Fustat On The Nile The Jewish Elite In Medieval Egypt:

Fustat on the Nile Elinor Bareket, 1999 The book discusses Jewish leadership in Egypt and Palestine during the eleventh century The struggles for power between the leaders of the local communities and the traditional centers of Jewish authority all brought to light by documents from the Cairo Geniza Medieval Hebrew Poetry in Muslim Egypt Joachim J.M.S. Yeshaya, 2010-11-11 Moses ben Abraham Dar born in Alexandria into a family of Moroccan Jewish immigrants lived in Egypt in the middle of the twelfth century Though he visited Damascus and Jerusalem he spent most of his professional life as a physician and poet in the Karaite community of Fus Cairo This study offers an annotated edition of secular poems taken from the earliest manuscript NLR Evr I 802 dated to the fifteenth century The Hebrew text and Judaeo Arabic heading of each poem are provided in the original order attested in the manuscript The introduction to this edition seeks to evaluate Dar s poetry in the light of the Andalusian Hebrew poetical tradition and within the context of Hebrew literary activity in the Muslim East This learned book displays sound rigorous scholarship in the best tradition of the philological historical method It also provides solid ground for further work by scholars with different agendas different scholarly interests and different methodologies in the study of medieval Hebrew poetry On all accounts it is a welcome and most valuable addition to the field Esperanza Alfonso CCHS CSIC Yeshaya s work is an excellent contribution to the study of both medieval Hebrew poetry and Karaitica showing Dar to be a central representative of Hebrew poets writing in the Muslim East and most importantly a charming author whose Karaiteness only adds to the attraction Riikka Tuori Poverty and Charity in the Jewish Community of Medieval Egypt Mark R. Cohen, 2009-01-10 What was it like to be poor in the Middle Ages In the past the answer to this question came only from institutions and individuals who gave relief to the less fortunate This book by one of the top scholars in the field is the first comprehensive book to study poverty in a premodern Jewish community from the viewpoint of both the poor and those who provided for them Mark Cohen mines the richest body of documents available on the matter the papers of the Cairo Geniza These documents located in the Geniza a hidden chamber for discarded papers situated in a medieval synagogue in Old Cairo were preserved largely unharmed for more than nine centuries due to an ancient custom in Judaism that prohibited the destruction of pages of sacred writing Based on these papers the book provides abundant testimony about how one large and important medieval Jewish community dealt with the constant presence of poverty in its midst Building on S D Goitein s Mediterranean Society and inspired also by research on poverty and charity in medieval and early modern Europe it provides a clear window onto the daily lives of the poor It also illuminates private charity a subject that has long been elusive to the medieval historian In addition Cohen s work functions as a detailed case study of an important phenomenon in human history Cohen concludes that the relatively narrow gap between the poor and rich and the precariousness of wealth in general combined to make charity one of the major agglutinates of Jewish associational life during the medieval period Medieval Multilingual Manuscripts Michael Clarke, Máire Ní

Mhaonaigh,2022-04-04 Manuscripts provide rich documentary evidence for understanding the history of cultural life across the breadth of Europe and Asia down through the Middle Ages Many illustrate engagement between and across languages in both similar and contrasting ways from east to west The demarcation of manuscript studies into single language academic disciplines has often obscured this reality privileging one constituent part or contributing language from each manuscript rather than exploring the combination as a nuanced and complex whole This volume seeks to examine manuscripts as integrally united artefacts respecting the diversity of their constituent elements Case studies are presented of twelve manuscripts with evidence for various levels of inter language exchange and collision from horizons as diverse as the Atlantic West Carolingian Europe the Byzantine world the Silk Road cultures and east Asia The essays function individually as discrete contributions but together they highlight a range of overlapping themes illustrating language interaction in global religions pedagogical exchange and secular society building The analogies as well as the concrete points of connection between them underline the value of a cross disciplinary approach The Historiography of Islamic Egypt (c. 950-1800)
