Economic Transition In Guinea Implications For Growth And Poverty:

Economic transition in Guinea ,1997 Economic Transition in Guinea David E. Sahn,1996-11-01 In recent years the Republic of Guinea has shed its reputation as one of the most tightly controlled state economies in Africa leaving behind a cloistered era marked by an extraordinarily closed economic and political system In breaking with its dismal past Guinea has launched an ambitious program of reform which has affected the entire range of the country s institutions regulations and markets Culling data from the World Bank the International Monetary Fund the United Nations and numerous interviews and previously unpublished government data Jehan Arulpragasam and David E Sahn here present an overview of the Guinean economy and its evolution from independence through crisis to reform and model implications of these changes for economic performance and living standards of the poor Highlighting the chasm between theory and practice between well intentioned program and problematic implementation the authors reveal how Guinea both parallels and contradicts past experiences of economic reform in Africa Most notably reform in Guinea has been hindered by the weighty administrative managerial and logistical demands of undertaking a vast battery of economic adjustments all in one fell swoop The most detailed and informative study of the Guinean economy to date Economic Transition in Guinea illustrates not only the successes of the nation s reform agenda but also the fundamental constraints to development that often lie beyond the reach of such reform

The Politics and Policies of Sub-Saharan Africa Robert A. Dibie,2001 This book attempts to correct the impression created by Western media that Sub Saharan Africa is in a state of anarchy The text analyzes and shows that while many Sub Saharan African nations are experiencing the worst time of their history others are enjoying their best times Thus the text argues that although some parts of Africa are experiencing crisis the continent is also a fine region of major new experiments in governance peace building and free market transformation programs Finally the text focuses some of its analyses on the colonial legacy economic and ethnic transformation indigenous institutions and other forces that seem to influence the governance of Sub Saharan African nations

Thirsting for Efficiency Mary M. Shirley,2002 By analyzing water supply reforms in six developing country s capitals this text provides a legal economic and political examination of countries tolerant of mismanagement of their water and sewerage systems for decades that suddenly develop a thirst for efficiency

Africa South of the Sahara 2004 Europa Publications,2003 A definitive one volume guide to all sub Saharan African countries providing invaluable economic and directory data

Annual Report CODESRIA and UNDP Civil Society Empowerment Programme,2000 Papua New Guinea: Critical Development Constraints Asian Development Bank,2012-04-01 Papua New Guinea s economic growth has outpaced the majority of economies in Southeast Asia and the Pacific since 2007 Its development challenges however remain daunting and it lags behind other countries in the region in terms of per capita income and achievement of the Millennium Development Goals This raises the question of how the country can make its economic growth high sustained inclusive and broad based to more effectively improve its population s welfare This report identifies the critical constraints to these objectives and discusses policy options to help overcome such constraints

Improving agricultural productivity in Papua New Guinea: Strategic and policy considerations Benny, Dickson, Benson, Todd, Ivekolia, Mark, Kedir, Jamal, Mekamu, Ovah, Raywin, 2022-02-10 If smallholder farming households in Papua New Guinea achieve higher crop productivity levels progress will be made along several dimensions of the development vision for PNG increasing GDP for the agricultural sector and the overall economy driving growth diversification and transformation of local rural economies improving food consumption and reducing poverty In this paper we examine recent data on yields for the most important crops grown in PNG assess what yields might be achieved based on productivity data from areas of Indonesia with similar growing conditions and sketch where policy reforms could provide incentives and access to technologies to achieve higher crop yields by all farmers across PNG

Reproductive Health, Economic Growth and Poverty Reduction in Africa Olu Ajakaiye, Germano Mwabu, 2010-12-29 This volume contains framework papers prepared for a collaborative research project on Reproductive Health Economic Growth and Poverty Reduction in Africa an initiative of the African Economic Research Consortium AERC Taken together the chapters in this book make a compelling argument that improvement in reproductive health is key to raising household incomes and to reducing poverty the books reveals that the triple phenomena of better reproductive health economic growth and declining poverty are likely to be found in an environment in which labour and product markets function Further a macroeconomic framework that encourages domestic and foreign investments and promotes social protection for current and future generations is essential

Development Policies and Policy Processes in Africa Christian Henning, Ousmane Badiane, Eva Krampe, 2017-10-05 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license The book examines the methodological challenges in analyzing the effectiveness of development policies It presents a selection of tools and methodologies that can help tackle the complexities of which policies work best and why and how they can be implemented effectively given the political and economic framework conditions of a country The contributions in this book offer a continuation of the ongoing evidence based debate on the role of agriculture and participatory policy processes in reducing poverty They develop and apply quantitative political economy approaches by integrating quantitative models of political decision making into existing economic modeling tools allowing a more comprehensive growth poverty analysis The book addresses not only scholars who use quantitative policy modeling and evaluation techniques in their empirical or theoretical research but also technical experts including policy makers and analysts from stakeholder organizations involved in formulating and implementing policies to reduce poverty and to increase economic and social well being in African countries

Reforming Trade Policy in Papua New Guinea and the Pacific Islands Kym Anderson, Malcolm Bosworth, 2009 The countries of the South Pacific have struggled to generate sustainable economic growth since their independence Interventionist policies have failed in the past here as they have in all other regions Business and government leaders in this region are now beginning to acknowledge

as has happened in many other developing country regions over the past two decades that major reforms are needed to put their economies onto a higher growth path This study examines the growth record of key Pacific island economies and identifies the reasons for their relatively poor performance It then looks at the process of globalization that is affecting those and indeed all economies increasingly and the role the WTO has played in that process

Governance and Crisis in the State in Africa John Emeka Akude, 2009 Governance and Crisis of the State in Africa explores the problems and challenges of disruptive conflicts and conflict management in West Africa Based on a robust analysis of a large stock of theoretical and empirical studies on the nature of the state in Africa and the incidents of state failure fragmentation and collapse the author argues that a major explanation of state weakness in Africa is the lack of the imperatives of good governance itself rooted in the trajectory of the emergence of these states Using the recent internal wars and ongoing conflicts in some West African states such as Liberia Sierra Leone Guinea Guinea Bissau and Cote d'Ivoire as case studies the author explains how the use of inappropriate methods of conflict management exacerbates these conflicts and the crisis of the nation state in Africa

_____ John Emeka Akude holds a PhD in political science from the University of Cologne Germany where he teaches African Politics Politics of Development and International Political Economy His research interests include political economy the state and economic development conflict studies state collapse and war economies as well as the transformation of political order His publications include Krisen und Krisenmanagement in Afrika Zwischen Wunschen und Ohnmacht Der Anspruch der Afrikanischen Union auf Konfliktmanagement in Afrika Bad Governance and State Collapse in Africa as well as Weak States and Security Threats in West Africa He is a member of the Working Group on the Transformation of Political Order at the Chair of International Relations University of Cologne Germany

Growth and Economic Development P. Arestis, A. P. Thirlwall, 2007-01-01 this volume is a very good and important addition to economic growth and development On the basis of authority the selection is well balanced This book should be a mandatory textbook for graduate students in development economics and essential reading for all policy makers Voxi Heinrich Amavilah Progress in Development Studies This valuable and engaging new book bears eloquent testimony to A P Thirlwall's substantial contribution to economics over the last 40 years The volume does not attempt to provide a comprehensive review of such a prolific figure but rather demonstrates the considerable influence that his work on economic theory has had on his contemporaries and the profession as a whole From his early pioneering research in regional and labour economics to his more recent exploration of growth and development economics leading experts in the field bear witness to the significant role he has played in the evolution of the discipline In addressing some of the most pivotal aspects of his career the contributors cover a range of topics including Thirlwall's Law the application of Keynesian macroeconomic approaches the General Theory within open economies the connection between short run cycles and long run growth endogenous growth theory the Stability and Growth Pact as well as broader development issues and problems In championing Thirlwall's challenging work this volume provides a lively and comprehensive account of some of the most important areas of economics today This book will prove an essential read for academics and policy makers alike who are interested in trade growth and development economics Success, Participation and Development Mark Anthony Hamilton,2007 Inequalities in Sub-Saharan Africa Anda David,Murray Leibbrandt,Vimal Ranchhod,Rawane Yasser,2025-03-25 The growing disparity between the rich and poor remains a critical challenge affecting countries across all continents irrespective of their per capita gross domestic product This widening gap not only impedes efforts to eradicate extreme poverty but also hinders progress toward social justice and resilience building Rising inequalities pose substantial barriers to sustainable development and it is within this context that this book Inequalities in Sub Saharan Africa Multidimensional Perspectives and Future Challenges contributes to ongoing debates offering a comprehensive analysis of the current challenges and future perspectives of inequality on the African continent Despite the intensification of calls for wealth taxation and inequality reduction progress has been slow A key challenge lies in creating a viable political path for implementing progressive taxation policies Resistance from those benefiting from the current system often stalls efforts making progress difficult Moreover reducing inequality requires not only ex post redistribution but also pre distribution mechanisms that address inequality at its roots Policies targeting education competition financial market regulation and industrial development all hold the potential to create equitable economic opportunities ensuring access to credit job creation and more balanced economic growth Despite facing unique profound challenges Africa is often overlooked in these global discussions This book seeks to place the continent s issues of income inequality unequal access to education and health care climate vulnerability and inclusive growth at the center of the conversation The book further advocates for innovative policies including competition reforms and bargaining frameworks that shift the balance between capital and labor Given that inequality in Africa is deeply rooted in historical economic and institutional factors a stronger focus on pre distribution policies is necessary These systemic changes can help reshape the conditions under which inequality emerges and persists In addition to policy reforms it is vital to strengthen the research and academic infrastructure that underpins the understanding of inequality Equity concerns must be addressed within the scientific field and African research capabilities must be bolstered This volume written in collaboration with the African Center of Excellence for Inequality Research calls for a greater focus on empowering African researchers as part of a broader development strategy By doing so it aligns with the World Bank s and the Agence Fran aise de D veloppement s commitment to supporting research as a critical tool for sustainable development Impact Evaluation of Transport Interventions David A. Raitzer,Nina Blöndal,Jasmin Sibal,2019-04-01 This publication aims to support impact evaluation in the transport sector by assessing what has been produced against what might be possible It reviews 91 impact evaluations of transport interventions in developing countries summarizes findings on outcomes identifies evidence gaps and proposes ways forward Most of the studies reviewed find significant effects on at least one of the outcomes investigated However impact evaluation has given relatively little coverage to major areas of investment such as urban and sustainable transportation transport corridors and efficiency enhancing measures New methods and increasing openness of geospatial data provide scope to generate more innovative impact studies Introduction to Guinea-Bissau Gilad James, PhD, Guinea Bissau is a small country in West Africa bordered by Senegal to the north and Guinea to the south and east It has a population of around 1 8 million people with diverse ethnic groups including the Fulas Mandingos and Balantas The official language is Portuguese although many people also speak Creole and other local languages Guinea Bissau gained independence from Portugal in 1973 but has suffered political instability and economic struggles since then It is one of the world s poorest countries with low levels of education and healthcare and a reliance on agriculture for its economy The country has a rich cultural history with traditional music dance and art still an important part of the society and is also home to several endangered species including chimpanzees and African manatees Essentials of Development Economics, Third Edition Travis J.

Lybbert,J. Edward Taylor,2020-08-18 Written to provide students with the critical tools and approaches used by development economists Essentials of Development Economics represents an alternative approach to traditional textbooks on the subject Compact and less expensive than other textbooks for undergraduate development economics courses Essentials of Development Economics offers a broad overview of key topics and methods in the field Its fourteen easy to read chapters introduce cutting edge research and present best practices and state of the art methods By mastering the material in this time tested book students will have the conceptual grounding needed to move on to more advanced development economics courses This new edition includes updated references to international development policy process and goals substantial updates to several chapters with new and revised material to make the text both current and policy relevant replacement of several special features with new ones featuring widely cited studies APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service ,
