Recovering from the Loss of a Sibling Katherine Fair Donnelly,2000-07-24 A book of hope and healing Recovering From the Loss of a Sibling is the first book for those who have experienced the death of a brother or sister It addresses the many questions fears and feelings of surviving siblings of all ages such as Will this soon happen to me It should have been me Why wasn t it God must have punished me for the time when I was so mean to my brother My sister was my parents favorite and I don't seem to count to them At work they have no idea what I'm going through They think I'm just a sibling All the focus is on my parents not my grief When a brother or sister dies surviving siblings may receive little support or even recognition of their pain Parents are so grief stricken at the loss of a child that they often find themselves unable to cope with the needs of their surviving children With family and friends concentrating on the parents tragedy the suffering of siblings often goes unnoticed These intimate true stories provide valuable insight demonstrating that the reader is not alone and that others have gone through this devastating experience and have survived In these pages sisters and brothers share their innermost feelings wanting others to gain comfort from their experiences The book also serves as a compassionate aid to friends co workers teachers family members and the helping professions Care of the Well Newborn BJ Snell, Sandra L Gardner, 2016-07-19 Care of the Well Newborn is a unique text that focuses on care of the term newborn for the first month of life Written by distinguished experts in the field it teaches students and professionals how and what to assess in the care of the non verbal newborn while also providing criteria for recognizing deviations from normal and strategies for managing complications that arise The first text of its kind it provides easily accessible information on evidence based neonatal care that follows current guidelines standards and recommendations Also explored are physiology and pathophysiology data collection differential diagnosis cultural considerations and parental education An ideal resource for both students and professionals each chapter includes multiple choice questions case studies and activities to facilitate critical thinking and learning Keys to Children's Nutrition Carolyn E. Moore, Robert J. Shulman, Mimi Kerr, 1991 This book helps parents become aware of how diet can affect children's health It discusses well balanced diets how to buy good foods and even how to eat healthfully in fast food restaurants The format of the book allows the reader to turn to relevant topics as needed The Crisis Manual for Early Childhood Teachers Karen Miller, 1996 This is the book that covers the really tough problems teachers face divorce death abuse AIDS violence illness and more Raising Our Children to Be Resilient Linda Goldman, 2005-06-29 In this timely and much needed book Linda Goldman addresses the many frightening events that impact our children by providing the reader with a seamless mixture of theory and practice garnered from her extensive experience in the field Raising Our Children to Be Resilient includes trauma resolution techniques and case studies discussions of the respective roles played by parents teachers and the larger community as well as additional resources for those in a position to help children who have been traumatized The goal of Raising Our Children to Be Resilient is exactly what its title promises to help children through their pain and confusion and guide them into a flexible and compassionate adulthood Keys to Preparing & Caring for Your Newborn William Sears, 1991 Authoritative advice from a medical doctor this book covers everything from the mother's pre natal care to nurturing an infant during those pivotal first months of life Dr Sears advises on bonding with a small baby as well as feeding bathing and generally caring for the infant He also describes normal infant traits and tells when expert medical help may be needed Keys to Child Safety and Care of Minor Injuries Robert J.

Vinci,1992 Here is a book filled with much more than the standard how to childproof the home advice Dr Vinci describes and advises on all aspects of injury and potential health hazards that children might encounter between infancy and adolescence A question and answer section is filled with quick find tips and first aid advice School Library Journal ,1991 over a half century revealing Whitman the person as no other documents can Volume I includes the poet's correspondence from Washington DC during the Civil War where he nursed wounded and dying soldiers In letters to his mother Whitman describes the suffering and sorrow he encountered in unsanitary hospitals He wrote to the parents of soldiers and offered hope or consolation at the loss of an unsung hero Soldiers who recovered and left the hospitals often wrote to Whitman and he replied with friendly advice and paternal solicitude As Whitman himself admitted rarely was his heart so engaged as in these hospital scenes and war letters which like his greatest poems reflect his characteristic themes love and death The

Lasting Picture Show James Combs, 2018-10-01 This work is the continuation of a sustained inquiry into moving pictures conducting with an awareness of their prominence and prevalence in the contemporary world A major indicator of the ubiquity of motion pictures is noticed by world travelers who see the traces of their universality with the satellites on nomadic yurts in Asia and TV sets in remote and poor African villages It is only now becoming realised that this mode of communication may well be the most pervasive and perhaps even the most important mass medium ever invented With that background in mind this book focuses on cinematic knowing as an expression of ludenic experience important as a major source of play learning in a world which is increasingly wired to the various forms of moving pictures It investigates how this way of seeing has expanded our visual acuity and experience including not only hindsight and foresight but also insight and indeed even blindsight It discusses the acquired abilities inherent in our cinematic understandability the extent and depth of knowing that is learned from our life long experience of exposure to motion pictures including forms other than the movies such as TV programming commercials and documentaries It proceeds on the assumption that the most influential of this universe of visual expression is the one with the most important background and cultural impact the motion picture show This ludenic center of popular fare involved the creation of a heterocosm a body of popular knowledge that accumulates and promulgates values and interests in visually identifiable formats becoming in the process a kind of cultural enthymeme enjoyed for its expressive ability to reach people and proved to be resilient and flexible in adapting to and addressing new circumstances The Evil Eye Frederick Thomas Elworthy, 1982-01-01 The Insurance Herald, 1889 The Golden Bough: pt. III. The dying god. 1911 James George Frazer, 1911
