Christos Yannaras Basilio Petra,2020-01-01 Basilio Petr sees Christos Yannaras b 1935 as a philosopher and theologian whose refiguring on the one hand of Heidegger s refusal to define being in ontic terms and on the other of Wittgenstein s willingness to admit the inexpressible character of the mystical has led him to articulate a powerful vision of true human existence This bold interpretation outlines the passage from an ontic mode of nature governed by necessity to a mode of self transcendence and self offering beyond the limitations of decay and death In his native Greece Yannaras revolutionised the way theology had been done for much of the twentieth century This book examines the trajectory of Yannaras thought from his initial encounter with Heidegger s philosophy to his formulation via the tradition of the Greek Fathers of a modern critical ontology It is for both advanced students of philosophy and the growing scholarly audience interested in Yannaras work Written in accessible language that does not compromise intellectual rigour it is the only survey of the development of Yannaras philosophical thought as a whole theological reflection on the hermeneutical problem The questions raised and the possible answers suggested in this volume will be of interest to students of other disciplines such as philosophy and literature Faith's Knowledge Paul Tyson, 2013-05-02 Can we know truth even though certain proof is unattainable Can we be known by Truth Is there a relationship between belief and truth and if so what is the nature of that relationship Do we need to have faith in reason and in real meaning to be able to reason towards truth These are the sorts of questions this book seeks to address In Faith's Knowledge Paul Tyson argues that all knowledge that aims at truth is always the knowledge of faith If this is the case then against our modernist cultural assumptions about knowledge truth cannot be had by proof Yet if this is true then mere information and simply objective facts do not for us as knowers exist Knowledge is always embedded in belief and knowledge and belief is always expressed in relationships histories narratives shared meanings and power Hence a theological sociology of knowledge emerges out of these explorations in thinking about knowledge as a function of faith Eastern Christianity and the Cold War, 1945-91 Lucian Leustean, 2010-01-21 Despite widespread persecution Orthodox churches not only survived the Cold War period but levels of religiosity in Orthodox countries remained significant This book examines the often surprising relations between Orthodox churches and political regimes It provides a comprehensive overview of the dynamics between Eastern Christianity and politics from the end of the Second World War to the fall of communism covering 40 Orthodox churches including diasporic churches in Africa Asia America and Australia Based on research from recently opened archives and publications in a wide range of European languages it analyses church state relations on both sides of the Iron Curtain It discusses the following key themes the relationship between Orthodox churches and political power religious resistance to communism the political control of churches religion and propaganda monasticism and theological publications religious diplomacy within the Orthodox commonwealth and religious contacts between East and West The Oxford Handbook of Deification Paul L. Gavrilyuk, 2024 This handbook offers a comprehensive and varied study of deification within Christian theology Forty six leading experts in the field examine points of convergence and difference on the constitutive elements of deification across different writers thinkers and traditions Theology and the Political, 2020-11-04 Theology and the Political Theo political Reflections on Contemporary Politics in Ecumenical Conversation edited by Alexei Bodrov and Stephen M Garrett is the fruit of Orthodox Catholic and Protestant conversations from East and West concerning the retrieval of theological discourse for political praxis theo political structural analysis of secularity post secularity and distinct political engagement from varying Christian traditions that not only offer political critique but criticism of its particular tradition This edited volume is animated by the motif of political action as witness in a missional key and makes a unique interdisciplinary contribution to the field of political theology that invites further reflection on the gospel instantiated in various cultural contexts in light of the boundary crossing nature of mission and theological discourse Culture and Customs of Greece Artemis Leontis, 2009-04-30 The Parthenon Plato Socrates and Aristotle Homer's epic

Divine Providence and Human Agency Alexander S. Jensen, 2016-05-13 Divine Providence and Human Agency develops an understanding of God and God s relation to creation that perceives God as sovereign over creation while at the same time allowing for a meaningful notion of human freedom This book provides a bridge between contemporary approaches that emphasise human freedom such as process theology and those influenced by it and traditional theologies that stress divine omnipotence This book argues that it is essential for Christian theology to maintain that God is ultimately in charge of history otherwise there would be no solid grounds for Christian hope Yet the modern human self understanding as free agent within certain limitations must be taken seriously Jensen approaches this apparent contradiction from within a consistently trinitarian framework Jensen argues that a Christian understanding of God must be based on the experience of the saving presence of Christ in the Church leading to an apophatic and consistently trinitarian theology This serves as the framework for the discussion of divine omnipotence and human freedom On the basis of the theological foundation established in this book it is possible to frame the problem in a way that makes it possible to live within this tension Building on this foundation Jensen develops an understanding of history as the unfolding of the divine purpose and as an expression of God's very being which is self giving love and desire for communion This book offers an important contribution to the debate of the doctrine of God in the context of an evolutionary universe

The Goldilocks God Guy Collins, 2022-08-22 The Goldilocks God Searching for the via media explores the fertile middle ground between toxic Christianity and militant atheism Can Christianity be intellectually credible Why do our past failures and breakages offer comfort and hope How does the via media of Anglicanism offer tactics for dealing with contemporary challenges and uncertainties Whether exploring mystic Hildegard von Bingen strategic thinker Queen Elizabeth or theologians Jean Luc Marion and Sarah Coakley readers venture into a Trinitarian Goldilocks zone of faith hope and love Guy Collins makes a creative and heartfelt case for a spiritual thermodynamics of trial and error promise and glory Illuminating ancient Christian practice with cutting edge philosophy and theology he reveals the lifelong habits that are just right for encountering the mystery of God

Holy Beauty Chrysostomos A. Stamoulis, 2022-01-01 The philosophical and theological study of aesthetics has a long and rich history stretching back to Plato's identification of ultimate goodness and beauty together representing the eternal form Recent trends in aesthetic theory however characterised by a focus on the beautiful at the expense of the good have made it an object of suspicion in the Orthodox Church In its place Greek theologians have sought to emphasise philokalia as a truer theological discipline Seeking to reverse this trend Chrysostomos Stamoulis brings into conversation a plethora of voices from Church fathers to contemporary poets and from a Marxist political theorist to a literary critic Out of this dialogue Stamoulis builds a model for the re appropriation of Orthodoxy's patristic and Byzantine past that is no longer defined in antithesis to the Western present The openness he proposes allows us to perceive afresh the world shot through with divinity if only we can lift our gaze to see it Dismantling the false dichotomy philokalia or aesthetics is the first step
