Economic Adjustment in New Democracies D. Ethier, 1997-05-29 The politics of economic adjustment in new democracies has received a lot of attention However none of the most recent examinations provide a thorough comparative analysis of Southern Europe Ethier s book fills this gap The book challenges many existing preconceptions about Southern Europe while confirming and complementing the main assertions of comparable studies on Eastern Europe Latin America Asia and Africa Economic Adjustment in New Democracies Diane Ethier, 1997

Constructing Democracy in Southern Europe Lauren M. McLaren, 2008-04-08 Why are some regimes democratic while others are not Specifically how have Spain and Italy managed to become democratic while Turkey which shares many similar characteristics has not Spain Italy and Turkey have shared common historical features which would have been disruptive to any new democracy however they represent a wide array of democratization experiences Providing a comparative case study analysis this book offers some clues as to the reasons for successful transitions to democracy This is done through a range of variables which include the degree of stateness problems learning from previous experiences with democracy and authoritarianism economic development the procedures used for designing the new rules of the regime the existence or absence of civil society and the connection between society and political institutions the democratic rules themselves the professionalization of the military the influence of external factors on democratic consolidation By examining these variables across the three countries Lauren McLaren narrows the range of possible explanations for differences in democratic consolidation The book will be of particular interest to students and researchers of European Politics and Democratization Studies

Underhill, 2016-07-27 Written in the context of contemporary theoretical debate in international political economy this book overturns a number of myths about the political economy of trade in one of the oldest areas of industry In this way the author systematically links the changing characteristics of the trade regime to structural change and adjustment in global industry He argues that state policy processes international regimes and the industrial adjustment strategies of firms must be conceptualised as integrated processes of governance cutting across levels of analysis in the global political economy

Baaklini, Helen Desfosses, 2016-06-16 Since the 1980s and the collapse of communist military and race based regimes across the world the

Frank Bönker has done a masterful job This is probably the best book available on this important subject and its significance is not limited to studies of postcommunist societies It has important theoretical implications for everyone interested in the Political Economy of Policy Reform perspective within the field of comparative political economy John L Campbell Slavic Review Manipulating Hegemony R. Vickers,2000-02-17 Drawing on neo Gramscian theories of International Political Economy this book explores the impact of the Marshall Plan on labour and government in Britain Rather than the US imposing a politics of productivity on an unwilling government the centre right of the Labour Party used the Marshall Plan to achieve its own political ends Manipulating Hegemony shows how the government was able to marginalise the left to create a pattern of state labour politics that was to endure until the end of the 1970s Cooperating on Competition in

dominant discourse of neo liberalism which places NGOs and civil society at the forefront of democratization and development in Africa Based on nine months of field research in Uganda the study draws on evidence from the successfully liberalizing country and shows how NGO potential for democratization and development has been subverted by state directives structural and historical conditions as well as the internal limitations of NGOs Canadian-Caribbean Relations in Transition Jerry Haar,Anthony Bryan,1999-08-26 An up to date analysis and assessment of the evolving relationship between Canada and the Commonwealth Caribbean this volume focuses on three dynamic and important issues By presenting a current picture of the Canadian Caribbean relationship the book not only fills a void in academic contributions to the topic but serves as an invaluable reference guide for policy analysts non governmental representatives and public and private decision makers Social Forces in the Making of the New Europe Andreas Bieler,2001-06-26 The main argument of this book is that the revival of European integration in the mid 1980s and the emergence of a New Europe have to be analyzed against the background of globalization and the transnational restructuring of social forces since the early 1970s Foreign Direct Investment in Three regions of the South at 20th Century Susan M. McMillan,1999-03-15 Foreign direct investment is an important part of an increasingly global political economy This book explores the consequences of this investment in six countries in the Global South The country comparison chapters detail the political and economic situations of these countries and their policies and experiences with foreign direct investment One chapter examines the statistical patterns among foreign direct investment and its expected outcomes The analysis indicates that the effects of foreign direct
