Strempek Shea Abigail Thomas Monica Wood Mark Doty Edwidge Danticat Marianne Leone Jerald Walker Kate Bornstein Jessica Handler Richard Blanco Alysia Abbott and Kim Stafford Insights from Writing Hard Stories Why we endeavor collectively to write a book or paint a canvas or write a symphony is to understand who we are as human beings and it's that shared knowledge that somehow helps us to survive Richard Blanco Here's what you need to understand your brothers or family or friends are going to have their own stories to tell You don't have to tell the family story You have to tell your story of being in that family Andre Dubus III We all need a way to express or make something out of experiences that otherwise have no meaning If what you want is clarity and meaning you have to break the secrets over your knee and make something of those ingredients Abigail Thomas What we remember and how we remember it really tells us how we became who we became Michael Patrick MacDonald The reason I write memoir is to be able to see the experience itself I hardly know what I think until I write Writing is a way to organize your life give it a frame give it a structure so that you can really see what it was that happened Sue William Silverman After a while in the process you have some distance and you start thinking of it as a story not as your story It was a personal grief but no longer personal It's something that has not just happened to me and my family but something that's happened in the world Edwidge Danticat Tibetan Buddhists believe that eloquence is the telling of a truth in such a way that it eases suffering The more suffering that is eased by your telling of the truth the more eloquent you are That's all you can really hope for being eloquent in that fashion All you have to do is respond to your story honestly and that's the ideal Kate Bornstein You can never entirely redeem the experience You can't make it not hurt anymore But you can make it beautiful enough so that there's something to balance it in the other scale And if you understand that word beautiful as not necessarily pretty then you're getting close to recognizing the integrative power of restoring the balance which is restoring the truth Richard Hoffman
