Furnace Harbor A Rhapsody Of The North Country:

Furnace Harbor Philip D. Church,1988 The Tracks We Leave Barbara Helfgott Hyett,1996 Ordered according to moments in the life cycle birth juvenile behavior courtship mating feeding and hunting aging and death the poems depict mammals birds reptiles amphibians fishes molluscs crustaceans insects and arachnids Each is accompanied by an illustration of the animal in the wild and all recreate what is essentially fleeting the complex beauty of one of nature s creations

Theory of Devolution David Groff,2002 With blazing wit and a searing language David Groff writes fiercely of erosion and endurance in this stunning debut collection At turns fervent and elegiac dishy and sly these poems confront the effect of AIDS and HIV on a brotherhood that dealt firsthand with grief and loss and later the tenuous prospect of survival Peopled with the spirits of dead gay men uncertain lovers mortal parents and spectral friends and brothers Groff s poems are unified by their preoccupation with what erodes us and what we can hold onto when life and love devolve Theory of Devolution is a book of balances alternately passionate and restrained headlong and meditative engaged and knowingly detached David Groff s territory is Chelsea and Fire Island at the end of a nightmare crisis but nowhere near the end of an epidemic How in such times to speak These pages give voice to an always dying particular man examining the evidence of loss and pleasure and the deep bonds of affection in poems alive with an odd crabbed pulse of beauty they refine to true detail Mark Doty David Groff s poems open our attention by a subtle unflinching love of human being The live known past spins sharp and fine in and out of the now of his vision His language exhilarates Marie Ponsot To Us, All Flowers are Roses Lorna Goodison,1995 A collection of poems focusing on the culture and people of the Caribbean Filò Per Il Casanova Di Fellini Andrea Zanzotto,1997 The main body of this volume is a unique film poem that grew out of Zanzotto s collaboration with Federico Fellini on the film Casanova The poem s beauty is enhanced by its presentation in the original Veneto dialect along with contemporary Italian and English With reference to Finnegans Wake and utilizing Fellini inspired myth the trilingual play of the poetry is rich in layers rich in meanings Including drawings by Fellini and illustrations by Murer this volume also contains poems dedicated to Montzale Pasolini and Charlie Chaplin and the first English translation of Zanzotto s poem on the tragedy of Bosnia all together in an unusual and beautiful format So Often the Pitcher Goes to Water Until it Breaks Rigoberto González,1999 An astonishing new talent Rigoberto Gonz lez writes with a clarity of the senses that pulls the reader into a marvelous and unfamiliar world The sidewalk preacher the umbrella salesman the nurse on the graveyard shift the professional mourner all allow Gonz lez a clandestine glimpse of their lives Crackling with the dry electricity of the desert and flashing with the brilliant colors of Mexico Gonz lez s poems are rooted in the fertile soil beneath poverty s dust the border s violence and longing s desolation Visiting Picasso Jim Barnes,2010-10-01 Jim Barnes s familiarity with the European poetic traditions has been deepened through long periods spent in France Germany and Italy and through his translations of European poetry In Visiting Picasso he repays Europe for its gifts to him in a series of poems that evoke the lush poetic history that ties European culture together sometimes darkly A heightened sense of place and purpose infuses the poems of Visiting Picasso with meaning drawn from actual landscapes events and observations Arts of a Cold Sun G. E. Murray,2010-10-01 In these poems G E Murray blends the colors of the soul with those of the world it brushes up against exploring the ways in which art both as possession and possessor informs perception Viewing his subjects sometimes from airplane altitude sometimes from the intimacy of a shared restaurant table Murray crafts true stories about color narratives of dislocation and belonging that invite readers to question their own relationship to art Included in this volume is a long sequential poem titled The Seconds which Murray composed across the second days of thirteen months The rhythms of this diary as poem seize the tensions of shifting times and locales capturing the essences of moments that are at once chosen and arbitrary Codes toward an Incidental City the sequence that closes the book is a confederacy of forty poems that delve into the concrete familiarities and mythologies of urban landscapes illuminating the ecstasies of city life Creole Echoes M. Lynn Weiss,2004 Creole poets have always eluded easy definition infusing European poetic forms with Louisiana themes and Native American and African influences to produce an impressive variety of highly accomplished verses The first major collection of its kind Creole Echoes contains over a hundred of these poems by more than thirty different poets presented by M Lynn Weiss in their original French alongside new English translations by Norman R Shapiro The poems gathered here were all composed in French by Louisiana residents of European African and Caribbean origin Their themes range from love and history to nightmare and childhood recollection In these pages somber elegies meet whimsical surprises and rhyming animal fables meet political panegyrics Lost Wax Heather Ramsdell,1998 Experiential and analytic the work of Heather Ramsdell is perceptually acute and sensually resonant The poems in Heather Ramsdell s book LOST WAX map a metaphysical treasure hunt here a stick there a door a closet a shirt As the book unfolds the accretion of their ascetic values forms an evermore human shape in a symphony of poems that is original and profoundly full of wonder James Tate A Map of the Night David Wagoner,2010-10-01 David Wagoner s wide ranging poetry buzzes and swells with life Woods streams and fields fascinate him he happily admits his devotion to Thoreau but so do people and their habits dear friends and family the odd poet and strangers who become even stranger when looked at closely In this new collection Wagoner catches the mixed feelings of a long drive the sensations of walking against a current the difficulty of writing poetry with noisily amorous neighbors and many more uniquely familiar experiences Good Morning and Good Night David Wagoner,2010-10-01 By continually discovering what s new in each day without forgetting yesterday s surprises David Wagoner has succeeded in constantly expanding his range in a career that spans more than fifty years In Good Morning and Good Night this range includes his usual rich forays into nature and personalities and poetry for all ages young and old amidst a vivid array of memories and explorations Readers will find homages to the poets that have inspired him as well as the bountiful lyricism that has made Wagoner s poetry one of our most enduring sources of delight and joy Good Morning and Good Night features

poems previously published in American Poetry Review The American Scholar Atlantic Monthly Hudson Review The Kenyon Review New Letters The New Republic Poetry Shenandoah Southern Review The Yale Review and other leading literary journals

The Sawdust War Jim Barnes,1992 Few poets in America today can write as solemnly and truthfully as Jim Barnes about the heritage of America a heritage as wide as the continent itself Jim Barnes s aesthetic is vivid throughout these poems A high sense of loss pervades the book but Barnes s strong willed persona never regrets what has passed Instead the persona gains strength from it What has come to be his signature in four earlier books of poetry and remains his mark in The Sawdust War is essentially where his art lies a strong sense of loss of redemption coming out of loss of place both geographical and spiritual

Points of Departure Miller Williams,1995 One of our very finest poets in full stride Harvard Review on Adjusting to the Light A 1995 recipient of the Academy Award in Literature of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Miller Williams is one of America s best known and loved poets He also has won the prestigious Poets Prize the Amy Lowell Award in Poetry presented by Harvard University the Prix de Rome for Literature from the American Academy of Arts and Letters and many others Williams s newest collection is built of the idiom of ordinary speech Mostly narrative and dramatic these indelible poems are populated by individuals who go about their lives much as all of us do in fear of pain and loneliness in hope of something like love The breath of Williams s talent gives them life his honesty and precision make them unforgettable

Renunciation Corey Marks,2000 Renunciation introduces a powerful new poet whose work though it treads the ground of silence and loss bears a redemptive grace Disquieting and healing Corey Marks s poems hold to a moment when possibility bristles so close it holds a shape in the air The sculptor Gislebertus Doubting Thomas Theseus and John Keats share space in the pages of Renunciation with a survivor of the bomb in Hiroshima a blind girl in the South American jungle and DeSoto s thirteen swine in the hold of a ship bound for America Rich with almost palpable nuances of light and sound Marks s lyric meditations unravel a constant play of loss and continuation mending sense from spare threads and hovering over connections undone even as they are made

New and Selected Poems, 1962-92 Laurence Lieberman,1993 A super abundant rollicksome delight Lieberman s voice surges through everywhere triumphantly inimitably his own His passion for observation driven by minute particulars like a mighty engine working magnificently through its many intricate nuts and bolts amounts to the most to be treasured virtue in poetry an observation of passion

Theodore Weiss

Pursuit of a Wound Sydney Lea,2000 Co winner of the prestigious Poets Prize for his collection To the Bone Sydney Lea is known for his mastery of the narrative style and his clear and unwavering vision of the natural world and humanity s place in it His latest work Pursuit of a Wound is marked by this acuity and by his uncanny ear for language as well as his willingness to speak for the unlucky and the dispossessed Delving in equal measure into the flinty northern New England landscape and the exiled souls of ordinary people Pursuit of a Wound moves beyond Lea s previous work to explore new poetic strategies including some that approach prose poetry Combining a free ranging sensibility akin to Whitman s with a keen attention to verse's formal possibilities this collection of twenty eight new poems evokes a beautiful and threatened place and ratifies Leas status as heir apparent to Robert Frost The Ways We Touch Miller Williams,1997 The poems in The Ways We Touch Miller Williams's twelfth volume of poetry range from reminiscences of old love to meditations on the relationship between God and human beings to reflections on English poetry and children's stories Throughout Williams's poems use small scenes from daily life drawing from them ruminations about life itself They may be nostalgic or challenging humorous or full of moral fortitude always Williams speaks with the kind of insight that rises from wisdom and experience

Floating on Solitude Dave Smith,1996 Forging through this voluminous collection is akin to visiting at length with a charismatic if highly disturbed relative Generally the poems start out presenting facades of well mannered normalcy e g brief narratives or odes to nature and the sea but then something shifts and goes terribly right A sentence turns odd and powerful a quiet streak of insanity emerges a young girl leaves her scent upon a young boy's body Sometimes a poem pops up that is dangerous from start to finish such as The Suicide Eaters or Drunks about a reading at a V A hospital for recovering addicts and alcoholics Smith is highly conscious of word choice He tinkers with grammar and rhythm just enough to be utterly engaging leaving the reader exhausted after the visit but wiser for the effort Publishers weekly Counting the Black Angels Len Roberts,1994 Len Roberts is a poet of unwavering truthfulness and unwavering mercy commented Sharon Olds about Black Wings a 1988 National Poetry Series selection Counting the Black Angels Roberts's eighth book of poetry is a piercingly painful and redemptive work in which he probes memories of a violent family history and his covenants with God and the Black Angels Roberts's new work is among the most intelligent moving and expressive poetry now being written Hayden Carruth
