Educators On The Frontline Advocacy Strategies For Your Classroom Your School And Your Profession:

Educators on the Frontline Jill Lewis (Ed. D.), Kathleen Stumpf Jongsma, Allen Berger, 2005 Offers teachers and other school personnel an overview of education advocacy explaining what the role of an education advocate is how they can change the education system how to get started and what the best advocacy strategies are Teacher Collaboration for Professional Learning Cynthia A. Lassonde, Susan E. Israel, 2009-12-09 Teacher Collaboration for Professional Learning contains the essential information tools and examples teachers and school leaders need to create manage and sustain successful collaborative groups Designed to be a hands on resource this practical guide shows you how to Advocate for collaborative teacher learning Develop and sustain collaborative research groups Organize and conduct productive research projects Address issues of ethics leadership and group dynamics Evaluate and sustain collaborative learning activities Based on data from a major survey Teacher Collaboration for Professional Learning features extensive case examples from model research communities collaborating within schools across districts in partnership with universities and as online networks The book also offers a wealth of reproducible templates as well as reflection questions and exercises invaluable tools for organizing study groups Official Portraits and Unofficial Counterportraits of At Risk" Students" Richard J. Meyer, 2010-01-15 This book chronicles fifth and sixth grade writers in a poor culturally diverse rural school in the southwest US coming into their voices cultivating those voices and using those voices in a variety of venues beginning with the classroom community and spreading outward The big ideas of official and unofficial portraits are presented followed by data and facets of the theoretical construct of counterportraits in each chapter as a response to official portraits Closing the Gap Karen Keaton Jackson, Sandra Vavra, 2007-09-01 Without contraries there is no progression William Blake This is a book about reality and hope Its chapters reframe the concept of gap acknowledging distances for example acknowledging old insights and theory while also honoring teacher discovery However it refuses to bow under the weight of these challenges Its contributors focus instead on how to overcome acknowledged inadequacies in learning how to teach writing as well as how to practice principled literacy instruction These contributors see gaps not as unbridgeable chasms but rather as opportunities to educate their students to use writing to understand the broader context of their education and pre service candidates to adapt curriculum creatively Contributors include new and seasoned secondary school teachers graduate students and university faculty who together remind us of old insights needing to be passed along Villanueva and show us new practices that challenge the conventions of the status quo and promote social justice To close the gaps in short they demonstrate how rhetoric and truth are intertwined In a time when too many children continue to be left behind this book should be required reading for all literacy teachers because it is in our continued willingness to learn from each other that hope resides

Reading Specialists and Literacy Coaches in the Real World Brenda A. Shearer, DeBorah A. Carr, MaryEllen Vogt, 2018-07-23 Now more than ever the roles and responsibilities of today s literacy professionals are expanding Many recent developments require a closer look at the changing careers of reading specialists coaches and administrators leading to an emphasis on increased collaboration and coaching integration of standards and student improvement initiatives Both scholarly and practical Reading Specialists and Literacy Coaches in the Real World provides the support and guidance both literacy and content area teachers need The learning goals and outcomes in each chapter are aligned with ILA s Standards for the Preparation of Literacy Professionals 2017 providing opportunities for group inquiry and new perspectives on professional learning The authors examine the historical political and social forces that shape evidence based practice and incorporate significant developments in intervention assessment and adolescent literacy Their impact on instruction and the needs of students are studied in conjunction with RtI MTSS programs progress monitoring and differentiation instructional technologies related to twenty first century literacies updated information about effective academic language instruction for English learners and a moral imperative for fostering equity social justice and global perspectives The Fourth Edition also provides Resource Materials to support the text giving it a great deal of flexibility to explore projects for portfolios and self assessment In the real world as learners among learners literacy professionals use their experiences and voices for advocacy to help prepare students for success in their lives and careers

Designing Socially Just Learning Communities

Rebecca Rogers, Mary Ann Kramer, Melissa Mosley, The Literacy for Social Justice Teacher Research Group, 2009-05-07 Demonstrating the power and potential of educators working together to use literacy practices that make changes in people s lives this collaboratively written book blends the voices of participants in a teacher led professional development group to provide a truly lifespan perspective on designing critical literacy practices It joins these educators stories with the history and practices of the group K 12 classroom teachers adult educators university professors and community activists who have worked together since 2001 to better understand the relationship between literacy and social justice Exploring issues such as gender equity linguistic diversity civil rights and freedom and war the book showcases teachers reflective practice in action and offers insight into the possibilities and struggles of teaching literacy through a framework of social justice Designing Socially Just Learning Communities models an innovative form of professional development for educators and researchers who are seeking ways to transform educational practices The teachers practices and actions in their classrooms and as members of the teacher research group will speak loudly to policy makers researchers and activists who wish to work alongside them

Informed Advocacy in Early Childhood Care and Education Judith E. Kieff, 2009 In Informed Advocacy in Early Childhood Care and Education Making a Difference for Young Children and Families the author outlines six contexts for advocacy in the field of early childhood education individual child and family advocacy for the profession program based advocacy private sector advocacy political activism and advocacy in the global arena This practical guide describes the critical need for advocacy in the field of early care and extols the ethical responsibilities of all early child educators as outlined in the Code of Ethical Conduct NAEYC 2005 Organized into three parts the text begins with advocacy in the field of early childhood education discusses how to develop an advocacy agenda and concludes with becoming an advocate for life. Additionally, a wide range of advocacy activities are addressed, including choosing effective strategies, networking, advocating for program changes from within, navigating and being effective in the political process, working with the private sector to bring about positive changes for children, developing and managing an advocacy agenda, and working with the media.

Improving Literacy Achievement in Urban Schools Louise Cherry Wilkinson, Lesley Mandel Morrow, Victoria Chou, 2008. All students deserve the opportunity to reach their full literacy potential, yet research shows that the numerous challenges faced by today's urban schools prevent many students from achieving this goal. Therefore, preparing teachers to effectively teach reading in diverse urban populations in ways that students find engaging and relevant must be a top priority of teacher education programs.

Secondary School Literacy Leslie S. Rush, A. Jonathan Eakle, Allen Berger, 2007. This collection is an authoritative resource that draws on the knowledge and expertise of outstanding scholars and provides crucial information about research theory and practice related to secondary school literacy. Leading scholars along with newer researchers in literacy education address topics such as the impact of state and federal mandates on literacy instruction in secondary classrooms, English language learners, and online reading comprehension. Chapter authors include Richard L. Allington, Donna E. Alvermann, Kathleen A. Hinchman, Robert T. Jimenez, Kevin M. Leander, Alfred W. Tatum, and Robert J. Tierney, among others. Each chapter contains rich discussions of current research as well as practical classroom applications. As one reviewer noted, "Each and every chapter is well documented and presents clearly established implications for teaching tied to the latest research findings." One of the major strengths of this edited volume lies in the way it points to a remarkable consistency across research findings representing a broad spectrum of disciplinary arenas. This volume is a welcome addition for any teacher, administrator, or district looking to implement sound research-based classroom practice and professional development.

Reading Specialists and Literacy Coaches in the Real World MaryEllen Vogt, Brenda A. Shearer, 2007. Reading Specialists and Literacy Coaches in the Real World is a unique resource designed to prepare reading specialists and literacy coaches to implement reading programs at the school and district level. It includes both theoretical and practical information about the varied roles of reading specialists and literacy coaches to prepare administrators to coordinate, implement, and evaluate programs for teaching reading language arts.
