Radicalism and Liberal Education Lindsay Paterson,2015-10-21 Liberal education used to command wide political support Radicals disagreed with conservatives on whether the best culture could be appreciated by everyone and they disagreed too on whether the barriers to understanding it were mainly social and economic but there was no dispute that any worthwhile education ought to hand on the best that has been thought and said That consensus has vanished since the 1960s The book examines why social radicals supported liberal education why they have moved away from it and what the implications are for the future of an intellectually stimulating and culturally literate education Engaging Everyone In Educating Our Children! Wandy W. Taylor, Ed.D. & James A. Taylor, Ph.D.,2025-08-08 Many of our students are struggling For example reading scores for fourth graders across America continued to decline in 2024 This is a critical finding because studies have shown that children who cannot read at grade level by the start of fourth grade are four times less likely to graduate on time We can no longer attribute these problems solely to the effects of the 2020 2023 pandemic because many of the difficulties actually began before COVID 19 Undoubtedly the pandemic slowed or reversed academic progress for children across the nation but the ramifications for parents and educators are loud and clear it is incumbent on us to find solutions and not make excuses The real path to improving K 12 public education lies with local control Successful improvements in outcomes for students can occur when there is collaboration among five key stakeholder groups in any K 12 public school system parents teachers school principals school superintendents and school boards When these five groups are engaged collaboratively and purposefully toward the same goal of maximizing the educational potential of all children under their authority they form a Circle of Engagement that stimulates student success Civic Affairs ,1956 Economic History Bernard J.

Report[s] Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1918 The Social Benefits of Education Jere R. Behrman, Nevzer Stacey, 2010-08-04 For decades the primary argument in justifying education has been based on its direct economic effects Yet education also provides social benefits for individuals and society at large including a better way of taking care of ourselves and consequently creating a better society to live in Though it is difficult to quantify these social benefits a more systematic analysis would improve our understanding of the full effects of education and provide a basis for considering related policies The Office of Research of the United States Department of Education commissioned a series of papers on measuring these effects of education Those papers revised and updated are collected here Kenneth J Arrow provides perspective on education and preference formation and Jere R Behrman considers general conceptual and measurement issues in assessing the social benefits of education and policies related to education These issues are taken up by experts in four fields health parenting the environment and crime Themes addressed include measurement issues regarding what we mean by education and its benefits basic analytical issues in assessing the impact of education on these social benefits using behavioral data and whether the social benefits of education justify public policy interventions Jere R Behrman is William R Kenan Jr Professor of Economics University of Pennsylvania Nevzer G Stacey is Senior Research Analyst Office of Educational Research U S Department of Education

Economic Analysis of Markets and Games Partha Dasgupta, 1992

These original essays focus on a wide range of topics related to Frank Hahn's distinguished work in economics Ranging from market analysis and game theory to the microeconomic foundations of macroeconomics and from equilibrium and optimality with missing markets to economics and society they reflect the diversity of modern research in economic theory What distinguishes Hahn's work and many of the essays in this book is that the motivation often comes from practical concerns about unemployment savings and investment poverty or the stability of markets The essays in Part I deal with the microeconomic foundations of macroeconomics a field in which Hahn has made important contributions most notably in the theory of monetary economics Topics include an evaluation of Hahn's contribution to the theory of distribution and such macroeconomic themes as coordination failure multiple equilibria and strategic issues Part II contains recent contributions to game theory reflecting Hahn's interest in the question of what is rational behavior The essays in Part III concentrate on general equilibrium theory with missing markets afield in which Hahn has made major advances Although the essays address a different set of issues they share with Hahn's works such themes as market failure indeterminacy of equilibrium and the role of money Partha Dasgupta is Professor of Economics at Cambridge University Douglas Gale is Professor of Economics at Boston University Oliver Hart is Professor of Economics at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Eric Maskin is Professor of Economics at Harvard University Teacher Education in Globalised Times Jillian Fox, Colette Alexander, Tania Aspland, 2020-05-12 This book provides commentary on the influence of multi layered political contexts that surround the work of teacher educators worldwide It addresses the drawbacks of the massification standards based movements and marketisation of universal business that threaten authenticity innovation and entrepreneurship within teacher education on a global scale. The chapters celebrate the richly described local stories that explore the often tacit political activity that underpins teacher educators work. The book highlights the commitment of both teachers and teacher educators to social justice and human rights and critical consciousness as central to the process of teacher development. Teacher formation, teacher education policies and curriculum development in an era of globalisation, super diversity and the positioning of Indigenous populations and national regulation and localisation are topics that are explored in this book.
