Edge Of Desire

Garth Jackson Gillan

Edge Of Desire:

Territory of Desire Ananya Jahanara Kabir, 2009 A result of territorial disputes between India and Pakistan since 1947 exacerbated by armed freedom movements since 1989 the ongoing conflict over Kashmir is consistently in the news Taking a unique multidisciplinary approach Territory of Desire asks how and why Kashmir came to be so intensely desired within Indian Pakistani and Kashmiri nationalistic imaginations

Unseeing Empire Bakirathi Mani, 2020-10-26 In Unseeing Empire Bakirathi Mani examines how empire continues to haunt South Asian American visual cultures Weaving close readings of fine art together with archival research and ethnographic fieldwork at museums and galleries across South Asia and North America Mani outlines the visual and affective relationships between South Asian diasporic artists their photographic work and their viewers She notes that the desire for South Asian Americans to see visual representations of themselves is rooted in the use of photography as a form of colonial documentation and surveillance She examines fine art photography by South Asian diasporic artists who employ aesthetic strategies such as duplication and alteration that run counter to viewers demands for greater visibility These works fail to deliver on viewers desires to see themselves producing instead feelings of alienation estrangement and loss These feelings Mani contends allow viewers to question their own visibility as South Asian Americans in U S public culture and to reflect on their desires to be represented

Rising from the Ruins Garth Jackson Gillan, 2012-02-01 Rising from the Ruins is an assessment of reason being and the good in a world fractured by the passage of the Shoah or Holocaust The historical character of evil that appeared in the Shoah damaged the relationship of human existence to being creating a time when the confidence of reason to possess the truth no longer exists Rising from the Ruins relocates the relationships among being reason and the good in terms of a metaphysics ethics and politics that derive from faith and heteronomy Rather than another attempt to document the horror of the Shoah this book chronicles what the world is like for those who have read and listened to previous accounts Rising from the Ruins doesn't celebrate surviving the Holocaust instead it speaks of a rationality that sees truth and the good through the eyes of suffering and the silence of death Such a rationality Gillan suggests looks more like faith and it takes its place among the sweat and tears of common men and women who are dedicated to building a human city populated with children the poor the sick and the aged

Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium Jessica A. Folkart, 2014-10-08 Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium The Ends of Spanish Identity investigates the predominant perception of liminality identity situated at a threshold neither one thing nor another but simultaneously both and neither caused by encounters with otherness while negotiating identity in contemporary Spain Examining how identity and alterity are parleyed through the cultural concerns of historical memory gender roles sex religion nationalism and immigration this study demonstrates how fictional representations of reality converge in a common structure wherein the end is not the end but rather an edge a liminal ground On the border between two identities the end materializes as an ephemeral limit that delineates and differentiates yet also adjoins and approximates In exploring the ends of Spanish fiction both their structure and their intentionality Liminal Fiction maps the edge as a constitutive component of narrative and identity in texts by Najat El Hachmi Cristina Fernandez Cubas Javier Marías Rosa Montero and Manuel Rivas In their representation of identity on the edge these fictions enact and embody the liminal not as simply a transitional and transient mode but as the structuring principle of identification in contemporary Spain

The Woman's Film of the 1940s Alison L. McKee, 2014-04-03 This book explores the relationship among gender desire and narrative in 1940s woman's films which negotiate the terrain between public history and private experience The woman's film and other form of cinematic melodrama have often been understood as positioning themselves outside history and this book challenges and modifies that understanding contextualizing the films it considers against the backdrop of World War II In addition in paying tribute to and departing from earlier feminist formulations about gendered spectatorship in cinema McKee argues that such models emphasized a masculine centered gaze at the inadvertent expense of understanding other possible modes of identification and gender expression in classical narrative cinema She proposes ways of understanding gender and narrative based in part on literary narrative theory and ultimately works toward a notion of an androgynous spectatorship and mode of interpretation in the 1940s woman's film Heraclitus in Sacramento David Carl, 2006-05 The year is 1987 and the ancient Greek philosopher Heraclitus is living with his mother in a small house in Sacramento when suddenly there is a knock on the door How far does reading go At what point does the act of reading catapult the reader into the seemingly inevitable desire that leads to writing What is the line that divides reading from writing and what happens in the process of trying to import the perspective one enjoys on one side of that line onto the other side The four pieces collected here are meditations on possible approaches to these and other questions related to the relationship shared by the two fold acts of reading and writing Hermeneutics and the Voice of the Other James Risser, 1997-03-06 Dealing extensively with Gadamer's later writings Hermeneutics and the Voice of the Other shows neglected and widely misunderstood dimensions of Gadamer's hermeneutics historicity finitude truth the importance of the other and the eminence of the poetic text The Photographic Times, 1897 The Edge of Doom Henry Francis Prevost Battersby, 1919

Life at the End of Us Versus Them Marcus Peter Rempel, 2017-11-09 Our present moment can no longer sustain a stable us defined against an alien them So say Ren Girard and Ivan Illich radical critics of both Christianity and culture If they are right this makes our time an endtime The end of us against them can deteriorate into the chaos of each against each or it can open outward into freely chosen communion It is an expectant and apocalyptic time How does one live in this strange endtime world As a wanderer in the odd cross culture country Girard and Illich have mapped the author finds himself in a surprising new place in relation to those who are his other women queer folk refugees Muslims atheists and Indigenous people In this collection of essays he blinks looks around and makes some field notes Comparative Genomics Glenn Tesler, Dannie Durand, 2007-08-31 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 5th RECOMB Comparative Genomics

Satellite Workshop RECOMB CG 2007 held in San Diego CA USA in September 2007 The 14 revised full papers presented address a broad variety of aspects and components of the field of comparative genomics ranging from quantitative discoveries about genome structure to algorithms for comparative inference to theorems on the complexity of computational problems required for genome comparison

The Love of Loves in the Song of Songs Philip Graham Ryken, 2019-02-14 We live in a world where sexuality is ruined by sin its beauty obscured by our brokenness We need a divine vision for the way love was meant to be with a gospel that offers forgiveness for sin and grace to live in the way that God has made us to be In the Song of Songs we encounter a love story that is part of the greatest love story ever told Philip Ryken walks through this biblical love poem verse by verse reflecting on what the Bible says about God's design for love intimacy and sexuality and offering insights into not only human relationships but also our relationship to God himself learning more about the One who has loved us with an everlasting love

García Lorca at the Edge of Surrealism David F. Richter, 2014-10-15 García Lorca at the Edge of Surrealism The Aesthetics of Anguish examines the variations of surrealism and surrealist theories in the Spanish context studied through the poetry drama and drawings of Federico García Lorca 1898 1936 In contrast to the idealist and subconscious tenets espoused by surrealist leader André Breton which focus on the marvelous automatic creative processes and sublimated depictions of reality Lorca's surrealist impulse follows a trajectory more in line with the theories of French intellectuals such as Georges Bataille 1897 1962 who was expelled from Breton's authoritative group Bataille critiques the lofty goals and ideals of Bretonian surrealism in the pages of the cultural and anthropological review Documents 1929 1930 in terms of a dissident surrealist ethno poetics This brand of the surreal underscores the prevalence of the bleak or darker aspects of reality crisis primitive sacrifice the death drive and the violent representation of existence portrayed through formless base matter such as blood excrement and fragmented bodies The present study demonstrates that Bataille's theoretical and poetic expositions including those dealing with the formless and the somber emptiness of the void engage the trauma and anxiety of surrealist expression in Spain particularly with reference to the anguish desire and death that figure so prominently in Spanish texts of the 1920s and 1930s often qualified as surrealist Drawing extensively on the theoretical cultural and poetic texts of the period García Lorca at the Edge of Surrealism offers the first book length consideration of Bataille's thinking within the Spanish context examined through the work of Lorca a singular proponent of what is here referred to as a dissident Spanish surrealism By reading Lorca's surrealist texts including Poeta en Nueva York Viaje a la luna and El público through the Bataillean lens this volume both amplifies our understanding of the poetry and drama of one of the most important Spanish writers of the twentieth century and expands our perspective of what surrealism in Spain means

The End of Analysis Mohamed Tal, 2023-07-13 This book interrogates the end of analysis in psychoanalytic thought from Freud to Lacan It demonstrates that the notions of mourning renunciation liquidation of transference and traversal of fantasy cannot serve as a settlement for the castration complex i.e. central to neurosis but are rather prey to the castration complex itself It shows how psychoanalysis remains incomplete as long as it has not surpassed them as fantasies sustained by psychoanalytic ideology In other words it argues that the analytic procedure must pull psychoanalysis out of this therapeutic tradition for it to be complete and to instigate an attempt of its renewal The book equally revisits Freud's and Lacan's underpinnings in the Enlightenment project in order to formulate the problem of transference on proper dialectical foundations that is the mechanism of alienation from Descartes to Hegel Kierkegaard's concept of anxiety as well as the concepts of authority and value in Durkheim Mauss and Marx In doing so it provides fresh insights that will appeal to practitioners as well as to scholars of psychoanalysis and philosophy Philosophy and the Social Problem Will Durant, 1917

The End of the Mind DeSales Harrison, 2005-02-10 This book seeks to include among accounts of modern lyric poetry a theory of the poem's relation to the unintelligible DeSales Harrison draws a distinction between sites of unintelligibility and sights of difficulty while much has been said about modernist difficulty little has been said about the attention that poets give to phenomena that by definition arrest, impede, obscure, damage or destroy the capacity for intelligible representation

Edge of the Screen Murray Pomerance, 2024-11-14 This book is a series of seventeen meditations that revolve around the notion of the viewer's placement at the edge of the screen Every page is an opportunity to think about an aspect of film or of film viewing in new ways and to begin reconsidering deeply ingrained ways of unthinkingly characterizing and accounting for what it is that we watch when we watch a film what happens to us and how we make sense of and appreciate it This volume follows from three others by the author Virtuoso Film Performance and the Actor's Magic 2020 The Film Cheat Cinematic Artifice and Viewing Pleasure 2021 and Uncanny Cinema Agonies of the Viewing Experience 2022 All of these including Edge of the Screen meander and interrogate cinema as we watch it both connecting us to and disconnecting us from the moment of pleasure Each meditation is characterized by a deep penetration of the inquiring continually hungry authorial mind and a very extensive set of analyses of filmic moments from myriad films including 2001 A Space Odyssey Memento Zabriskie Point An American in Paris Planet of the Apes 1968 Superman 1978 Possessed The Jungle Book 1942 The Spy Who Came In from the Cold The Toll of the Sea Rope and numerous others These meditations are careful and philosophical as much as energetically ruminative yet are written in an accessible style for all interested readers who both love cinema and wonder about that love Each chapter can stand alone even though all work together to challenge perspectives on what we encounter, experience, think and feel when we watch films Across its chapters Edge of the Screen takes on a wide range of topics the ontology of film the relation between characters, actors and the figures who appear onscreen film's relationships to the other arts especially painting but also novels and theatre the passage of time in film and its momentary character film criticism including deeply held values such as coherence film's relationship to mortality and more

The Edge of Science Alan Baker, 2013-01-17 How did the universe begin and how will it end What happens to us when we die Do intelligent beings exist elsewhere in our galaxy and beyond The Edge of Science addresses

these and many other questions that have bewildered and perplexed humanity for centuries Some of these enigmas have been solved through the ingenuity of their investigators others remain a mystery and have given rise to equally bizarre speculations From the Tunguska explosion of 1908 to the enigma of the Moon's origin from the possibility of time travel to the search for zero point energy author Alan Baker examines the many theories that have been presented to account for the world's most enduring mysteries Each chapter deals with an enigma that has caused wonder excitement or fear to all who have pondered it including the discovery of strange fossils that hint at an unknown early history of humanity anomalous structures photographed on the Moon and Mars the mystery of dark matter and dark energy and strange disappearances of people and objects Join Alan Baker as he embarks on a strange stimulating and sometimes frightening journey to The Edge of Science

The Edge of Knowing Roy Bing Chan, 2016-11-01 Reveals the historical impact of dream rhetoric on Chinese modernity and nation building Realism and the rhetoric of dreams intersected in modern Chinese literature from the May Fourth Era in the early twentieth century through the period just following the end of the Cultural Revolution in 1976 The Edge of Knowing investigates this relationship showing how writers' attention to dreams demonstrates the multiple influences of Western psychology utopian desire for revolutionary change and the enduring legacy of traditional Chinese philosophy At the same time modern Chinese writers used their work to represent social reality for the purpose of nation building Recent political usage of dream rhetoric in the People's Republic of China attests to the continuing influence of dreams on the imagination of Chinese modernity By employing a number of critical perspectives The Edge of Knowing will appeal to readers seeking to understand the complicated relationship between literary form and Chinese history and politics

On the Edge of Empire Adele Perry, 2001-05-19 On the Edge of Empire is a well written carefully researched and persuasively argued book that delineates the centrality of race and gender in the making of colonial and national identities and in the re writing of Canadian history as colonial history Utilising feminist and post colonial filters Perry designs a case study of British Columbia She draws on current work which aims to close the distance between home and away in order to make her case about the commonalities and differences between circumstances in British Columbia and the kind of Anglo American culture that was increasingly dominant in North America parts of the British Isles and other white settler colonies On the Edge of Empire examines how a loosely connected group of reformers worked to transform an environment that lent itself to two social phenomena white male homosocial culture and conjugal relationships between First Nations women and settler men The reformers worked to replace British Columbia's homosocial culture with the practices of respectable middle class European masculinity Others encouraged mixed race couples to conform to European standards of marriage and discouraged white Aboriginal unions through moral suasion or the more radical tactic of racially segregated space Another reform impetus laboured through immigration and land policy to both build and shape the settler population A more successful reform effort involved four assisted female immigration efforts yet the experience of white women in British Columbia only made more pronounced the gap between colonial discourse and colonial experience In its failure to live up to British expectations remaining a racially plural resource colony with a unique culture British Columbia revealed much about the politics of gender race and the making of colonial society on this edge of empire Winner of the Clio Award British Columbia Region presented by the Canadian Historical Association and co winner of the Pacific Coast Branch Book Award presented by the American Historical Association
