Educated Reader:

Text to Reader Theo D[un]haen, 1983-01-01 Text to Reader seeks to find a critical approach that links a novel's form to its socio cultural context Combining elements from Iser's reception aesthetics speech act theory and Goffman's frame analysis this book starts from the assumption that a reader has certain conventional expectations with regard to a novel and then goes on to examine how violations of these expectations rule the reader's relationship to the novel The theory sketched in the first chapter is then in four subsequent chapters applied to The French Lieutenant's Woman by the English author John Fowles Letters by the American John Barth Libro de Manuel by the Argentinean Julio Cortázar and De Kapellekensbaan by the Flemish novelist Louis Paul Boon The particular form each of these novels takes is analyzed as correlative to that novel's communicative function This book will be of interest to comparatists students of English and American literature and the literatures of Latin America and the Low Countries

The Barthes Effect Réda Bensmaïa, 1987 The Barthes Effect was first published in 1987 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The author acknowledges the essay as an eccentric phenomenon in literary history one that has long resisted entry into the taxonomy of genres as it concentrates on four works by Roland Barthes The Pleasure of the Text A Lover's Discourse Roland Barthes by Roland Barthes and Camera Lucida Maintains that with Barthes the essay achieves a status of its own as reflective text a study rigorously conscious of the critical maneuvers it executes and more importantly questions as critical practice Bensmaïa's strategy produces a successful investigation of the interstices and slippages of meaning which Barthes addressed in his work

Substance Reda Bensmaïa is associate professor in the departments of French and comparative literature at the University of Minnesota and translator Pat Fedkiew a graduate student in French at Minnesota Michele Richman is associate professor of French at the University of Pennsylvania and author of Reading Georges Bataille Beyond the Gift philosophers and poets argued about whether their discourses should become more and more specialised or whether they should aim to remain intelligible to the layperson In this interdisciplinary study Robin Valenza shows how Isaac Newton Samuel Johnson David Hume Adam Smith Samuel Taylor Coleridge and William Wordsworth invented new intellectual languages By offering a much needed account of the rise of the modern disciplines Robin Valenza shows why the sciences and humanities diverged so strongly and argues that literature has a special role in navigating between the languages of different areas of thought The Cambridge Introduction to Theatre and Literature of the Absurd Michael Y.
