Teaching the Mother Tongue in a Multilingual Europe Witold Tulasiewicz, Anthony Adams, 2005-06-09 In a time when the increasing cultural diversity and population mobility of the continent calls for good communication skills this fascinating book features a wealth of data and critical opinion on the topic of mother tongue education In the first part of the book the two editors address central cultural political and educational concerns relating to the mother tongue using some of the findings of their European Commission funded research on the changing European classroom The second part presents case study articles by practitioners from nine countries which have significant regional or immigrant mother tongue populations These include Welsh in Wales Catalan and Galician in Spain Turkish and Greek in Germany Arabic and Corsican in France and Belorussian in Poland as well as critical accounts of the main first language situation in England Denmark France Germany Poland post Soviet Russia and Spain The concluding part of the book looks at language awareness as a possible approach to linguistic diversity It examines the preparation of teachers at all levels as experienced by the editors through their involvement in an international language study group based in Calgary Cambridge Mainz and Bialystock Teaching the Mother Tongue in a Multilingual Europe is packed with original information which will be of use to all teachers and educationalists concerned with language

Debates in Music Teaching Chris Philpott, Gary Spruce, 2012-07-26 Debates in Music Teaching encourages student and practising teachers to engage with contemporary issues and developments in music education It aims to introduce a critical approach to the central concepts and practices that have influenced major interventions and initiatives in music teaching and supports the development of new ways of looking at ideas around teaching and learning in music. Accessible and comprehensive chapters will stimulate thinking and creativity in relation to theory and practice and will facilitate readers in reaching their own informed judgements and rationalising their position with deep theoretical knowledge and understanding. Throughout the book international experts in the field consider key issues including the justification for music in the school curriculum, partnerships in music education and the identity of the music teacher, technology and conceptions of musicianship, social justice and music education, the place of diverse musical genres and traditions in the music curriculum, critical thinking and music education, autonomy and integrity for music in cross curricular work, the politics, sociology and philosophy of music education. Debates in Music Teaching is for all student and practising teachers interested in furthering their understanding of the subject. Including carefully annotated further reading and reflective questions to help shape research and writing, this collection stimulates critical and creative thinking in relation to contemporary debates within music education.

Handbook of Research on Efficacy and Implementation of Study Abroad Programs for P-12 Teachers An, Heejung, 2016-11-17. Study abroad programs offer a unique opportunity for students to immerse themselves within different cultural backgrounds as they continue to further their education. By experiencing this first hand in service and pre service educators are better prepared to address diversity issues within their classrooms. The Handbook of Research on Efficacy and Implementation of Study Abroad Programs for P 12 Teachers highlights program developments geared towards pre service and in service teachers. Featuring the pedagogical opportunities available to participants and the challenges encountered during the development and implementation of study abroad programs, this publication is a critical reference source for pre service and in service teachers, school administrators, higher education faculty, educational researchers and educators in multicultural and international education programs.
