Environmental Management in Practice: Vol 1 Paul Compton, Dimitri Devuyt, Luc Hens, Bhaskar Nath, 2013-01-11 Focuses on the instruments and tools currently available to the environmental manager A theoretical background to the instruments is given together with an overview of those instruments that are in common use today with particular attention to the physical economic legislative and communication instruments Institutional Economics and National Competitiveness Young Back Choi, 2011-07-29 This book offers a strong contribution to the growing field of institutional economics going beyond the question of why institutions matter and examines the ways in which different types of institutions are conducive to the enhancement of competitiveness and economic development Adopting a variety of approaches ranging from New Institutional Economics Public Choice Constitutional Political Economy and Austrian Economics to more traditional economic approaches contributors examine the important issues of interest to development economics This book asks whether democracy is a pre condition for economic development what the proper role of government is in the age of globalization and whether successful government led policies were the cause of South Korea's economic development As well as these key questions the book covers the issues of whether the government should rely on the market process to encourage economic development or must they interfere and by what criteria one can judge a proposal for policies for economic prosperity The book tries to make a contribution by introducing a variety of perspective some argue in favour of industrial policies while others argue for a lesser role for the government and a greater entrepreneurial freedom

Some question the wisdom of promoting democracy as a necessary condition for economic development while others argue that political liberalization is the basis of lasting competitive edge of an economy The book should be of great interest to students and researchers in need of a multi perspective collection covering several approaches to the issues of institutional economics and national competition

Routledge Handbook of the Contemporary Philippines Mark Thompson, Eric Vincent Batalla, 2018-02-19 The Philippines is a fascinating example of a poor country democracy where issues of economic development and poverty political participation and stability as well as ethnicity and migration are crucial The Routledge Handbook of the Contemporary Philippines provides a comprehensive overview of the current political economic social and cultural issues of the country The Handbook is divided into the following four sections concentrating on a different aspect of the Philippines domestic politics foreign relations economics and social policy cultures and movements In terms of domestic politics chapters discuss clientelism bossism dynasties pork barrel and corruption as well as institutions the presidency congress the judiciary the civil service political parties and civilian military relations The Philippines is confronted with many overseas challenges with the foreign relations section focused on the country's relationship with China Japan and the USA as well as assessing the impact of the Filipino diaspora community around the world Regarding economics and social policy authors examine industrial policy capital flight microfinance technocracy economic nationalism poverty social welfare programs and livelihoods The final section on Philippine cultures and movements highlights issues of customs gender religion and nationalism while also examining various social and political forces the peasantry the middle class indigenous peoples NGOs the left trade unionism the women's movement and major insurgencies Written by leading experts in the field the Handbook provides students scholars and policymakers of Southeast Asia with an interdisciplinary resource on the evolving politics society and economics of the Philippines

Latecomer Development Banji Oyelaran-Oyeyinka, Padmashree Gehl Sampath, 2009-12-16 The most important issue for development centres on the debate about the centrality of knowledge technology and innovation to the process of economic development While this much is broadly agreed what is at issue is the precise mechanics of overcoming economic development challenges in different contexts At the heart of it all is about how economies at different levels deploy the unending streams of information and knowledge to developmental ends In time the notion of income convergence between the poorer South and the wealthy North has proved a mirage while a new economic divide has in fact occurred within the South itself and as well between regions and within regions The debate relating to latecomers is thus framed in discussions about regions and countries that arrive late to mastering industrialization in achieving economic prosperity through the use of knowledge In other words a new divide has emerged among the latecomers themselves and with it greater conceptual complexity in the ways of our understanding of the divergent ways of economic development We have thus separated fast followers and new late comers This book enters this debate acutely aware of the complexity of this process The authors argue that economic development is largely driven by innovation concentrating on the dynamics of process product and organizational changes and how they are embedded within specific and varied contextual institutions

Korea, Transition to Maturity Danny M. Leipziger, 1988 Korea's remarkable industrial progress has been virtually unparalleled in the developing world Through painstaking effort and prudent management the economy has been transformed from that of a poor agricultural society to a major economic power in Asia In the process standards of living have increased dramatically however with democratization have come even higher economic expectations Korea now stands poised to shortly join the ranks of the developed nations on the basis of its export success but it must also meet the new demands of its people This volume cuts across a broad spectrum of issues and highlights some of the remaining challenges to Korea's development By including scholars from Korea as well U S academics and experts who deal directly with Korean economic policy the book brings to bear a judicious blend of views on the hurdles to be overcome by Korean policy makers in this final and arguably most difficult step in Korea's transition to maturity

Is Ghana making progress in agro-processing? Andam, Kwaw, Al-Hassan, Ramatu M., Asante, Seth Boamah, Diao, Xinshen, 2015-12-25 One likely outcome of Ghana's rising household incomes and increasing urbanization is a higher demand for processed foods The question remains whether this expected higher demand will generate opportunities for growth in domestic agro processing This study assesses the performance of the agro processing sector in Ghana through an inventory of processed and packaged food items in retail shops around Accra The inventory shows 1 The agro processing subsector offers opportunities for domestic firms with Ghanaian brands accounting for 27 percent of the items identified 2 In addition to forming nearly a third of products identified locally processed products have penetrated diverse market segments with sales across a variety of retail outlets 3 Regional imports of processed and packaged food items are low Excluding South African brands which accounted for 7 8 percent of imports only 4 3 percent of the items were imported from other African countries 4 Domestic agro processors provided the highest share of products among processed starches and cereals while imports dominate processed dairy fruits vegetables and meat products
