Sensible Ecstasy Amy Hollywood, 2010-01-15 Sensible Ecstasy investigates the attraction to excessive forms of mysticism among twentieth century French intellectuals and demonstrates the work that the figure of the mystic does for these thinkers With special attention to Georges Bataille Simone de Beauvoir Jacques Lacan and Luce Irigaray Amy Hollywood asks why resolutely secular even anti Christian intellectuals are drawn to affective bodily and widely denigrated forms of mysticism What is particular to these thinkers Hollywood reveals is their attention to forms of mysticism associated with women They regard mystics such as Angela of Foligno Hadewijch and Teresa of Avila not as emotionally excessive or escapist but as unique in their ability to think outside of the restrictive oppositions that continue to afflict our understanding of subjectivity the body and sexual difference Mystics such as these like their twentieth century descendants bridge the gaps between action and contemplation emotion and reason and body and soul offering new ways of thinking about language and the limits of representation

Guignon, 2006-07-10 Martin Heidegger is now widely recognized as one of the greatest philosophers of the twentieth century He transformed mainstream philosophy by defining its central task as asking the question of being His thought has contributed to the turn to hermeneutics and to postmodernism and poststructuralism Moreover the disclosure of his deep involvement in Nazism has provoked much debate about the relation of philosophy to politics This edition brings to the fore other works as well as alternative approaches to scholarship The essays cover topics such as Heidegger's conception of phenomenology his relation to Kant and Husserl his account of truth and his stand on the realism anti realism debate This edition includes a new preface by the editor revised versions of several essays from the first edition and an exhaustive bibliography providing guidance for both newcomers to Heidegger's work and established scholars Odysseys of Recognition Ellwood Wiggins, 2019-02-15 Literary recognition is a technical term for a climactic plot device Odysseys of Recognition claims that interpersonal recognition is constituted by performance and brings performance theory into dialogue with poetics politics and philosophy By observing Odysseus figures from Homer to Kleist Ellwood Wiggins offers an alternative to conventional intellectual histories that situate the invention of the interior self in modernity Through strategic readings of Aristotle this elegantly written innovative study recovers an understanding of interpersonal recognition that has become strange and counterintuitive Penelope in Homer's Odyssey offers a model for agency in ethical knowledge that has a lot to teach us today Early modern and eighteenth century characters meanwhile discover themselves not deep within an impenetrable self but in the interpersonal space between people in the world Recognition Wiggins contends is the moment in which epistemology and ethics coincide in which what we know becomes manifest in what we do Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press

Feminist Heidegger Jill Drouillard, 2025-03-01 This book begins with an unexplored and unanswered question that Martin Heidegger raises in a 1923 Freiburg course Problem What is woman Yet why should we care that Heidegger raises this problem What could he a member of the National Socialist Party help feminists understand about responding to the woman question How can Heidegger help us understand our own historical climate in which this question continues to hold significance Jill Drouillard divides Heidegger's thought into two categories to think about the sexed gendered experiences that coordinate our birth 1 the one that suspends the woman question and that provides useful resources for thinking the fluidity of sex gender and 2 the one that provides a totalized reply to this query by manipulating tropes of the feminine to advance a politico poetic project of Nazi politics She uses Heidegger as a cautionary tale to demonstrate the harm that occurs when society tries to define the being or what is of woman in any definite sense In some chapters she teases apart how Heidegger may have offered a reply to the woman question and in others shows what happens in today's society when law bioethics politics and pedagogy reckon with this query The Vegetative Soul Elaine Miller, 2002-08-01 Rethinks the soul in plant like terms rather than animal drawing from nineteenth century philosophy of nature French Feminists on Religion Morny Joy, Kathleen O'Grady, Judith L. free air This new phenomenological method of breathing offers readers a chance to begin to wonder rethink re experience and reimagine all questions of life in an innovative and creative way as aerial and respiratory questions of life Part of the Routledge Critical Perspectives on Breath and Breathing series the book breaks new ground in phenomenology and phenomenological ontology by offering a decisive and insightful treatment of breath It will be indispensable for students and researchers of philosophy phenomenology and ontology It will also be of special interest to Merleau Ponty scholars as it investigates uncharted dimensions of Merleau Ponty s philosophy Becoming Two in Love Roland J. De Vries,2013-07-25 This book draws Soren Kierkegaard and Luce Irigaray into conversation on the nature and ethics of sexual difference While these two initially seem like doubtful dialogue partners the conversation between them yields a rich and compelling account of intersubjectivity between man and woman an account that moves beyond the limited and tired debate over egalitarianism vs complementarianism Through engagement with Irigaray and Kierkegaard this book develops a constructive theological ethics of sexual difference that focuses on an epistemological and subjective gap that sets man and woman at a decisive distance from each other They are a mystery to each other Yet it is also an ethical framework that allows woman and man to encounter one another in ways that respect the independence subjectivity and becoming of each Above all this is a theological ethics of sexual difference that centers on Jesus Christ who is defined as the middle term in every relationship and whose love command defines the encounter between man and woman in difference
