Fury On Skates:

Fury on Skates Donald Honig, 1974 How do movie star bodies and celebrity culture influence the way real girls and women feel about their own size and shape What effect can popular films have on everyday eating behavior and exercise rituals Body Shots shows how Hollywood films movie stars and celebrity media help propagate the values of an eating disordered culture that promotes constant self scrutiny and vigilance denial of appetite and overcontrol of weight in the compulsive pursuit of an eternally elusive body ideal of slenderness and fitness In a unique approach that merges the disciplines of film analysis gender studies and psychology clinical psychologist and cinema studies scholar Emily Fox Kales demonstrates how the body narratives of such Hollywood celebrities as Lindsay Lohan Gwyneth Paltrow and Oprah Winfrey and their battles with bulimia post maternal weight gain and yo yo dieting not only serve as public enactments of the same eating and weight struggles their fans endure but create a new normal which naturalizes and even valorizes the chronic body dissatisfaction and weight obsession that are established risk factors for eating disorders in women and girls Written for students of cultural and gender studies parents media literacy educators as well as film buffs everywhere this book aims to provide the moviegoer with the critical tools necessary to develop a resistant gaze at Hollywood productions and make healthier choices among the many viewing screens of our super mediated world Girl Gangs, Zines, and Powerslides Natalie Porter, 2025-09-16 All thriller no filler Dr Indigo Willing sociologist and lead researcher of Skate Create Educate and Regenerate and co author of Skateboarding Power and Change A vibrant meticulously researched celebration of the women and non binary skateboarders who defied a hostile industry and redefined skateboarding around the world With enthusiasm and empathy Girl Gangs Zines and Powerslides celebrates the relentless participation of women in skateboarding from the 1960s onward who defied a hostile industry to carve out their own space through underground networks Skater librarian Natalie Porter presents interviews and meticulous research including the DIY zines created by female and non binary skaters as a means of communication to expose this unacknowledged story while offering a personal narrative about the importance of community building and validation with or without your own video game Girl Gangs Zines and Powerslides disrupts the image of skateboarding as an exclusive male domain offering historical context for the seemingly rapid progress of female skaters today seen competing on the Olympic stage Discover how the collective action of a grassroots movement in the 1980s established meaningful change building a foundation that has led to greater inclusion and diversity which has inspired women girls and non binary youth worldwide to roll on a skateboard for the first time or rediscover their youthful obsession as an adult and feel inspired to drop once again The Journey of Little Hans John Friesen, 2018-12-27 1941 As German soldiers penetrate into USSR the fate of a Russian born German baby buried alive in a bombing raid unravels behind a curtain of innocence As the tide of the fierce conflict shifts an exodus takes him westward toward Germany where he becomes separated from his mother leading him to return parentless to Russia where he is forced to suffer the consequences of a German invasion that he knew nothing of yet he is nonetheless held accountable for Starving and homeless with only an ailing grandma by his side little Hans faces a treacherous journey for survival that takes him into direct confrontation with hungry wolves starving and anger ridden locals freezing conditions the KGB and murderous Russian gangs Despite being shot and poisoned Hans s destiny continues As a man Hans comes into contact with distant relatives who help him answer the enduring question regarding the mysterious disappearance of his mother “Why My Son?” Chris Breen,2013-02-11 Chris Breens book is of a dads mission in life to get his disabled sons voice heard Nathaniels disability has had so many life altering events it use to turn the family upside down Now those events are every day life to the Breen Family Dad kept notes over the years of medical and legal terms being used but in time it was his soul pouring out onto the pages in front of him Chris bitterness and anger ran deep but he never lost the focus of his family and made the commitment of never giving up The struggles of life will not stop coming it is how we manage and recover from them makes us who we are today It's a Love/Skate Relationship Carli J. Stelzig,2022-10-12 This gathering of autobiographical essays focuses on different experiences and periods of the author s life and hybrid identity a childhood spent in Austria teenage years in an American school and then a lyc e in France coming to the U S as a young adult and attending college studying in England for two years and then settling permanently in the U S into an academic career The word essay in the title is meant in its original or French sense as an attempt or trial The twenty four items in this gathering are a kaleidoscopic collection of such attempts at different modes of self reflexivity They are arranged not so much in the chronological order of their composition as by way of loosely assembled thematic clusters True lies suggests that by transforming lived experiences into language by way of memory imagination and reflection and often years and decades later we inevitably alter them as we write them down But we also re experience them and in so doing shift them into another register These recollections cover a wide range of experiences Stelzig s early years his absurd encounter with a barber in Salzburg his mysterious Buddha experience in Hong Kong his travel misadventure in Spain his career as an aspiring poet his commitment to teaching Shakespeare's plays his love of dogs and of tennis and the death of a nineteen year old Austrian au pair girl True Lies is divided into three parts Austrian Roots addresses Stelzig's early years including his relationship with his Austrian parents Adult Branchings focuses on his American adult life and identity The final section Falling Leaves is for the most part a set of reflections on the later stages of life and the sense of mortality and of time running out the challenge of being in time and the question of what remains
