Weekly ,1928 Annual Report of the Commissioner of Labor New York (State). Dept. of Labor,1904 The Ohio Farmer ,1921 Cloaks and Furs ,1901 Earth Follies Joni Seager,2019-03-21 First published in 1993 The question of agency is essential to our understanding of environmental problems who is responsible and why Threats such as ozone depletion global warming and overconsumption are all precipitated by the powerful institutions which shape modern life institutions which are overwhelmingly controlled by men and dominated by masculine presumptions Joni Seager argues that the gender bias inherent in western culture is inextricably linked to our environmental crisis She analyses the traditional institutes of power governments the military and transnational corporations and also takes a critical look at the equally patriarchal environmental establishment comparing the work of the official environmental movement grounded in masculine thought with the smaller scale direct actions taken by women driven to protect their homes and communities Earth Follies represents an incisive and utterly convincing feminist critique of our environmental crises and offers radical and productive priorities for the environmental agenda Some Account of the Worshipful Company of Skinners of London, Being the Guild Or Fraternity of Corpus Christi James Foster Wadmore,1902 The Fur Trade on the Upper Missouri, 1840-1865 John E. Sunder,1993 By beginning where the standard works leave off and carrying the story up to its logical conclusion in 1865 this book fills a definite void in the history of the fur trade in the American West Set in the upper Missouri country which was bypassed by settlement until the 1860s it focuses primarily upon the St Louis firm of Pierre Chouteau Jr and Company usually known as the American Fur Company This is not the distorted and romanticized approach so typical of much of the literature on the earlier fur trade Drama is inherent but it is sound well conceived carefully documented history American Historical Review
