Ferocious Alphabets:

Ferocious Alphabets Denis Donoghue, 1984 A collection of essays explores the richness and variety of the English language and some unusual words and examines the two opposing schools of modern literary criticism the Graphireader and Epireader

Notations Of The Wild Gyorgyi Voros, 1997-02 Focusing on three governing metaphors in Stevens's poems Nature as house body and self the author argues that Stevens's youthful wilderness experience yielded his primary poetic subject the relationship between humans and nature and shifted his understanding of nature from romantic to phenomenological She draws on the extraliterary discourses of phenomenology and ecology mapping the landscape of Stevens's career and canon Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

On Sympathy Sophie Ratcliffe, 2008-05-15 Taking Shakespeare as its starting point this book examines why and how we read poetry how we relate to fictional characters and whether reading is good for you It also focuses on key works by Browning Auden and Beckett and concludes with a critique of contemporary ideas about art sympathy and community

On Deconstruction Jonathan D. Culler, 1982 With an emphasis on readers and reading the author considers deconstruction in terms of the questions raised by psychoanalytic feminist and reader response criticism As a result this book is both an authoritative synthesis of Derrida's thought and an analysis of the often problematic relation between his philosophical writings and the work of literary critics

Kenneth Burke Laurence Coupe, 2013-05-16 KENNETH BURKE FROM MYTH TO ECOLOGY is the first full length study of a remarkable thinker's approach to those founding narratives those essential structures of thought which cannot be credited to any one individual but rather belong to the whole community

Pipeline Antonio Negri, 2015-02-24 Four men in a cell in Rebibbia prison Rome awaiting trial on serious charges of subversion One of them the political thinker Antonio Negri spends his days writing Among his writings are twenty letters addressed to a young friend in France letters in which Negri reflects on his own personal development as a philosopher theorist and political activist and analyses the events activities and movements in which he has been involved The letters recount an existential journey that links a rigorous philosophical education with a powerful political passion set against the historical backdrop of postwar Italy. Crucially, Negri recalls the pivotal moment in 1978 when the former prime minister of Italy Aldo Moro was kidnapped and killed by the Red Brigades and how the institutions then pinned that killing onto him and his associates. Published here for the first time, these letters offer a unique and invaluable insight into the factors that shaped the thinking of one of the most influential political theorists of our time and they document Negri's role in the development of political movements like Autonomia. They are a vivid testimony to one man's journey through the political upheavals and intellectual traditions of the late 20th century in the course of which he produced a body of work that has had and continues to have a profound impact on radical thought and politics around the world. William Empson Paul H. Fry, 2002-01-31 William Empson's Prophet Against Sacrifice provides the most coherent account of Empson's diverse career to date. While exploring the richness of Empson's comic genius, Paul H. Fry serves to discredit the appropriation of his name in recent polemic by the conflicting parties of deconstruction and politicized cultural criticism. He argues that Empson is a larger, more important figure than the orthodox in either camp can acknowledge, deserving to be considered alongside such versatile critics as Walter Benjamin, Kenneth Burke, and Roland Barthes. The Trespass of the Sign Kevin Hart, 1991-08-30 The Trespass of the Sign offers an account of the relations between deconstruction and theology. Kevin Hart argues that, contrary to popular thought on the topic, deconstruction does not have an antitheological agenda. Rather, deconstruction seeks to question the metaphysics of any theology. Hart pays particular attention to mystical theology as nonmetaphysical theology. From publisher's description The Personalist Challenge Maurice Nedoncelle, 1984-01-01 Pittsburgh Theological Monograph Series General Editor Dikran Y. Hadidian The Distant Shores of Freedom Subarno Chattarji, 2019-11-18 The Distant Shores of Freedom analyses literary works in English written by Vietnamese refugees in the US. Fiction and memoirs by Vietnamese Americans recover stories and memories that are often different from mainstream American ones and that difference enables readers to think of the US war in Vietnam from perspectives that are missing in mainstream representations. Dwelling not only on the war and its aftermaths, Vietnamese American writings also ponder over the existential issues of exile, the idea of home, the pain of marginality and racism, the question of community formation within the US, and the complexity of diasporic lives. Subarno Chattarji raises critical questions such as: who gets to speak and write and to what ends and purposes? Who reads Vietnamese American writings and how can we account for these publications in the US over a period of time? What can and cannot be written or spoken? What is remembered and what is silenced? What traumas and memories are articulated? These questions point towards a larger context of diaspora studies as well as the rituals of cultural memory that complicate our understanding of the Vietnam War and its aftermaths. Fault Lines Meena Alexander, 2020-11-17 In this evocative memoir, an acclaimed Indian poet explores writing, memory, and place in a post-9/11 world. Passionate, fierce, and lyrical, Fault Lines follows one woman's evolution as a writer at home and in exile across continents and cultures. Meena Alexander was born into a privileged childhood in India and grew into a turbulent adolescence in the Sudan before moving to England and then New York City With poetic insight and devastating honesty Alexander explores how trauma and recovery shaped the entire landscape of her memory of her family her writing process and her very self This new edition published on the two year anniversary of Alexander s passing in 2018 will feature a commemorative afterword celebrating her legacy Alexander s writing is imbued with a poetic grace shot through with an inner violence like a shimmering piece of two toned silk Ms Magazine Evocative and moving Publishers Weekly One of the most important literary voices in South Asian American writing and American letters broadly writ Meena Alexander s close examination of exile and migration lays bare the heart of a poet Rajiv Mohabir author of The Cowherd s Son The Imaginative World of Alexander Pope Leopold Damrosch Jr.,2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1987 Standing Together in the Community of God Paul Janowiak,2011 We are here on earth not to guard a museum but to cultivate a garden flourishing with life and promised to a glorious future John XXIII exhorted the Church at the dawn of the Second Vatican Council In an age when some skeptics suggest that the reformed liturgy has lost the wonder and spiritual depth of previous ages Standing Together in the Community of God affirms that we need not look back the Sacred Mysteries are already in our midst Their wellspring and summit is the heart of God shared in the Trinity s own communion announced now as pure Gift Praising God for God s saving acts in Jesus as Vatican II reminded us we encounter Christ s sacramental presence in four modes in the person of the priest who gathers the community into communion in the elements and actions of the sacraments in the word proclaimed and preached and in the assembly praying and singing SC 7 In rhythm and harmony these modes invite us to encounter the multivalent depth of the Mysteries that announce Christ in you the hope of glory Col 1 27 Together they proclaim the Risen One among us the totus Christus hope for a hungry world Allowing each mode its respect as a bearer of the sacred these focal words and actions in the liturgy echo a communion song that announces Christ s real presence to us and for us and with us Beginning deep within this is a spirituality and piety for the twenty first century ever ancient and ever new Routledge Library Editions: Milton Various,2021-07-14 This set of 9 volumes originally published between 1965 and 1991 amalgamates a wide breadth of research on John Milton with a particular focus on his epic poem Paradise Lost This collection of books from some of the leading scholars in the field provides a comprehensive overview of how Milton criticism has evolved over time and will be of particular interest to students of English Literature Donald Winnicott Today Jan Abram,2012 What in Winnicott s theoretical matrix was truly revolutionary for psychoanalysis In this book the editor and contributors provide a rare in depth analysis of his original work and highlight the specifics of his contribution to the concept of early psychic development which revolutionised the theory and practice of psychoanalysis Including re publications of and gender and to focus on the lives of ordinary men and women. We now know that homes and workplaces form a part of our history as important as battlefields and the corridors of power. Only recently, however, have historians begun to examine the fundamentals of lived experience and how people perceive the world through the five senses. In this ambitious work, Peter Charles Hoffer presents a sensory history of early North America, offering a bold new understanding of the role that sight, sound, smell, taste, and touch played in shaping the lives of Europeans, Indians, and Africans in the New World. Reconstructing the most ephemeral aspects of America's colonial past—the choking stench of black powder, the cacophony of unfamiliar languages, the taste of fresh water and new foods, the first sight of strange peoples and foreign landscapes, the rough texture of homespun, the clumsy weight of a hoe—Hoffer explores the impact of sensuous experiences on human thought and action. He traces the effect sensation and perception had on the cause and course of events conventionally attributed to deeper cultural and material circumstances. Hoffer revisits select key events, encounters, and writings from America's colonial past to uncover the sensory elements in each and decipher the ways in which sensual data were mediated by prevailing and often conflicting cultural norms. Among the episodes he reexamines are the first meetings of Europeans and Native Americans, belief in and encounters with the supernatural, the experience of slavery and slave revolts, the physical and emotional fervor of the Great Awakening, and the feelings that prompted the Revolution. Imaginatively conceived, deeply informed, and elegantly written, Sensory Worlds of Early America convincingly establishes sensory experience as a legitimate object of historical inquiry and vividly brings America's colonial era to life. Richard Godbeer, author of Sexual Revolution in Early America
