Board of Trade and he let me in which cost Shagan two quid On the whole I wished he hadn t Anyone who wants to study the interior architecture of Mickett Lane can do so without fear of being jostled by me The Scene of the Crime was a bedroom upstairs They had drawn the curtains and there was one electric bulb burning over the bed but the curtains let in quite a lot of daylight giving the room the neither the one damned thing nor the other appearance which you get in an empty theatre with the stage set and the curtain up There was a smell of disuse and disinfectants with a lingering stink of face powder At my age I am not I hope sensitive to what the half baked call atmosphere but I Found the cheapness of the whole set up quite disagreeable There were two or three seedy little men in smart three guinea suits doing exactly what they do in whodunits taking photo graphs with micro cameras and making measurements one fellow with a cigarette stuck to his lip was calling out the figures just as a tailor does N O one took any notice of me and I had the impression that if I d started to intone the burial service in a high childish treble or to unleash a brace of bloodhounds from my brief case they still wouldn t have taken any notice It was that sort of scene by Tchegov out of Madame Tussaud There was a rheumy eyed old man who I suppose was the police doctor examining the body So feeling that I ought to give Shagan his money s worth I examined it too The medical was kind enough to point out the wounds in the throat which I could perfectly well have seen for myself A wheezy old bore in love with footling technicalities About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Elephant and Castle Ray Coryton Hutchinson,1940      The Car and the Elephant Michael David Althorpe,2006      Remaking London Ben Campkin,2013-08-13 Between the slum clearances of the early twentieth century and debates about the post Olympic city the drive to regenerate London has intensified Yet today with a focus on increasing land values regeneration schemes purporting to foster diverse and creative new neighbourhoods typically displace precisely the qualities activities and communities they claim to support In Remaking London Ben Campkin provides a lucid and stimulating historical account of urban regeneration exploring how decline and renewal have been imagined and realised at different scales Focussing on present day regeneration areas that have been key to the capital s modern identity Campkin explores how these places have been stigmatised through identification with material degradation and spatial and social disorder Drawing on diverse sources including journalism photography cinema theatre architectural design advertising and television he illuminates how ideas of decline drive urban change Richly illustrated and engagingly written Remaking London is both a compelling account of contested sites from the capital s recent history and a powerful critique of the contradictions of contemporary regeneration
