energy treats its workers well and doesn't hurt animals oh and that makes them feel cool when they use it Companies would love to have that kind of reputation and a handful seem to have achieved it But do they deserve their haloes Can a company make a profit doing so And how can consumers avoid being tricked by phony marketing In Ethical Chic award winning author Fran Hawthorne uses her business investigative skills to analyze six favorites Apple Starbucks Trader Joe's American Apparel Timberland and Tom's of Maine She attends a Macworld conference and walks on the factory floors of American Apparel She visits the wooded headquarters of Timberland speaks to consumers who drive thirty miles to get their pretzels and plantains from Trader Joe's and confronts the founders of Tom's of Maine More than a how to guide for daily dilemmas and ethical business practices Ethical Chic is a blinders off and nuanced look at the mixed bag of values on sale at companies that project a seemingly progressive image
