Feminization Of Famine Exprebions Of The Inexprebible:

The Feminization of Famine Margaret Kelleher, 1997 Contemporary media depictions of famine disaster display a striking prevalence female images The Feminization of Famine is a unique study of the tradition of female representations in famine literature from nineteenth century accounts of the Irish famine to the present day It examines the many novels and short stories written about the Irish famine over the last 150 years from the novels of William Carleton Anthony Trollope and Maria Edgeworth through to the writings of Liam O Flaherty and John Banville These literary works are read in the context of a rich variety of other sources including contemporary eyewitness accounts of the Great Irish Famine women s memoirs and journalistic writings and famine historiography The recurring motifs used to depict famine are highlighted the prevalence of images of mother and child the scrutiny of women s starved bodies efforts to express the inexpressible The author investigates the effect of famine representations and their crucial role in shaping viewers and readers interpretations of the famine The Feminization of Famine provides a significant critique of how famine has been represented and suggests important parallels with the current presentation of emergency and disaster

Neo-Victorian Families Christian Gutleben, 2011 Tracing representations of re imagined Victorian families in literature film and television and social discourse this collection the second volume in Rodopi s Neo Victorian Series analyses the historical trajectory of persistent but increasingly contested cultural myths that coalesce around the heterosexual couple and nuclear family as the supposed normative foundation of communities and nations past and present It sheds new light on the significance of families as a source of fluctuating cultural capital deployed in diverse arenas from political debates social policy and identity politics to equal rights activism and analyses how residual as well as emergent ideologies of family are mediated and critiqued by contemporary arts and popular culture This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of neo Victorian studies as well as scholars in contemporary literature and film studies cultural studies and the history of the family Situating the nineteenth century family both as a site of debilitating trauma and the means of ethical resistance against multivalent forms of oppression neo Victorian texts display a fascinating proliferation of alternative family models albeit overshadowed by the apparent recalcitrance of familial ideologies to the same historical changes neo Victorianism reflects and seeks to promote within the cultural imaginary

The Interview Jonathan Skinner, 2020-06-03 What are new interview methods and practices in our new interview society and how do they relate to traditional social science research This volume interrogates the interview as understood used and under used by anthropologists It puts the interview itself in the hotseat by exploring the nature of the interview interview techniques and illustrative cases of interview use What is a successful and representative interview How are interviews best transcribed and integrated into our writing Is interview knowledge production safe ethical and representative And how are interviews used by anthropologists in their ethnographic practice This important volume leads the reader from an initial scrutiny of the interview to interview techniques and illustrative case studies It is experimental innovative and covers in detail matters such as awkwardness silence and censorship in interviews that do not feature in general interview textbooks It will appeal to social scientists engaged in qualitative research methods in general and anthropology and sociology students using interviews in their research and writing in particular Irish

Culture and Colonial Modernity 1800-2000 David Lloyd,2011-09-22 From the Famine to political hunger strikes from telling tales in the pub to Beckett's tortured utterances the performance of Irish identity has always been deeply connected to the oral Exploring how colonial modernity transformed the spaces that sustained Ireland's oral culture this book explains why Irish culture has been both so creative and so resistant to modernization David Lloyd brings together manifestations of oral culture in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries showing how the survival of orality was central both to resistance against colonial rule and to Ireland's modern definition as a postcolonial culture Specific to Ireland as these histories are they resonate with postcolonial cultures globally This study is an important and provocative new interpretation of Irish national culture and how it came into being Writing the Frontier John McCourt,2015 Writing the Frontier Anthony

Vidor     The Interview Association of Social Anthropologists of the UK and the Commonwealth. Conference, 2013-11-01 The interview is a key ethnographic method This volume presents an overview of the latest debates on the interview as used by anthropologists This cutting edge international collection explores theory introduces new interview techniques and raises new questions about interview practice     Holodomor and Gorta Mór Christian Noack, Lindsay Janssen, Vincent Comerford, 2014-10-01 Ireland's Great Famine or an Gorta Mór 1845-51 and Ukraine's Holodomor 1932-33 occupy central places in the national historiographies of their respective countries Acknowledging that questions of collective memory have become a central issue in cultural studies this volume inquires into the role of historical experiences of hunger and deprivation within the emerging national identities and national historical narratives of Ireland and Ukraine In the Irish case a solid body of research has been compiled over the last 150 years while Ukraine's Holodomor by contrast was something of an open secret that historians could only seriously research after the demise of communist rule This volume is the first attempt to draw these approaches together and to allow for a comparative study of how the historical experiences of famine were translated into narratives that supported political claims for independent national statehood in Ireland and Ukraine Juxtaposing studies on the Irish and Ukrainian cases written by eminent historians political scientists and literary and film scholars the essays in this interdisciplinary volume analyse how national historical narratives were constructed and disseminated whether or not they changed with circumstances or were challenged by competing visions both academic and non academic In doing so the essays discuss themes such as representation commemoration and mediation and the influence of these processes on the shaping of cultural memory     Famines and the Making of Heritage Marguérite Corporaal, Ingrid de Zwart, 2024-06-05 Famines and the Making of Heritage is the first book to bring together groundbreaking research on the role of European famines in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in relation to heritage making museology commemoration education and monument creation Featuring contributions from famine experts across Europe and North America the volume adopts a pioneering transnational perspective and discusses issues such as contestable and repressed heritage materiality dark tourism education on famines oral history multidirectional memory and visceral empathy Questioning why educational curricula and practices in schools and on heritage sites are region or nation oriented or transnational chapters also consider whether they emphasise conflict or mutual understanding Contributions also consider how present issues of European concern such as globalisation commodification human rights poverty and migration intersect with the heritage and memory of modern European famines Lastly the book considers what role emigrant and diasporic communities within and outside Europe play in the development of famine heritage and educational practices and whether famine heritage is accessible to them Famines and the Making of Heritage provides a crucial resource for museum and heritage scholars students and professionals working on or with difficult or dark heritages as well as those interested in the study of famines and legacies of troubled pasts     Neo-Victorianism and Medievalism , 2024-04-30 Bringing together neo Victorian and medievalism scholars in dialogue with each other for the first time this collection of essays foregrounds issues common to both fields The Victorians reimagined the medieval era and post Victorian medievalism repurposes received nineteenth century tropes as do neo Victorian texts For example aesthetic movements such as Arts and Crafts which looked for inspiration in the medieval era are echoed by steampunk in its return to Victorian dress and technology Issues of gender identity sexuality imperialism and nostalgia arise in both neo Victorianism and medievalism and analysis of such texts is enriched and expanded by the interconnections between the two fields represented in this groundbreaking collection

Systems of Life Richard A. Barney, Warren Montag, 2018-11-06 Systems of Life offers a wide ranging revaluation of the emergence of biopolitics in Europe from the mid eighteenth to the mid nineteenth century In staging an encounter among literature political economy and the still emergent sciences of life in that historical moment the essays collected here reopen the question of how concepts of animal vegetable and human life among other biological registers had an impact on the Enlightenment project of thinking politics and economics as a joint enterprise The volume s contributors consider politics economics and the biological as distinct semi autonomous spheres whose various combinations required inventive sometimes incomplete acts of conceptual mediation philosophical negotiation disciplinary intervention or aesthetic representation

Hunger and Postcolonial Writing Muzna Rahman, 2022-08-17 Hunger and Postcolonial Writing explores contemporary postcolonial fiction and life writing from various geo political contexts The focus of this work is hunger individuated in the self imposed starvation of the hunger protester and on a mass scale in the form of famine and food insecurity It considers the hungry colonial and postcolonial body examines its textual forms and historical trajectories and situates it within the food security context of imperialism and its legacies This book is the first monograph length study of hunger within a postcolonial world literary context Its transcolonial focus produces comparative readings across postcolonial writings facilitating productive analyses of the operations of imperialism and its aftereffects across heterogenous zones of colonialism This project reads hunger as defined by the social cultural historical and economic engagements produced by colonial and postcolonial encounters Examining the starving colonized body through Cartesian models of somatic subjectivity and considering how this body is mediated by post Enlightenment discourses of Modernity and progress this work interrogates the contradictions produced by the starving colonial body as it is positioned between the possibility of radical protest and prescriptive colonial discourse This book will be of interest to Gastrocritical and Postcolonial scholars and students and to Food scholars more broadly

Feminist Consequences Elisabeth Bronfen, Misha Kavka (red), 2001 Exploring the status of feminism in this postfeminist age this sophisticated meditation on feminist thinking over the past three decades moves away from the all too common dependence on French theorists and male thinkers and instead builds on a wide ranging body of feminist theory written by women These writings address the question Where are we going as well as Where have we come from As evidenced in the essays compiled here the multiplicity of directions available to this new feminism ranges from poststructuralist academic theory through cultural activism to re readings of law literature and representation Contributors include Mieke Bal Lauren Berlant Rosi Braidotti Elisabeth Bronfen Judith Butler Rey Chow Drucilla Cornell Ann Cvetkovich Jane Gallop Beatrice Hanssen Claire Kahane Ranjana Khanna Bidy Martin Juliet Mitchell Anita Haya Patterson and Valerie Smith Feminist Consequences representing the forefront of international feminist thought marks a new and long desired stage of feminist criticism where women are themselves making theory rather than reacting to male production

Rituals of Mediation François Debrix, Cynthia Weber, 2003 A timely consideration of the meaning of transnational cultural interactions today In an era of increasing globalization the cultural and the international have borders as permeable as most nations and an understanding of one requires making sense of the other Foregrounding the role of mediation understood here as a site of representation transformation and pluralization the authors engage two specific questions How might we make theoretical and practical sense of transnational cultural interactions And how are we to understand the ways in which the sites of mediation represent transform and remediate internationals Accordingly the authors consider international issues like security development political activism and the war against terrorism through the lens of cultural practices such as traveling through airports exhibiting art and photography logging on to the Internet and spinning news stories

The Literary Afterlives of Roger Casement, 1899-2016 Alison Garden, 2020 This book explores the literary and cultural afterlives of Ireland's most enigmatic shape shifting and controversial son Roger Casement Drawing upon a transnational selection of modern and contemporary texts alongside significant archival research this book positions Casement as a vital and fascinating figure in the compromised and contradictory terrain of Anglo Irish history

Ireland Beyond Boundaries Liam Harte, Yvonne Whelan, 2006-11-20 This is an authoritative up to date account of the development of Irish Studies over the past two decades The authors examine the key debates that have underpinned recent scholarship and analyse critical concerns that have shaped the subject's remarkable growth They trace the institutional fortunes of Irish Studies in Ireland the USA Canada Australia and Britain and features in depth critical accounts of specific trends and themes within Irish historiography literary criticism religion migration music cultural geography sport and media culture

Gender Justice and the Law Elaine Wood, 2020-11-16 Gender Justice and the Law presents a collection of essays that examines how gender as a category of identity must continually be understood in relation to how structures of inequality define and shape its meaning It asks how notions of justice shape gender identity and whether the legal justice system itself privileges notions of gender or is itself gendered Shaped by politics and policy Gender Justice essays contribute to understanding how theoretical practices of intersectionality relate to structures of inequality and relations formed as a result of their interaction Given its theme the collection s essays examine theoretical practices of intersectional identity at the nexus of gender and justice that might also relate to issues of sexuality race class age and ability     Dealing with Disasters from Early Modern to Modern Times Hanneke Asperen,Lotte Jensen,2025-10-01 Disasters are as much cultural as natural phenomena For centuries news about catastrophic events has been disseminated through media such as chronicles pamphlets newspapers poems drawings and prints Nowadays we are overwhelmed with news about the cataclysmic effects of recent forest fires floods and storms Due to the ongoing climate crisis extreme weather events will likely have ever greater impacts on our lives This volume addresses cultural representations of catastrophes such as floods epidemics and earthquakes over the centuries In the past as now artists and authors try to make sense of disasters grasp their impact and communicate moral religious or political messages These creations reflect and shape how people learn and think about disasters that occur nearby or far away both in time and space The parallels between past and present underline how this book contributes to modern debates about cultural and creative strategies in response to disasters
