities the removal of their children to institutions in the name of assimilating American Indians and protecting Aboriginal people Although officially characterized as benevolent these government policies often inflicted great trauma on indigenous families and ultimately served the settler nations larger goals of consolidating control over indigenous peoples and their lands White Mother to a Dark Race takes the study of indigenous education and acculturation in new directions in its examination of the key roles white women played in these policies of indigenous child removal Government officials missionaries and reformers justified the removal of indigenous children in particularly gendered ways by focusing on the supposed deficiencies of indigenous mothers the alleged barbarity of indigenous men and the lack of a patriarchal nuclear family Often they deemed white women the most appropriate agents to carry out these child removal policies Inspired by the maternalist movement of the era many white women were eager to serve as surrogate mothers to indigenous children and maneuvered to influence public policy affecting indigenous people

Although some white women developed caring relationships with indigenous children and others became critical of government policies many became hopelessly ensnared in this insidious colonial policy African Literature and the Politics of Culture James Tar Tsaaior, 2013-11-01 This book essentially negotiates African literature as a veritable site of artistic and cultural production and situates it within the dynamic of postcolonial cultural politics It critically evaluates African literature as a contour of cultural contestation with the imperial politics of knowledge production about others and as an ideological strategy for knowing them The book's main contribution to the critical discourse on African literature and culture inheres in the fact that politics constitutes the enduring concern of society as it re shapes and over determines discourses which have continued to remain crucial to societal engineering It however imagines the discursive existence as necessary for the evolving of a dynamic African literary tradition with an abiding fidelity to the verities of history The book is useful for literary scholars historians critics experts and students of postcolonial cultural studies as well as general readership interested in African studies

Styles of Meaning and Meanings of Style in Richardson's *Clarissa Gordon Fulton, 1999-06-08 Using socially and culturally engaged discourse stylistics Fulton explores ideologies of social formation gender and sexuality in the novel The first part of the study Styles of Meaning discusses Richardson's use of the genres of sententiousness moral sentiments and proverbs to engage questions of ideology Fulton shows how Richardson draws on the socially significant difference between proverbs and maxims to develop contrasting styles in which his characters establish and defend personal identities in relation to family and friends The second part Meanings of Style explores ways in which meanings created through linguistic choices in the critical domains of gender and sexuality both sustain and sometimes betray characters struggling either to control or to resist being controlled by others A contribution to both critical discussion of eighteenth century fiction and to discourse stylistics committed to relating literary texts to their social and cultural contexts this study introduces a mode of literary stylistic analysis with exciting possibilities for cultural studies

Modernist Wastes Caroline Knighton, 2020-06-11 Modernist Wastes is a profound new critical reflection on the ways in which women writers and artists have been discarded and recovered in established definitions of modernism Exploring the collaborative auto biographical writings of Djuna Barnes and the artist poetic and Dada performer Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven Caroline Knighton reveals how these very processes of discarding recovery and re use can open up new ways of understanding a distinctively female modernist artistic practice Illustrated throughout with artworks original letters and manuscript facsimiles the book draws on new archival discoveries to place the feminist recovery of neglected female voices at the heart of our understanding of modernist and avant garde literary culture

Contemporary Trends in Systems Development Maung K. Sein, Bjørn-Erik Munkvold, Tore U. Ørvik, Wita Wojtkowski, W. Gregory Wojtkowski, Jozse Zupancic, Stanislaw Wrycza, 2012-12-06 This book is a result of ISD2000 The Ninth International Conference on Information Systems Development Methods and Tools Theory and Practice held August 14-16 in Kristiansand Norway The ISD conference has its roots in the first Polish Scandinavian Seminar on Current Trends in Information Systems Development Methodologies held in Gdansk Poland in 1988 This year as the conference carries into the new millennium this fine tradition it was fitting that it returned to Scandinavia Velkommen tilbake Next year ISD crosses the North Sea and in the traditions of the Vikings invades England Like every ISD conference ISD2000 gave participants an opportunity to express ideas on the current state of the art in information systems development and to discuss and exchange views about new methods tools and applications This is particularly important now since the field of ISD has seen rapid and often bewildering changes To quote a Chinese proverb we are indeed cursed or blessed depending on how we choose to look at it to be living in interesting times

Living Books Janneke Adema, 2021-08-31 Reimagining the scholarly book as living and collaborative not as commodified and essentialized but in all its dynamic materiality In this book Janneke Adema proposes that we reimagine the scholarly book as a living and collaborative project not as linear bound and fixed but as fluid remixed and liquid a space for experimentation She presents a series of cutting edge experiments in arts and humanities book publishing showcasing the radical new forms that book based scholarly work might take in the digital age Adema's proposed alternative futures for the scholarly book go beyond such print based assumptions as fixity stability the single author originality and copyright reaching instead for a dynamic and emergent materiality Adema suggests ways to unbind the book describing experiments in scholarly book publishing with new forms of anonymous collaborative authorship radical open access publishing and processual living and remixed publications among other practices She doesn't cast digital as the solution and print as the problem the problem in scholarly publishing she argues is not print itself but the way print has been commodified and essentialized Adema explores alternative more ethical models of authorship constructs an alternative genealogy of openness and examines opportunities for intervention in current cultures of knowledge production Finally asking why it is that we cut and bind our research together at all she examines two book publishing projects that experiment with remix and reuse and try to rethink and reperform the book apparatus by taking responsibility for the cuts they make

Mediating Australian Feminism Anthea Taylor, 2008 Helen Garner's The First Stone 1995 a non-fictional book about a sexual harassment case at a University of Melbourne residential college captured and maintained the Australian media's attention in an unprecedented way Its publication sparked extensive media commentary regarding an alleged generational war within Australian feminism While talkback radio current affairs television and cultural events such as literary festivals and forums all took part in this heated public contest over the meanings of feminism this book reconsiders how the debate played out in the Australian print media Analysing texts as diverse as feature articles and opinion pieces non-fiction by young feminists letters to the editor celebrity feminist profiles and articles as well as The First Stone itself this book offers the first in depth analysis of this debate as a media event Refusing to adopt either a condemnatory or celebratory approach to the complex relationship between feminism and media culture it argues that the First Stone media event is indicative of the limitations and the opportunities proffered by the mediatization of contemporary feminism Mediating

Australian Feminism provides insights that will be valuable to scholars interested in feminism journalism and news culture literary reception and the politics of media representation

Asylum Seekers, Sovereignty, and the Senses of the International Eeva Puumala, 2016-11-25 The confrontation between asylum seeking and sovereignty has mainly focused on ways in which the movement and possibilities of refugees and migrants are limited In this volume instead of departing from the practices of governance and surveillance Puumala begins with the moving body its engagements and relations and examines different ways of seeing and sensing the struggle between asylum seekers and sovereign practices Puumala asserts that our political imagination is being challenged in its ways of ordering practicing and thinking about the international and those relations we call international The issues relating to asylum seekers are one example of the deficiencies in the spatiotemporal logic upon which these relations were originally built words such as nation people sovereignty and community are challenged Conventional methods of governing regulating and administering increased forms of mobility are in trouble which gives rise to the invention of new technologies at borders and introduces regulations and spaces of exception Based on extensive fieldwork that sheds light on a range of Europe wide practices in the field of asylum and migration policies this book will be of interest to scholars of IR theory biopolitics and migration as well as critical security more broadly

Romancing the Tones Margaret Thornton, 2013-03-04 This provocative collection of essays by scholars from the UK Canada Australia and New Zealand explores the uneasy relationship between law and popular culture from a feminist perspective The essays not only consider the representation of law in popular culture including film crime fiction and the media but also the representation of popular culture in legal texts Romancing the Tones shows that while popular culture is bewitched by law particularly anything to do with sex and crime law is anxious to resist the unruliness of popular culture The collection is multidisciplinary with contributors from a range of areas including cultural studies women s studies and legal studies The essays are complemented by the poems of prize winning lawyer poet MTC Cronin Romancing the Tones will appeal to a wide cross section of academic and general readers It is suitable for inclusion on undergraduate reading lists for law history women s studies criminology and media studies as well as any other course with an interest in cultural studies

Thinking Space Mike Crang, Nigel Thrift, 2002-09-11 As theorists have begun using geographical concepts and metaphors to think about the complex and differentiated world it is important to reflect on their work and its impact on our thoughts on space This revealing book explores the work of a wide range of prolific social theorists Included contributions from an impressive range of renowned geographical writers each examine the work of one writer ranging from early this century to contemporary writers Among the writers discussed are Georg Simmel Mikhail Bakhtin Gilles Deleuze Helene Cixous Henri Lefebvre Jacques Lacan Pierre Bourdieu Michel Foucault and Franz Fanon Ideal for those interested in the spatial turn in social and cultural theory this fascinating book asks what role space plays in the work of such theorists what difference if any it makes to their concepts and what difference such an appreciation makes to the way we might think about space      Word Meaning and Legal Interpretation Christopher Mark Hutton, 2017-09-09 This book introduces ideas about word meaning in the context of law It analyzes cases from common law jurisdictions that concern the meaning definition and legal status of individual words labels and categories The focus is on the question of how law assigns authority over word meaning in different circumstances and in different domains of law      The Language of Journalism Angela Smith, Michael Higgins, 2013-06-20 The Language of Journalism aims to provide an accessible wide ranging introductory textbook for a range of students The book explores the significance of a range of linguistic practices occurring in journalism demonstrating and facilitating the use of analysis in aiding professional journalistic and media practice The book introduces the differences in language conventions that develop across media platforms It covers all the key journalistic mediums available today including sport online and citizen journalism alongside the more standard chapters on magazine newspaper and broadcast journalism Clearly written and structured this will be a key text for journalism students      Visual Research Methods in the Social Sciences Stephen Spencer, 2022-09-23 Visual Research Methods in the Social Sciences Awakening Visions is an indispensable resource for students researchers and teachers seeking to use visual sources in their research and understand how images work This fully updated edition adds questions and activities for studies and many new images and models as well as additional exploration of social and theoretical contexts and examples of current visual and multimodal research Due to the proliferation of image centric social media and the growing potential for fake news being able to critically assess media and other visual messages is more important than ever For researchers embarking on visual research this book offers useful practical guidance and real world examples from seasoned researchers exploring cultures as varied as religious cults in Venezuela the Beer Can Regatta in Darwin Mapuche Indians in Chile and graffiti artists in Sheffield It offers an integrated approach to visual research building compelling case studies using a wide range of visual forms including archive images media samples maps objects video photographs and drawings alongside traditional qualitative approaches Examples of the visual construction of place representations of social identities and different approaches to analysis are explored in the first section of the book whilst the essays in the second section highlight the creativity and innovation of four leading visual researchers This new edition will prove valuable for both experienced visual researchers and those embarking on visual research in the social sciences for the first time      Discourses Surrounding British Widows of the First World War Angela Smith, 2014-03-04 Using extensive data mostly gleaned from the National Archives this book examines the way in which British widows of servicemen who died in the First World War were represented in society and by themselves exploring the intertwining discourses of social welfare national identity and morality that can be identified in these texts Focusing on two widows the book encourages their individual stories to emerge and gives a voice to an otherwise forgotten group of women whose stories have been lost under the literary tomes of middle class writers such as Vera Brittain and May Wedderburn Cannon The discussion is further informed by a wider reading of 300 other such files which allows wider observations to be made about the nature of the discourses examined and offers the most complete possible picture for such data Offering a streamlined adaptation of the Discourse Historical Approach to critical discourse analysis Discourses Surrounding British Widows of the First World War demonstrates how this model of analysis can be used to investigate a large body of data from a wide variety of sources covering a long period of time As such it will be useful to all scholars in their analysis of historical corpora

How Theatre Educates David Wallace Booth, Kathleen Gallagher, 2003-01-01 How Theatre Educates is a fascinating and lively inquiry into pedagogy and practice that will be relevant to teachers and students of drama educators artists working in theatre and the theatre going public

Disturbing Business Ethics Carl Rhodes, 2019-07-30 21st century Western neoliberalism has seen the transformation of self interest from an economic imperative to a centrally constitutive part of dominant modes of subjective existence Against this celebration of competitive individualism Emmanuel Levinas philosophy stands as a haunting reminder of an ethics that passively disturbs the self from its egoistic slumber awakening it to the incessant demands of the other Ethics stands as an anxious affective state of being where one is held to account by others each one demanding care attention and respect Focussing on business activities and organizations this book explores how this ethical demand of being for the other becomes translated in a necessarily impure way into political action contestation and resistance Such a response to ethics invokes a disturbance of organizational order including an order that might itself be labelled ethical On these grounds the book offers an explication of an ethics for organizations which disturbs the selfishness of neoliberal morality and can inform a democratic politics rested on a genuine concern for the other and for justice Disturbing Business Ethics Emmanuel Levinas and the Politics of Organization offers an unconventional and enlightening approach to ethical thinking and practice in politics and organisations and will be of interest to students of business management leadership political science and organizational theory

English Theatrical Anecdotes, 1660-1800 Heather Ladd, Leslie Ritchie, 2022-06-17 The essays in English Theatrical Anecdotes 1660 1800 explore the theatrical anecdote s role in the construction of stage fame in England s emergent celebrity culture during the long eighteenth century as well as the challenges of employing such anecdotes in theatre scholarship today This collection showcases scholarship that complicates the theatrical anecdote and shows its many sides and applications beyond the expected comic punch Discussing anecdotal narratives about theatre people as producing maintaining and sometimes toppling individual fame this book crucially investigates a key mechanism of celebrity in the long eighteenth century that reaches into the nineteenth century and beyond The anecdote erases boundaries between public and private and fictionalizing the individual in ways deeply familiar to twenty first century celebrity culture

Adopting the Track of Phrase: An Mental Symphony within Feminist Poetics Poiesis Performance Histories

In some sort of consumed by screens and the ceaseless chatter of instantaneous transmission, the melodic splendor and mental symphony developed by the written term often fade in to the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, situated within the pages of Feminist Poetics Poiesis Performance Histories a marvelous fictional prize full of raw thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding composer of language, this interesting masterpiece conducts readers on an emotional trip, skillfully unraveling the concealed melodies and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this poignant review, we will discover the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing fashion, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
