Further Teachings of Gurdjieff C. S. Nott, 1984      Further Teachings of Gurdjieff, 1978      Teachings of Gurdjieff C. S. Nott, 2017-05-12 About this book This is a first hand account of a disillusioned young man who having travelled round the world studying various ways and religions finally meets Gurdjieff in New York and is convinced by seeing the demonstrations of sacred dances that at last he has found the Way he is looking for The book compiled from hundreds of pages of notes and diaries is a record of sayings and doings of Gurdjieff and their impact on the young pupil at that time It has also a description of life at the Chateau du Prieure as experienced by the pupil The journal is not an exposition of the theory of the Gurdjieff system it is rather an account of the cumulative effect on one person of practical work in an authentic esoteric school Note C S Nott's sequel Further Teachings of Gurdjieff Journey Through This World and his translation of Conference of the Birds are also available in Kindle format from Toward Publishing Basic information about Gurdjieff Gurdjieff was born in Armenia around 1870 His first tutor was a priest and he also received a scientific education in surroundings and a way of life that had changed little for centuries To his questions Who am I Why am I here he found no answer either in religion or in science but suspected that the truth lay hidden behind what had come down from the past in religious traditions and those strange myths and legends which he learned from his father a traditional bard or ashokh With inspired like minded companions he set out to find in Asia and Africa the truth he sought learning many languages and acquiring many practical skills to earn the money for his journeys In 1912 he brought to Moscow an unknown teaching a teaching that was neither a religion nor a philosophy but a practical teaching to be lived He called this teaching The Fourth Way To follow the way he proposed nothing is to be believed until verified by direct experience and life in the world is not to be renounced It is a way in life on which gradually for it cannot be done all at once everything has to be questioned one's beliefs assumptions attitudes one's whole outlook on the life of man on this Earth Man is asleep said Gurdjieff he has no real consciousness or will He is not free to him everything happens He can become conscious and find his true place as a human being in the creation but this requires a profound transformation Gurdjieff calls us to awaken telling us Man's possibilities are very great You cannot even conceive a shadow of what man is capable of attaining But nothing can be attained in sleep In the consciousness of a sleeping man his illusions his dreams are mixed with reality He lives in a subjective world and he can never escape from it And this is the reason why he can never make use of all the powers he possesses and why he lives in only a small part of himself      Maurice Nicoll Gary Lachman, 2024-06-18 Traces the life of Maurice Nicoll who left a successful career as a psychiatrist in 1922 to study with G I Gurdjieff and P D Ouspensky Explores newly uncovered diaries from Nicoll revealing his mystical sex practices his shadow self and new understandings of his unorthodox teachings Examines the influence of psychiatrist Carl Jung and Swedish scientist and philosopher Emanuel Swedenborg on Nicoll's work In 1922 Maurice Nicoll 1884-1953 abandoned his successful London psychiatry practice and his direct studies with Carl Jung to move his family just outside of Paris to the Institute for the Harmonious Development of Man a center recently opened by philosopher mystic and spiritual guru G I Gurdjieff the founder of the esoteric system that became known as the Fourth Way Nicoll went on to become one of the most passionate teachers of the Fourth Way committing the final three decades of his life to teaching The Work in his own unorthodox style In this revealing biography Gary Lachman draws on recently uncovered diaries to explore the unusual syncretic approach Nicoll brought to his teaching of the Fourth Way He shows how Nicoll is unique in having Jung Gurdjieff and Ouspensky as teachers and to have known each of these important figures in esoteric history personally yet as Lachman reveals Nicoll was not a blind devotee by any stretch Lachman shows how Nicoll incorporated elements of Jungian psychology and Emanuel Swedenborg inspired mysticism into his exploration and teaching of both Gurdjieff's and Ouspensky's ideas as well as into his own best known work Psychological Commentaries on the Teaching of Gurdjieff and Ouspensky Lachman reveals the unorthodox side of Nicoll in fuller detail than ever before through excerpts from recently shared diaries in which Nicoll included detailed accounts of his own solitary self sex erotic experimentations to reach visionary states along with recordings of his dreams and other personal and mystical reflections The social details of Nicoll's life are also examined including vivid portraits of the occult scene in the early to mid twentieth century and the communal living situations in which Nicoll sometimes resided Drawing on his familiarity with hermetic practices and his own experiences with The Work Lachman comprehensively explores the significance of Nicoll and the novelty of his thought offering a profound needed and sympathetic but critical study of this man so instrumental to the development and legacy of the Fourth Way      Gurdjieff's America Paul Beekman Taylor, 2004 Offers information and stories about Gurdjieff setting him within the cultural and social contexts of America between 1924 and 1935      Handbook of New Religions and Cultural Production Carole Cusack, Alex Norman, 2012-03-28 This volume fills a lacuna in the academic assessment of new religions by investigating their cultural products such as music architecture food et cetera Contributions explore the manifold ways in which new religions have contributed to humanity's creative output      Frank Lloyd Wright Meryle Secrest, 2014-07-09 The widely admired biographer of Bernard Berenson A triumph Washington Post A perfect riot Michael Holroyd Astonishing London Sunday Times and of Kenneth Clark Splendid enthralling The Wall Street Journal gives us now a complete and complex portrait of an American titan Frank Lloyd Wright Meryle Secrest shows us Frank Lloyd Wright in full scale the brilliant outrageous fascinating man the giant who changed modern architecture the standard bearer for the new quintessentially American vision the artist who never during a seventy year career abandoned his principles of design the radical the Bohemian the visionary who was one of the central figures of the twentieth century American culture society and politics Meryle Secrest is the first biographer to have full access to the Frank Lloyd Wright Archives Her life of the architect more than five years work and illustrated with 121 photographs is a stunning feat of biographical narrative sustained analysis and compassionate insight With her extraordinary grasp of the man and his art she gives us Frank Lloyd Wright close up a creature of boundless energy and indomitable appetite for experience a man whose limitless belief in his own rightness carried him through bankruptcy arrest fire divorce and years of social ostracism A riveting portrait of a genius One Must Not Go Altogether with the Tide Miranda B. Hickman, 2011-05-06 Nott who published Jefferson and or Mussolini 1935 was an interested and encouraging interlocutor for a poet seeking re invention as an economist and political commentator someone who sustained Pound as he swam against the tide Pound s close involvement with his publisher illuminates an important episode in literary modernism as well as for the study of print culture in the interwar period This edition of the letters retains Pound s idiosyncratic epistolary idiom and analyzes letter writing as a genre critical to Pound s intellectual and cultural project capturing Pound as a collaborator at work Aleister Crowley, Sylvester Viereck, Literature, Lust, and the Great War Patrick J. Quinn, 2021-09-28 This book explores the lives of two writers one born in Germany Viereck and one born in England Crowley who were both influenced by decadent French writers such as Baudelaire and Mirbeau and English poets such as Swinburne and Wilde They both wrote decadent poetry early in their careers before becoming known in literary circles as two of the most wicked writers in America Viereck and the world Crowley By their twenties their reputations as rebels against the restrictive and stifled cultures they inhabited were firmly established Both men enjoyed breaking with the status quo by writing poetry short stories and plays with exotic scenes that celebrated the beauty of the female body Both writers were captivated by the femme fatale and her deleterious effect on her male victims robbing them of their opportunity for transcendence into a spiritual realm Their work especially their love poetry their science fiction works dealing with vampires and articles and essays concerning the onset of the Great War are still very readable today What is also intriguing is that in 1915 both men were working together in New York where Viereck was the editor of two pro German magazines The Fatherland and The International Searching for an editorial position at that time Crowley learned about an opening and was hired by Viereck There is speculation that Crowley s discovery of the job opening for these pro German magazines was a clever plan on the part of the British secret service to place one of their agents inside the German spy network in America of which Viereck was a key player Propaganda intrigue cover ups and the American declaration of war on Germany all make this alliance between the two very decadent poets and perhaps spies or even double agents worth knowing more about

Sufism and Zen in the West Saeko Yazaki, Michael Conway, 2025-02-20 Historically and culturally Sufism and Zen may not seem to have anything in common However in the West their spiritual messages are often perceived as strikingly similar In this book scholars analyse the ways in which Sufism and Zen were introduced to and developed in the West The collection shows that the popularity of these religions arose not because of the substantive shared elements within the two traditions but because their promoters in the West employed similar strategies to respond to the interests of a modern Western audience The first book to make a close comparison of Sufism and Zen this study is an important contribution to understanding Western religious life and processes of easternisation It sheds new light on how Sufism and Zen came to represent a spirituality that is both countercultural and in touch with modern sensitivities

Three Cultural Ecologies David Leatherbarrow, Richard Wesley, 2017-08-23 Three Cultural Ecologies reverses common conceptions of modern architecture It reveals how selected works of two modern architects Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright embraced environmental and cultural conditions as reciprocal and complementary A basic premise of this book s arguments is that cultural patterns cannot be adequately conceptualized in the terms that typically define ecology today Instead studies based on the natural sciences must be complemented by descriptions and interpretations of historical narratives cultural norms and individual expressions Previously unpublished images and new interpretations will allow readers to rediscover works they thought they knew Villa Savoye Taliesin La Tourette and Ocatilla as well as projects that are less well known by Wright the House on the Mesa and the City Residential Plan and by Le Corbusier the Immeuble villas and Il t Insalubre projects More broadly this study of cultural ecology at three scales domestic monastic and urban reconsiders the history of modern architecture The conditions brought about by societal and technological modernization and confronted by modern architecture have not disappeared in our time but have intensified making the task of imagining how some measure of equilibrium between culture and ecology might be achieved even more pressing
