The Politics of Democratization in Hong Kong Lo Shiu-hing, 2016-07-27 An analysis of the politics of transition in Hong Kong focusing on the tug of war between China and Britain on democratization and on the interactions between the increasingly politically active people of Hong Kong and the democratizing colonial regime The successes and failures of British policy since 1984 and the missed opportunities to democratize faster prior to Governor Patten's appointment in 1992 are examined Japanese Bosses, Chinese Workers Wong Heung Wah Wong, 2014-03-05 Examines the ways in of organising work rank compensation and promotion inside a large Japanese company in Hong Kong and its spiritual training to reveal the socio economic base of managerial control A must for anthropologists and Japanologists

The Hong Kong-Guangdong Link Reginald Yin-Wang Kwok, Alvin Y. So, 2020-11-25 This text focuses on the relationship of Hong Kong with the adjacent Chinese province Guangdong the territories most directly involved in the 1997 transfer of Hong Kong to Chinese rule The socio economic political and cultural impact of this crucial link and the implications for the future of both Hong Kong and China are studied A multi disciplinary approach is taken to examine the complexity of economic political and cultural transformation of the Hong Kong Guangdong link and this book presents a historical perspective to trace the long term structural transformation The dynamics of the integration process between the two territories is also explored

The Making of an Alienated Generation Sai-Wing Leung, 2019-07-23 First published in 1997 this volume examines the political apathy of the Hong Kong Chinese with a particular focus on children in secondary schools While most previous studies have been of adults Leung's approach exposes a generation who are politically uninvolved and disenchanted He examines teacher student encounters in a depoliticized school context and through a curriculum in which explicit political content is absent The study throws light both on Chinese youths and the interaction of older and younger generations and its macroscopic implications are distinctly ominous suggesting trouble ahead for the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region

Hunter, 2016-12-23 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world International Psychology Virginia Staudt Sexton, 2015-11-01 While acknowledging their major debt to Europeans like Freud Piaget Erickson Lewin and Jung American psychologists generally concentrated on developments in American psychology And this tendency prevails in spite of the fact that innovations in sport psychology and clinical neuropsychology for example have continued to come from abroad International Psychology is a much needed exposition of the state of psychology in forty five countries including the Soviet Union and the United States Emphasizing the period from 1960 to the present and surveying the training research and practice of psychologists on six continents this volume introduces a widely dispersed network of occupational kinfolk many of whom have scant knowledge of one another The editors provide a panoramic view in the opening chapter as well as an epilogue and name and subject indexes The contributors nearly all distinguished psychologists in their countries represent Argentina Armenia Australia Austria Belgium Brazil Canada Colombia Cuba Czechoslovakia the Dominican Republic Egypt Finland France the German Democratic Republic Germany Greece Hong Kong Hungary India Iran Ireland Israel Italy Japan Korea Mexico the Netherlands New Zealand Norway Pakistan Philippines Poland Romania South Africa Spain Switzerland Turkey the Soviet Union the United Kingdom the United States Uruguay Venezuela Yugoslavia and Zimbabwe Man in a Hurry Ray Yep, 2024-08-21 In Man in a Hurry Murray MacLehose and Colonial Autonomy in Hong Kong Ray Yep explores the latest available archival materials and re-examines MacLehose's pivotal governorship in Hong Kong 1971-1982 MacLehose arrived in the challenging 1970s when there were expectations for social reforms uneasiness in the relationship between Hong Kong and London and the 1997 factor looming large The governor successfully carried out various social reforms and he also handled various major issues including the anti-corruption campaign the Vietnamese refugee crisis and the granting of land lease of the New Territories beyond 1997 Yep unveils the tension and bargaining between the British government and explains how interest of the colony could be asserted defended and negotiated This book is an important study of Hong Kong's golden years when the city's economy took off It is a significant contribution to our understanding of how local autonomy was defined Ray Yep is one of the leading historians of Hong Kong His latest book Man in a Hurry compellingly tells the story of how Hong Kong's state and civil society modernized under its longest serving colonial governor Murray MacLehose

Drawing on extensive research into newly available primary sources Yep shows that MacLehose a reluctant reformer navigated a path between an increasingly assertive and expectant population and a newly intrusive British political class to help create a prosperous and well managed territory and a city of global importance Anyone interested in the making of contemporary Hong Kong needs to read this book Mark Hampton author of Hong Kong and British Culture 1945-97 Yep's long awaited book is the first archive based account of MacLehose's governorship through the lens of sovereign colony interactions By combining historical research with theoretical insights the book not only makes a major contribution to Hong Kong and British imperial history but also provides valuable lessons for managing post 1997 Beijing SAR relations Chi kwan Mark Royal Holloway University of London Hong Kong in Focus S. G. Rioni, 2002 Hong Kong in Focus Political Economic Issues

Hong Kong's Tortuous Democratization Ming Sing, 2004-08-02 This book raises interesting questions about the process of democratization in Hong Kong It asks why democracy has been so long delayed when Hong Kong's level of socio economic development has become so high It relates democratization in Hong Kong to wider studies of the democratization process elsewhere and it supplements the received wisdom that democracy was delayed because of colonial rule and by the opposition of China with new thinking for example that its quasi bureaucratic authoritarian political structure vested power in bureaucrats who refused to have top down democratization a politically weak civil society and a non participant political culture that crippled bottom up democratization plus the division between pro democratic civil society and political society
