It addresses critical issues pertaining to student participation in schools, emphasizing the relationship between school progress and student involvement. It also explores the roles played by different stakeholders in this process and offers insightful policy recommendations for future implementation. The Act mandates specific student-teacher ratios and emphasizes teacher quality. Writing this into legislation took seven years, but the seven years since has proven that ensuring effective teachers are recruited and placed in all schools in a time-bound manner is considerably more challenging. This report takes a detailed look at the complexity of the teacher management landscape in elementary and secondary schools in nine Indian states. On a daily basis, the administrative machinery of these states has to manage between 19,000 to nearly a million teachers in different types of schools and employment contracts and cope with recruiting thousands more and distributing them equitably across schools. This report examines the following issues: official requirements for becoming a schoolteacher in India; policies and processes for teacher recruitment, deployment, and transfers; salaries and benefits of teachers; professional growth of teachers; and grievance redressal mechanisms for teachers. For the first time in India, this report compares and contrasts stated policy with actual practice in teacher management in the country using a combination of primary and secondary data. In so doing, the report reveals the hidden challenges and the nature of problems faced by administrators in attempting to build an effective teacher workforce which serves the needs of all of India's 200 million school children. The report examines states with varying characteristics, thus generating knowledge and evidence likely to be of interest to policy makers and practitioners in a wide range of contexts. Modernisation of the Mizo Society Ram Narayan Prasad, Ashok Kumar Agarwal, 2003 Papers In The Volume Attempt To Study Issues Relating To Modernisation Development Of Mizoram In Analysing The Problems And Constraints The Socio-Economic Development Such As Urbanisation Utilisation Of Local Resources Improvement Of Infrastructure And Facilities Local Self Government Etc The 74Th Constitutional Amendment Is The Subject Of One Of The Papers Governance of India Ram Narayan Prasad, 2002 Dictionary of
