Economic Crises In World Agriculture:

Economic Crisis and Third World Agriculture Ajit Singh, Hamid Tabatabai, 1993-10-21 Examines the effects of world economic crisis on agrarian development at a regional and global level Economic Crises in World Agriculture Theodore William Schultz, 1966 International Financial Crises and Agriculture, 2000 What the 2008/2009 World Economic Crisis Means for Global Agricultural Trade Mary Peters, 2010-02 The global economic crisis that started in late 2008 has led to a sharp curtailment of international trade including a short term decline in the value of global agricultural ag trade of around 20% Global ag trade after slowing will continue to grow in the future Economic growth prospects of emerging and developing countries will be important in determining composition of trade toward increased high value products The crisis is leading to a realignment of exchange rates and the ultimate resolution of the crisis will depend on adjustments in the exchange value of the U S dollar The U S ag sector would benefit from a depreciating dollar which results in high export earnings high ag commodity prices increased production and increased farm income Illus The Food and Financial Crises in Sub-Saharan Africa Muna Ndulo, 2011 Dramatic increases in food prices as witnessed on a global scale in recent years threaten the food security of hundreds of millions of the rural poor in Sub Saharan Africa alone This book focuses on recent food and financial crises as they have affected Africa illustrating the problems using country case studies that cover their origins effects on agriculture and rural poverty their underlying factors and making recommendations as to how such crises could best be addressed in the future Foreign Agricultural Economic Report, 1961 The World Bank Group and the Global Food Crisis The World Bank, 2014-04-24 The unanticipated spike in international food prices in 2007 08 hit many developing countries hard This evaluation assesses the effectiveness of the World Bank Group response in addressing the short term impacts of the food price crisis and in enhancing the resilience of countries to future shocks The Age of Global Economic Crises Juan Manuel Matés-Barco, María Vázquez-Fariñas, 2023-06-02 The frequency and repetition of economic crises over the last hundred years demands an analysis that allows us to discover the root causes of these situations and the problems they have generated in the world economy This book investigates these cycles throughout the 20th and the early 21st century Economic crises can be the result of political or military conflict but they have also been the consequence of bad practices unbridled speculation excessive greed or poor management by the rulers and leaders of nations The contributors to this volume analyse the causes and consequences of economic crises from the Great Depression to the present day incorporating post World War II reconstruction the oil crisis of the 1970s and the lost Latin American decade of the 1980s among others This longer term view allows the book to provide insights into understanding economic cycles in the long run not just at a specific moment in time and the ways in which they have spread internationally This historical analysis also helps to shed new light on the current Covid impacted situation as it provides another reading of the main crises of recent centuries and their causes and consequences as well as the measures and policies adopted to overcome the difficulties This book will be of significant interest to readers in economic history business history politics and economics and history more broadly

Global Crises and Social Movements Edmund Burke, 2019-03-06 Traditionally scholars have traced the origins and characteristics of social movements to purely local and national determinants Until recently the global dimension of such movements has been relatively neglected This book takes the innovative step of linking social movements to international political and economic crises identifying the general features of industrial and developing societies that predispose them toward social movements of particular kinds The book consists of three parts views the origins of the European working class collective movement of 1848 from a variety of perspectives reexamines the debate on the moral economy of the peasant in terms of peasant nonrevolt and global political economy considers the emergence of fascist and populist movements in Western Europe and East Asia in their intersocietal dimensions Each of the cases has been selected for its strategic contribution to an understanding of the occurrence of social movements in relation to large scale societal crises Collectively the essays underscore the methodological utility of situating such movements in a global context

Transregional Connections in the History of East-Central Europe Katja Castryck-Naumann, 2021-10-25 Transregional connections play a fundamental role in the history of East Central Europe This volume explores this connectivity by showing how people from eastern and central parts of Europe have positioned themselves within global processes while in turn also shaping them The contributions examine different fields of action such as economy arts international regulations and law development aid and migration focusing on the period between the middle of the nineteenth century and the end of the Cold War The authors uncover spaces of interaction and emphasize that internal and external entanglements have established East Central Europe as a distinct region Understanding the connectedness of this subregion is stimulating for the historiography of East Central Europe as it is for the field of global history
