Economics and Gender Flavia Marco, 2002 This Bibliography is intended to facilitate the exchange and dissemination of information on gender and economics It contributes to the research and analysis of recent trends in globalization and economic liberalization changes in the roles performed by women and men and the development policies adopted The subjects addressed in the Bibliography are the effects of global and national economic processes on the traditional roles carried out by men and women the impact of gender stereotypes on their economic opportunities international trade with an emphasis on the opportunities and restrictions it entails upon women liberalization of the financial market financial crises and their effects on the population The Political Economy of Gender in the Twentieth-Century Caribbean V.

Barriteau, 2001-05-18 Eudine Barriteau exposes the precarious position of women in twentieth century Caribbean societies through analyzing the operations of gender systems She reveals the absence of gender justice and equity and demonstrates that after twenty five years of policies on women Caribbean societies still have not confronted the fundamental problem of women's subordination and the conditions that maintain this The strategies used by developing states to focus on women are criticised as inadequate and it is recommended that state and society pay more attention to understanding the lives of women

The International Handbook of Gender and Poverty Sylvia H.
