Educating Faith An Approach To Christian Formation:

Educating Faith Joyce Edith Bellous, 2005-08-01 In Educating Faith Dr Joyce Bellous describes an education that encourages people to make authentic connections with scripture Christian culture and tradition so that they think critically at the same time they learn to follow God Planning for Christian Education Formation Israel Galindo, Marty Canaday, 2010-03-01 This book was written to help congregational leaders clergy staff and laypersons plan and organize a Christian education ministry from the approach of Christian formation in a community of faith context This book provides a model for organizing the Christian education leadership committee or team of the church demonstrates how to use the church year as a framework for planning the Christian education ministry of the church and gives a model for assessing the effectiveness of the educational ministry of the church and a process to help congregations move toward the Christian Education Formation approach Teaching for Spiritual Formation Kyle R. Hughes, 2022-01-06 In Teaching for Spiritual Formation church historian and experienced Christian educator Kyle R Hughes advances a fresh vision of Christian teaching and learning by drawing upon the riches of the Christian tradition synthesizing the wisdom of the early church fathers with contemporary efforts to cultivate a distinctively Christian approach to education Of interest to a wide range of Christian educators this book examines how the writings of five significant church fathers can illuminate our understanding of the vocation of teachers the nature of students the purpose of curriculum decisions about pedagogy and how spiritual formation works Besides reimagining these aspects of Christian education Hughes also offers habits and practices that can help bring this vision of Christian teaching and learning to life challenging Christian educators to sharpen their approach to the integration of faith and learning in practical and accessible ways Christian Faith, Formation and Education Ros Stuart-Buttle, John Shortt, 2017-11-13 This book discusses the relationship between faith formation and education Rooted in a variety of discourses the book offers original insights into the education and formation of the human person both theoretical and practical Issues are considered within a context of contemporary tensions generated by an increasingly pluralist society with antipathy to religious faith and debated from interdenominational Christian perspectives Including chapters by an international team of experts the volume demonstrates how Christian faith holds significance for educational practice and human development It argues against the common assumption that there can be a neutral approach to education whilst at the same time advocating a critical dimension to faith education It brings fresh thinking about faith and formation which demands attention given the fast changing political educational and socio cultural forces of today It will appeal to students and researchers involved in Christian educational practice Learning in the Way Jeff Astley, 2000 Adult Christian learning is central to the life of the Christian church and is essential for its health outreach and very survival Leading Christian educators here apply the principles of Christian education to adult learning in the churches and present the results and methods of empirical research relevant to the church s ministry of adult Christian education This book will be of interest to all who are concerned for the ways in which adults learn to be Christian The editor Jeff Astley is Director of the North of England Institute for Christian Education and Honorary Professorial Fellow in Practical Theology and Christian Education in the University of Durham

Christian Education Teaching Methods - From Modern to Postmodern Carlos C. Roberts, 2009-11 This book provides pastors professional teachers students of religious education or Christian education theological students and Sunday school teachers with methods of teaching the faith today and opportunities to reflect critically on the methods and approaches they use in the classroom in the changed cultural context of our postmodern world The book is the result of years of practical experience in the field of Christian education as a Director of Religious Education and head of a team involved in providing religious education training and producing teaching materials and textbooks for Sunday school and professional teachers of Christian education This book proposes the Herald model of church and model of Christian education as a very helpful model for postmodern culture

Urban Education, Approaches that Work United States. Congress. House. Committee on Small Business. Subcommittee on Empowerment, 1998 A hearing was held before the Subcommittee on Empowerment of the House Committee on Small Business to build a record of a lot of things that are working in urban education in high risk zones In his opening remarks Representative Souder Indiana noted that there is no question but that the best way to combat unemployment and the problems that flow from it is to provide people with the best possible training For most of the work force training begins in school Strengthening basic skills is not exclusively an urban problem but it is one that is of particular concern in the cities The purpose of this hearing was not why so many schools are failing but why some succeed Five educators who run successful urban schools appeared at the hearing to explain why their schools work Thaddeus S Lott Sr principal of a charter school district in Houston Texas described the experiences of a successful elementary school that used an intensive reading program beginning in kindergarten and direct instruction to raise academic achievement Vera White principal of a junior high school in the District of Columbia achieved academic success with a program that focused on student learning and high expectations and that was supported in a partnership with COMSAT Comments by hearing participants follow these statements In the second panel discussion of the hearing Oscar J Underwood headmaster of a Christian college preparatory school Indiana spoke about the importance of the educational environment and teacher attitudes Leah White administrator of an urban Christian school Maryland noted the importance of promoting parent participation and the importance of an atmosphere focused on learning William Elliott headmaster of a Christian academy in Philadelphia Pennsylvania emphasized the importance of good relationships between teachers and students and the importance of accountability and high standards Comments from panelists completed the hearing An appendix contains the prepared statements of the panelists and a letter from Governor George Bush Texas about Dr Lott s Houston school SLD

Virtual Theology, Faith and Adult Education Ros Stuart-Buttle, 2013-07-29 Online learning is a key feature of the contemporary educational landscape and has entered mainstream policy provision and practice But if online education is to reach mature development and evaluation it must be open to critical appraisal This book considers the implementation of online learning within adult theological education This can be an area of challenge or contention especially when established academic practices and cherished values are seen as threatened when handed over to online delivery This opens questions about theology pedagogy and online education Does online teaching and learning bring or demand a new or transformed disruptive pedagogy or does it result in maintenance or replication sustaining of traditional values and existing practices What might the opportunities and benefits be Who stands to gain Who stands to lose And what evidence is there to evaluate the quality of doing theology online This book examines a long standing programme of continuing professional development delivered fully online to adult practitioners working across Christian education and ministry settings It builds upon the author s international experience as an online educator for over a decade Key themes relate adult learning to theological pedagogy authority and online community The concept of interruptive pedagogy is presented as an interpretative model to critically appraise an approach to online education that draws on the best theological tradition yet also looks to the future

Religious Education in the African American Tradition Kenneth H. Hill, 2012-11 Schweitzer s goal in this book is to explore what postmodernity actually means for theology and how theology and the church may respond to its challenges He focuses on the life cycle as it is changing with the advent of postmodernity looking sequentially at segments of the life cycle using different lenses modernity postmodernity and responses from church and theology Schweitzer concludes with a theology of the life cycle Teaching the Way of Jesus Jack L.
