Genders, Sexualities, and Complexities in Africa Gabi Mkhize, Stanley Osezua Ehiane, Lupenga Mphande, 2025-02-20 This book's significance is in its African centred border crossing overt and covert forces working against genders and sexualities reinforcing endemic gender and sexual based complexities Pragmatically sexualities and genders in Africa remain contested and an area of power and control contestations in both the private and public spheres Gender based violence and femicide GBVF in particular continue to escalate particularly during the COVID 19 pandemic Such GBVF at most affects young women migrants LGBTIQIA people sex workers informal street traders and widows amongst others This is happening at a time when the feminist and women's movements in Africa are experiencing fragmentations and factions that pull and push organising to the margins of prejudice internally thereby exacerbating an act of subordinated inclusion In this context the term subordinated inclusion connotes another form of complexity where the subaltern has been brought inside a room as an act of inclusion yet systemically subordinated through structure and obedience thereby compromising agency This complexity occurs in private and public domains where a continuum of contestations between structure and agency is sustained Consequently power struggles emerge and proliferate unabated into gendered and sexualised complexities including relations of state coloniality apartheid prejudice marginalization capitalism and democracy This book thus strives to surface these contestations and complexities and how they continue to thrive in an era that seeks another way possible a way out a jump off a manner of dealing and an exit from the status quo

Sorting Africa's Developmental Puzzle Almaz Zewde, 2010-06-02 Sorting Africa's Development Puzzle The Participatory Social Learning Theory as an Alternative Approach is a comprehensive exploration of why Africa has not managed to achieve a sustainable and self regenerating development over the past half century of effort The work situates the problems of Africa's persistent underdevelopment in the practices employed by national political elites donors and lenders to African development that played roles in determinant policy and planning Unlike many newly developed countries and regions and contrary to the historical experiences of developed countries where ordinary people were full stakeholders and drivers of development Africa's development has been top down expert and capital driven mechanical and typically externally designed Ordinary Africans were made marginal to development This approach to Africa's development was devoid of building the people and their institutions as the legitimate means of development The entrusting of Africa's development to local and international elites to the exclusion of the people from decision making and full participation has led to grievous deficits in the formation of human and social capital and legitimate economic social and political institutions for development The book offers a studied alternative that can positively change Africa's development direction The Participatory Social Learning Approach The philosophical theoretical historical and heuristic origins of this alternative are offered in detail within this book

African Women's Studies, 1980-2001 Desiree Lewis, 2002

Black Iconography and Colonial (re)production at the ICC Stanley Mwangi Wanjiru, 2022-11-25 This book explores the reproduction of colonialism at the International Criminal Court ICC and examines international criminal law ICL vs the black body through an immersive format of art music poetry and architecture and post colonial critical race theory lens Taking a multi disciplinary approach the book interrogates the operationalisation of the Rome Statute to detail a Eurocentric hegemony at the core of ICL It explores how colonialism and slavery have come to shape ICL exposing the perpetuation of the colonial and warns that it has ominous contemporary and future implications for Africa As currently envisaged and acted out at the ICC this law is founded on deceptive and colonial ideas of what is wrong in with the world The book finds that the contemporary ICL regime is founded on white supremacy that corrupts the law's interaction with the African The African is but a unit utilised by the global elite to exploit and extract resources From time to time these alliances disintegrate with ICL becoming a retaliatory tool of choice What is at stake is power not justice This power has been hierarchical with Eurocentrism at the top throughout modern history Colonialism is seen not to have ended but to have regerminated through the foundation of the independent African state The ICC reproduces the colonial by use of European law and ultimately the over representation of the black accused To conclude the book provides a liberated African forum that can address conflicts in the content with a call for the end of the ICC s involvement in Africa The demand is made for an African court that utilises non colonising African norms which are uniquely suited to address local conflicts Multidisciplinary in nature this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of international criminal law criminal justice human rights law African studies global social justice sociology anthropology postcolonial studies and philosophy African Studies Review ,2001 International Labour Documentation International Labour Office.
