Reflections on a Simple Twist of Fate: Literature, Art, and Parkinson's Disease Dean Scaros, 2018-06-21 What happens when our lives are suddenly disrupted by chronic or terminal illness Of course science family faith and friends are there to help But as author Dean Scaros demonstrates in this elegantly written and affecting book all the issues we face as a result of illness have been expressed through human artistic sensibility We have been seeking meaning and solace and have often found it ever since we painted figures on the walls of our caves This book considers through the lens of great literature and art issues that are important to us as we struggle to come to terms with progressive debilitating illness issues such as personal dignity courage fear hope love time chance fate and friendship to name just a few These issues are not physical or clinical Rather they concern the ways in which we think and feel about our experience Reflecting on them affords us an opportunity to better understand our experience and even gain a measure of wisdom from it

Really Writing Joan Bolker, 2016-08-18 A collection of Joan Bolker's essays and poetry some new some old on psychology memory writing family and of course dogs If her Writing Your Dissertation in Fifteen Minutes a Day helped you find out here how she uses her own strategies

New Essays on Life Writing and the Body Christopher Stuart, Stephanie Todd, 2009-03-26 In light of materialist revisions of the Cartesian dual self and the increased recognition of memoir and autobiography as a crucial cultural index the physical body has emerged in the last twenty five years as an increasingly inescapable object of inquiry speculation and theory that intersects all of the various subgenres of life writing New Essays on Life Writing and the Body thus offers a timely original focused and yet appropriately interdisciplinary study of life writing This collection brings together new work by established authorities in autobiography such as Timothy Dow Adams G Thomas Couser Cynthia Huff and others along with essays by emerging scholars in the field Subjects range from new interpretations of well known autobiographies by Edith Wharton Gertrude Stein and Lucy Grealy as well as scholarly surveys of more recently defined subgenres such as the numerous New Woman autobiographies of the late 19th century adoption narratives and sibling memoirs of the mentally impaired Due to their wide interdisciplinary focus these essays will prove valuable not only to more traditional literary scholars interested in the classic literary autobiography but also to those in Women's Studies Ethnic and African American Studies as well as in emerging fields such as Disability Studies and Cognitive Studies

The Heart of Wisdom Richard White, 2012-12-14 The Heart of Wisdom explores the intersection of philosophy and spirituality Though spirituality is a concept often viewed with skepticism by philosophers and others spiritual concerns are prominent in many people's lives whether or not they ascribe to a religious creed This book examines spiritual concepts like generosity suffering and joy incorporating the various perspectives of great philosophers including Nietzsche Aristotle and Derrida as well as Eastern wisdom traditions including Buddhism and Vedanta philosophy

Death in the Classroom Jeffrey Berman, 2009-01-08 Shows how death education can be brought from the healing professions to the literature classroom

Family Business Peter J. Conradi, 2019-06-06 Peter J Conradi's memoir Family Business includes a cast of characters ranging from his European Jewish forebears who came to Britain in the Victorian era to influential novelist and philosopher Iris Murdoch whose biography Conradi himself wrote The arc of Conradi's story travels unusually from the relative integration of his ancestors to his rebellion against this and his long association with Murdoch another outsider in English society Against the upwardly mobile successes of his immigrant ancestors with their exotic multifarious stories and his relationship with his beloved grandmother came the more immediate dysfunction of his parents marriage Young clever bisexual Peter became a knight errant protecting his mother and set a precedent repeated later in his friendship with Murdoch In between Conradi relates his public school education becoming a kibbutznik taking part in the early years of gay rights and becoming a writer In the final chapters Conradi explores his long and close relationship with Iris Murdoch and her husband John Bayley Conradi was both Murdoch s biographer and on several occasions her carer and has much to say on the nature of biography and on the world of Murdoch and Bayley including previously unpublished material on them both Family Business is an enthralling book a biographer s autobiography with numerous strands sensitively and thoughtfully explored and including almost fifty previously unseen photographs I am at a loss for sufficient words I love this book The portrait of his parents and his relationship with them is a masterpiece I don t think this portrait of the nineteenth century Jewish diaspora in England will ever be bettered Carmen Callil A mingling of charm comedy confessional and inevitable tragedy all beautifully orchestrated I can only congratulate you on a brilliant series of stories Michael Holroyd Worth reading in the same way as Murdoch s books are because it s pleasurable and educational to spend hours in the company of a writer so thoughtful so questioning so open to human life in all its peculiarities Laura Feigl The Daily Telegraph

Clinical Values Sandra Buechler,2013-04-15 In this refreshingly honest and open book Sandra Buechler looks at therapeutic process issues from the standpoint of the human qualities and human resourcefulness that the therapist brings to each clinical encounter Her concern is with the clinical values that shape the psychoanalytically oriented treatment experience How she asks can one person evoke a range of values curiosity hope kindness courage sense of purpose emotional balance the ability to bear loss and integrity in another person and thereby promote psychological change For Buechler these core values and the emotions that infuse them are at the heart of the clinical process They permeate the texture and tone and shape the content of what therapists say They provide the framework for formulating and working toward treatment goals and keep the therapist emotionally alive in the face of the often draining vicissitudes of the treatment process Clinical Values Emotions That Guide Psychoanalytic Treatment is addressed to therapists young and old By focusing successively on different emotion laden values Buechler shows how one value or another can center the therapist within the session Taken together these values function as a clinical compass that provides the therapist with a sense of direction and militates against the all too frequent sense of flying by the seat of one's pants Buechler makes clear that the values that guide treatment derive from the full range of the clinician's human experiences and she is candid in relating the personal experiences from inside and outside the consulting room that inform her own matrix of clinical values and her own clinical approach A compelling record of one gifted therapist's pathway to clinical maturity Clinical Values has a more general import It exemplifies the variegated ways in which productive clinical work of any type ultimately revolves around the therapist's ability to make the most of being all too human The Philosopher Queens Rebecca Buxton, Lisa Whiting, 2020-09-17 This is brilliant A book about women in philosophy by women in philosophy love it Elif Shafak Where are the women philosophers The answer is right here The history of philosophy has not done women justice you've probably heard the names Plato Kant Nietzsche and Locke but what about Hypatia Arendt Oluwole and Young The Philosopher Queens is a long awaited book about the lives and works of women in philosophy by women in philosophy This collection brings to centre stage twenty prominent women whose ideas have had a profound but for the most part uncredited impact on the world You'll learn about Ban Zhao the first woman historian in ancient Chinese history Angela Davis perhaps the most iconic symbol of the American Black Power Movement Azizah Y al Hibri known for examining the intersection of Islamic law and gender equality and many more For anyone who has wondered where the women philosophers are or anyone curious about the history of ideas it's time to meet the philosopher queens

Neuroscience and Art Amy Ione, 2024-08-27 This book is focused on how understanding ourselves as humans is incomplete without considering both biological and cultural aspects Using the neurocultural perspective the book explores how everything in the world is filtered back and forth through the brain and culture The thrust of the book therefore is to explore the power of art in creating a bridge between cultural and neuroscientific lines of inquiry Looking at both clinical and non clinical populations the text examines historical foundations distinguishes congenital developmental conditions from those that are acquired and emphasizes how the brain constructs our sensory experiences Several distinctive features separate this research from other publications First the book opens with a review of how the historical literature is still etched into the ideas we employ to explain elements across the interdisciplinary fields of art aesthetics our sensory experience psychology cognition and well being Second the research adopts a humanistic rather than a philosophical or social science perspective in demonstrating the value of coupling anatomy and physiology with the natural and social environment In this artists from all genres are incorporated Among them are Iris Murdoch Ludwig van Beethoven Leonardo da Vinci Cristoforo de Predis Rembrandt Federico Fellini Chuck Close and David Hockney Case studies demonstrate how neuroscientific research meshes with art individual and cultural variables in ways that range from health and well being to physiological decline and biological traumas These include a case study that examines how Oliver Sacks combined biology and biography in his writings It also explores art projects in several genres inspired by his studies Another case study is on the role of film as a useful clinical tool Here the book also demonstrates that cinematic devices used by filmmakers intersect with perceptual and cognitive neuroscience A defining feature of the analysis is the integration of research on brain injuries with humanistic responses in film literature and the visual arts This section outlines the lack of consensus regarding the causes and treatment of shell shock in World War I before introducing how research and art now work with PTSD TBI Finally the book examines therapeutic cases of professional and non professional artists concluding with a discussion of synesthesia and the senses

The Mystery of the Real Jeffrey Meyers, 2016-06-14 The work of Alex Colville O C 1920 2013 one of the great modern realist painters combines the Flemish detail of Andrew Wyeth the eerie foreboding of George Tooker and the anguished confrontations of Lucian Freud Behind the North Americans stands their common master Edward Hopper Colville s works are in many museums in Canada and Germany He has affinities with Max Beckmann and appeals to the German secondary virtues cleanliness punctuality love of order In a long life he resolutely opposed the fashionable currents of abstract and expressionistic art In contrast to Jackson Pollock s wild action painting Colville created paintings of contemplation and reflection As Jeffrey Meyers writes I spent several days with Colville on each of three visits from California to Wolfville I received seventy letters from him between August 1998 and April 2010 and kept thirty six of my letters to him He sent me photographs and slides of his work and in his eighties discussed the progress and meaning of the paintings he completed during the last decade of his life His handwritten letters precisely explaining his thoughts and feelings provide a rare and enlightening opportunity to compare my insights and interpretations with his own intentions and ideas He also discussed his family health sexuality politics reading travels literary interests our mutual friend Iris Murdoch response to my writing his work exhibitions sales of his pictures and of course the meaning of his art His letters reveal the challenges he faced during aging and illness and his determination to keep painting as health difficulties mounted He stopped writing to me when he became seriously ill two years before his death In this context the late paintings presented in colour in this book take on a new poignancy
