Ferren And The Angel:

Ferren and the Angel Richard Harland, 2023-11-06 An angel falls from the sky and crashes to the ground Miriael the Fourteenth Angel of Observance has been shot down in the thousand year war between Heaven and Earth Damaged and helpless she prays for extinction The young tribesman Ferren finds her lying in the grass She ought to be an enemy since his people are on the side of the Earth But seeing her there unable to fly his curiosity outweighs every rule and every warning Ferren knows almost nothing about the terrifying world he's grown up in Now he's going to learn the truth about the war the Humen army camp and what military service really means His unique friendship with Miriael is about to change the course of history Richard Harland author of the Worldshaker books creates a whole new world of angels and apocalypse Ferren and the White Doctor Richard Harland, 2003-08-01 The second book in the Heaven and Earth Trilogy Rebellious Ferren and angel Miriael travel from one exotic tribe to the next as they seek to unite resistance to the evil Humen They are joined by Kiet a young woman who is equally determined to work against the Humen New World Orders in Contemporary

Children's Literature C. Bradford, K. Mallan, J. Stephens, R. McCallum, 2008-03-13 This book demonstrates how contemporary children's texts draw on utopian and dystopian tropes in their projections of possible futures The authors explore the ways in which children's texts respond to social change and global politics The book argues that children's texts are crucially implicated in shaping the values of their readers Ferren and the Invasion of Heaven Richard

Harland, 2003 Book 3 in the Heaven and Earth trilogy Ferren attempts to unite the Residual tribes to battle against the evil angel Asmodai who is determined to gain power over both Heaven and Earth Technology and Identity in Young Adult

Fiction V. Flanagan, 2014-12-16 Technology and Identity in Young Adult Fiction is not a historical study or a survey of narrative plots but takes a more conceptual approach that engages with the central ideas of posthumanism the fragmented nature of posthuman identity the concept of agency as distributed and collective and the role of embodiment in understandings of selfhood The Music of Razors Cameron Rogers, 2007-05-01 Dark disturbing and filled with moments of real charm and magic The Music of Razors is the best first novel I've seen this year Locus In nineteenth century Boston a young doctor on the run from the law falls in with a British confidence artist Together and with dire consequences they bring back to the light something meant to be forgotten A world away in London an absent father haunted by the voice of a banished angel presents his daughter with an impossible friend a clockwork ballerina For two centuries a bullet removal specialist has wielded instruments of angel bone in service to a forgotten power and now he vows to find someone else to shoulder the burden someone with a conscience of their own a strong mind and a broken will For a hundred years he has searched for the perfect contender and now he has found two a brother and a sister Walter and Hope Either will do Last night something stepped from little Walter's closet and he never woke up Now he travels the dark road between worlds no longer entirely boy nor wholly beast but with one goal in mind to prevent his sister from suffering the same fate as he Only the creature he has become can save Hope But is it too late to save himself Praise for The Music of Razors An exceedingly fine novel You feel this book is true and the characters are real The Music of Razors tells a beautiful and deeply affecting story full of wonder strangeness pain and love K J Bishop author of The Etched City This was an impressive first novel In The Music of Razors Cameron Rogers weaves a thought provoking and compelling dark fantasy from the mythology of religion Jeff Ford author of The Girl in the Glass Slippery and quick with a bite that won't let go long after you turn the final page Sean Williams author of The Crooked Letter Jam packed with enough extraordinary ideas to fill a dozen novels Never was fantasy darker or more disturbing The novelistic equivalent of Twin Peaks Richard Harland author of Ferren and the Angel This is a great book Alice meets Freddy Krueger in Wonderland Paul Collins author of Cyberskin Apocalypse in

Australian Fiction and Film Roslyn Weaver,2014-01-10 Australia has been a frequent choice of location for narratives about the end of the world in science fiction and speculative works ranging from pre colonial apocalyptic maps to key literary works from the last fifty years This critical work explores the role of Australia in both apocalyptic literature and film Works and genres covered include Nevil Shute's popular novel On the Beach Mad Max children's literature Indigenous writing and cyberpunk The text examines ways in which apocalypse is used to undermine complacency foretell environmental disasters critique colonization and to serve as a means of protest for minority groups Australian apocalypse imagines Australia at the ends of the world geographically and psychologically but also proposes spaces of hope for the future Black Angel

Nouritza Matossian,2002-08-01 A biography of the Armenian painter that adds immeasurable to the interest of his art Carefully researched well written and enlightening The New York Review of Books In this first full scale biography Nouritza Matossian charts the mysterious and tragic life of Arshile Gorky one of the most influential painters of the twentieth century Born Manoug Adoian in Armenia he survived the Turkish genocide of 1915 before coming to America where he posed as a cousin of the famous Russian author Maxim Gorky One of the first abstract expressionists Gorky became a major figure of the New York School which included de Kooning Rothko Pollock and others But after a devastating series of illnesses injuries and personal setbacks he committed suicide at the age of forty six In Black Angel arts journalist Matossian analyzes Gorky's personal letters as well as other new source material She writes with authority insight and compassion about the powerful influence Gorky's life and Armenian heritage had upon his painting Bush, City, Cyberspace John Foster,Ern

Finnis,Maureen Nimon,2005-06-01 Aimed at academic professional and general readers Bush city cyberspace provides a snapshot of the state of Australian children's and adolescent literature in the early twenty first century and an insight into its history In doing so it promotes a sense of where Australian literature for young people may be going and captures a literary and critical mood with which readers in Australia and beyond will identify The title of the work is intended to capture the fact that the field has changed dramatically in the century and a half that Australian children's literature has existed from the bush myths and heroism that inform the past and the present through the recognition that the vast majority of authors and readers live in cities to the third wave of cyberliterature that incorporates multimedia hypertext weblinks and e books none of which lessens the enduring enthusiasm of practitioners and readers for books Bush city cyberspace is not meant to be an encyclopedic volume Rather well known recent and or award winning works have been emphasised with the addition of others where these help to illuminate particular points The book is similar in coverage and approach to Australian Children s Literature An Exploration of Genre and Theme written by the same three authors and published by the Centre for Information Studies in 1995 In the intervening period much has changed in the field notable examples including the blurring of the dividing line between quality and popular literature the blending of genres the rise of a truly indigenous literature the demise to a significant extent of Outbackery in fiction the acceptance of multiculturalism as the norm and the advent of the literature of cyberspace with new methods and the sheer speed of communication between writer and reader All these trends and others are reflected in this work Australian Book Review ,2000 The Big Issue, Cape Town ,2000 The Writers Directory ,2013 English in Australia ,2001 Blaisdell Papers ,1961 Angel's Directory of Personnel Managers ,1956 Ferren and the Doomsday Mission Richard Harland,2024-05-27 An angel falls from the sky and crashes to the ground Miriael the Fourteenth Angel of Observance has been shot down in the thousand year war between Heaven and Earth Damaged and helpless she prays for extinction The young tribesman Ferren finds her lying in the grass She ought to be an enemy since his people are on the side of the Earth But seeing her there unable to fly his curiosity outweighs every rule and every warning Ferren knows almost nothing about the terrifying world he s grown up in Now he s going to learn the truth about the war the Humen army camp and what military service really means His unique friendship with Miriael is about to change the course of history Richard Harland author of the Worldshaker books creates a whole new world of angels and apocalypse Make it Modern Brandon Taylor,2022-01-01 A fascinating journey through Western art from the 1910s to the 1960s charting how artists wrestled with the headlong changes of a turbulent and conflict ridden world From the chaos of the First World War to the ravages of the Second from the Great Depression to the rise of consumer culture artists we call modern faced the challenge of responding imaginatively to utterly new circumstances of life Original thought startling artistic techniques and new attitudes to experimentation were required to produce exceptional and timely work Make It Modern guides the reader through the art of the modern world Works of celebrated artists from Pablo Picasso and Wassily Kandinsky to Frida Kahlo Jackson Pollock and Yayoi Kusama alongside a panoply of undervalued or less known figures populate this decade by decade narrative Make It Modern tells an unforgettable story of how art was changed forever The Ladies' Handbook and Household Assistant ,1886 The Official Organ ,1901 Australian Children's Books, 1980-2000 Marcie Muir,Kerry White,2004 All Australian children s books published from 1989 to 2000 are listed in this essential reference for those who appreciate the richness of Australian writing for children Following the same format as volumes 1 and 2 in this series chronicling books published as early as 1774 entries include publishing details the number of
