Us & Them: Women Writers' Discourses on Foreignness Manuela Palacios,2023-04-20 The book Us Them Women Writers Discourses on Foreignness analyses the contingent nature of the constructions of foreignness in Ireland and Galicia On the basis of various comparable circumstances in both communities migration flows increasingly multicultural societies constant renegotiations of national identity and the growing visibility of women in the public sphere this book traces the multiple ways in which gender is intertwined with foreignness Focusing on literary works published since the 1980s the author presents contemporary women writers new insights into cultural difference      Ex-sistere María Jesús Lorenzo-Modia,2016-02-08 This collection of critical essays addresses literary discourses on the mobility of women writers in various Atlantic regions of Europe These literary systems Ireland Galicia and Wales experienced a rebirth in the second half of the twentieth century through their respective modern cultural artefacts and the first decades of the present century have seen new research exploring emergent literatures in Europe new European identities on the move and even the dialogue between the various cultures of the Atlantic archipelago This book centres on women writers and how they deal in their work with the issue of mobility Authors and critics have tended to analyse travel by focusing on the transgression of patriarchal models of Western societies by white middle class women these previously being mainly restricted to the private sphere as well as on postcolonial issues with ethno and Euro centric slants Notions of the construction of otherness are at stake here in that even white women may be considered as belonging to a different ethnic group when they are migrants thus showing how vulnerable and dependent women can be when isolated in a different environment The narrative of history as progress may also be challenged in the twenty first century by visions of nomadic women at risk of being displaced both in their homeland and abroad More Thoughts of Chairman Moore Brian Moore, 2011-11-10 Pitbull is back and angrier than ever with another collection of hilariously well observed and rambunctiously argued grievances about the mad world of sport and beyond Following the success of The Thoughts of Chairman Moore Volume I you might have hoped that sport's powers that be would have sat up and taken notice of its many faults and flaws But alas no lunacy prevails and so Brian has taken it upon himself to put forward another collection of his unique insights and not so unique frustrations Uproariously funny and spot on in its every complaint Volume II is required reading for anyone who can't live without sport but who also can't help but wonder at its unbridled idiocy Modernism - Dada - Postmodernism Richard Sheppard, 2000

Modernism Dada Postmodernism collects updates integrates and contextualizes the critic Richard Sheppard's essays on the historical avant garde Sheppard's topic in all of these essays is the modernist writers artists and philosophers linguistic and visual responses to a changed sense of reality and human nature Beginning with an overview of the problematics of European modernism Sheppard establishes the dialectical relationship between the cultural crisis that occurred during the period 1880-1936 and the different responses from European modernists and the avant garde With its combination of classic and new essays and its perspective on the theoretical avant garde modernism debate in the United States Sheppard's volume should give the specialist as well as the general reader an insight into the highest sample of European scholarly discourse on this subject

Philosophy and German Literature, 1700-1990 Nicholas Saul, 2002-05-02 Although the importance of the interplay of literature and philosophy in Germany has often been examined within individual works or groups of works by particular authors little research has been undertaken into the broader dialogue of German literature and philosophy as a whole Philosophy and German Literature 1700-1990 offers six chapters by leading specialists on the dialogue between the work of German literary writers and philosophers through their works The volume shows that German literature far from being the mouthpiece of a dour philosophical culture dominated by the great names of Leibniz Kant Hegel Marx Heidegger and Habermas has much more to offer while possessing a high affinity with philosophy it explores regions of human insight and experience beyond philosophy's ken Women in German Expressionism Anke Finger, Julie Shoults, 2023-08-07 This collection for the first time explores women's self conceptions and representations of women's and gender roles in society in their own Expressionist works How did women approach themes commonly considered to be characteristic of the Expressionist movement and did they address other themes or aesthetics and styles not currently represented in the canon Women in German Expressionism centers its analysis on gender together with difference ethnicity intersectionality and identity to approach artworks and texts in more nuanced ways engaging solidly established theoretical and sociohistorical approaches that enhance and update our understanding of the material under investigation It moves beyond the masculine New Man viewpoint so firmly associated with German Expressionism and examines alternative critical and divergent interpretations of the changing world at the time This collection seeks to broaden the theorization scholarship and reception of German Expressionism by much belatedly including works by women and by shifting or redefining firmly established concepts and topics carrying only the imprint of male authors and artists to this day Exotic Spaces in German Modernism Jennifer Anna Gosetti-Ferencei, 2011-10-20 Jennifer Anna Gosetti Ferencei demonstrates that the exotic as reflected in major works of German literature and in the philosophy and art that inspires it provokes central questions about the modern self and the spaces it inhabits Exotic spaces in the writings of such authors as Thomas Mann Franz Kafka Stefan Zweig Robert Musil Hugo von Hofmannsthal Gottfried Benn and Bertold Brecht along with the thought of Nietzsche Freud Levi Strauss and Simmel and the art of German Expressionism are shown to present alternatives to the landscape and experience of modernity In an examination of the concept of the exotic and of spatial experience in their cultural subjective and philosophical contingencies Gosetti Ferencei shows that exotic spaces may contest and reconfigure the relationship between the familiar and the foreign the self and the other Exotic spaces may serve not only to affirm the subject in a symbolic conquering of territory as emphasized in post colonial interpretations or project the fantasy of escapism to a lost paradise as utopian readings suggest but condition moral aesthetic or imaginative transformation Such transformation while risking disaster or dissolution of the self as well as endangerment of the other may promote new possibilities of perceiving or being and reconfigure the boundaries of a familiar world As exotic spaces are conceived as mystical liberating erotic infectious frightening or mysterious several possibilities for transformation emerge in their exposure re enchantment through epiphany the collapse of the rational self liberation of the imagination from the confines of the familiar world and aesthetic transformation revealing the paradoxically primitive nature of modern experience In strikingly original readings of canonical authors and compelling rediscoveries of forgotten ones this study establishes that exotic experience can evidence the fragility of the European or Germanic self as depicted in modernist literature revealing the usually unconsidered boundaries of the subject's own familiar world Gestural Imaginaries Lucia Ruprecht, 2019-06-04 Gestural Imaginaries offers a new interpretation of European modernist dance by addressing it as guiding medium in a vibrant field of gestural culture that ranged across art and philosophy A Companion to the Literature of German Expressionism Neil H.
