The Old Country George Seddon,2005-10-04 We are a nation of gardeners and we take pleasure in tending our backyards But this pleasure sits uneasily with our knowledge that the places where most of us live are running out of water We suspect that our lawns and many of our plants from the damp climates of northern European gardens are too demanding of scarce supplies but can t imagine our streets and gardens without them The Old Country opens our eyes and minds to other possibilities It does so by telling us stories about our natural landscape George Seddon believes that the better we understand the delicacy and beauty of our natural environment the more at home we will feel as Australians This passionate wise and witty book enriched with breathtakingly beautiful illustrations suggests that the answers to our water problems lie here at home A History of European Housing in Australia Patrick Troy,2000-06-22 This collection of essays first published in 2000 was the first systematic attempt to explain the social administrative technical and cultural history of European housing in Australia Written by a collaborative team of scholars from a wide range of disciplines it explains how Australian housing has evolved from the ideas brought by the first settlers and what makes Australian housing distinctive in social terms This book covers a broad range of topics including the ways in which houses reflect social values and aspirations the relationship between houses and gardens the home as a site of domestic production and consumption and an exploration of how housing provides the basis for developing a sense of community The book will be invaluable for students of urban affairs and those engaged in housing and the design professions as well as policy makers and analysts in the public and private sectors

Gardens take many forms and have a variety of functions. They can serve as spaces of peace and tranquility, a way to cultivate wildlife or as places to develop agricultural resources. Globally, gardens have inspired, comforted and sustained people from all walks of life and since the Garden of Eden many iconic gardens have inspired great artists, poets, musicians and writers. In this Very Short Introduction, Gordon Campbell embraces gardens in all their splendour, from parks and fruit and vegetable gardens to ornamental gardens, and takes the reader on a globe-trotting historical journey through iconic and cultural signposts of gardens from different regions and traditions. Ranging from the gardens of ancient Persia to modern-day allotments, he concludes by looking to the future of the garden in the age of global warming and the adaptive spirit of human innovation.

The Garden of Ideas Richard Aitken, 2010. The Garden of Ideas tells an inspiring and engaging story of Australian garden design. From the imaginings of emigrant garden makers of the late eighteenth century to the concerns of twenty-first-century gardeners, this book charts its way across four centuries through a handsome and satisfying fusion of images and text. The Garden of Ideas is embellished with an unparalleled array of images, paintings, drawings, prints, plans, and photographs, each richly evocative of their time and most never previously published. Unearthed from around Australia and many from overseas, these images carry the story of Australian garden style down the years, in the process crisscrossing social and cultural history across the wide extremes of our continent. Richard Aitken, whose book Botanical Riches was published in 2006 to popular and critical acclaim, brings a lifetime of experience to The Garden of Ideas. He achieves fresh insights and presents our passion for garden making with wit and flair. The Garden of Ideas is a valuable source book for the sophisticated gardener and an indispensable companion for the garden lover.
