The Future of International Relations Iver B. Neumann, Ole Waever, 2005-06-29 This book presents the state of the art of international relations theory through an analysis of the work of twelve key contemporary thinkers John Vincent Kenneth Waltz Robert O Keohane Robert Gilpin Bertrand Badie John Ruggie Hayward Alker Nicholas G Onuf Alexander Wendt Jean Bethke Elshtain R B J Walker and James Der Derian The authors aim to break with the usual procedure in the field which juxtaposes aspects of the work of contemporary theorists with others presenting them as part of a desembodied school of thought or paradigm A more individual focus can demonstrate instead the well rounded character of some of the leading oeuvres and can thus offer a more representative view of the discipline This book is designed to cover the work of theorists whom students of international relations will read and sometimes struggle with The essays can be read either as introductions to the work of these theorists or as companions to it Each chapter attempts to place the thinker in the landscape of the discipline to identify how they go about studying International Relations and to discuss what others can learn from them The State Practice of India and the Development of International Law Bimal N. Patel,2016-06-27 The State Practice of India and the Development of International Law by Bimal N Patel provides a critical analysis of India s state practice and development of international law Providing insight into the historical evolution of Indian state practice from pre 1945 period through the 21st century the work meticulously and systematically examines the interpretation and execution of international law by national legislative executive and judicial organs individually as well as collectively The author demonstrates India s ambitions as a rising global power and emerging role in shaping international affairs and convincingly argues how India will continue to resist and prevent consolidation of Euro American centric influence of international law in areas of her political economic and culture influence

The Perplexities of Modern International Law Académie de Droit International de la Ha Staff,Shabtai Rosenne,2002 The Academy is an institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject including legislation and case law All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law The contents of this volume consist of The Perplexities of Modern International Law General Course on Public International Law by Sh ROSENNE former Ambassador of Israel Jerusalem To access the abstract texts for this volume please click here

The International Legal Protection of Children in Street Situations Sylvia Agu,2025-08-12 The book conducts a comprehensive analysis of codified international legal instruments and documents in their application to children in street situations employing soft law documents to elucidate treaty interpretation and supplement existing legal standards The research adopts a holistic approach correlating international legal instruments with root causes and consequences for children in street situations while systematically examining issues of intersectionality such as economic social and cultural rights civil and political rights minority rights including disability rights rights of the girl child as well as LGBTQI and migrant rights reparations impact of violence and access to essential services like health food and housing with various human rights issues including economic social cultural and civil political rights It presents the plight of children in street situations as a human rights concern offering guidance on utilising international legal sources in rights claims procedures The study also integrates sociological and political perspectives with legal and governmental policy issues examining the influence of external factors such as conditional lending and structural adjustment programmes wars and decolonisation on social policies and their consequent impact on children and families by rendering children in street situations visible as a distinct category requiring urgent attention in State policy formulation By systematically integrating international legal instruments with practical policy considerations and applications concerning children in street situations this scholarly work serves as a comprehensive legal framework for State governments their bodies and social workers and a valuable advocacy guide for interest groups including non governmental organisations proposing future directions for policy and research for addressing the rights and needs of children in street situations

BALLARINO Human Rights and Forced Displacement Joan Fitzpatrick,Anne Bayefsky,2021-10-18 A comprehensive approach to the problem of forced displacement involves understanding and addressing human rights issues in a multiplicity of forms This collection aims to contribute to the institutional capacities of the many different players to operationalise the human rights of refugees and the internally displaced by conceptualising the emerging issues and priorities and advancing policy thinking on human rights and forced displacement Each of the sections of the book approaches this issue from a different perspective The section on standards asks What international human rights standards apply to the forcibly displaced How do they apply Have there been failures Are there gaps in the international standards Are there conflicts The section on monitoring reporting asks Who monitors human rights violations Who reports the findings and to whom What are the respective responsibilities of the different actors The section on solutions asks where solutions lie Environmental planning and development International prosecution of war criminals Rebuilding legal infrastructures and national institutions Enhancing the role of human rights NGOs to monitor report and frame forced displacement in human rights terms for increased public understanding and interest The final section looks to the future and considers where asylum fits into the spectrum of solving the nature of forced displacement today the capacities and limitations of international criminal tribunals and the co operative arrangements and practical divisions of labour that need to be fashioned between international agencies and service relief providers prestigious international institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects. The work of the Hague Academy receives the support and recognition of the UN. Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law. The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject including legislation and case law. All courses at the Academy are in principle published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law.

Les bases éthiques pour le droit et la société, 1986-10-20 Problèmes de Conflits de Lois en Matière de Filiation Jacques Foyer Jacques Foyer Professor at the University of Paris II notes in introduction of his course that it can be enlightening to compare the different modern methods of solution of the conflict of laws regarding filiation. The study of the different systems shows that there exist at least three methods to contradict the classic choice of law rule. The course is structured around the analysis of these three methods. Firstly it is the criticism of the rigid character and the unpredictability of the traditional rule that triggers the temptation of a manipulation of the choice of law rule. The author then points out that one could question its abstract and arbitrary character which leads on the one hand to an attempt to hierarchization and on the other hand to a diversification of the choice of law rules. Lastly it is the principle of the foreign law's purpose to govern legal relationships in the same way as the lex fori that is questioned which leads to its partial elimination to the profit of a more or less systematic application of the territorial law or of the one of the court hearing the action. General Course on Private International Law Friedrich K Juenger According to Friedrich Juenger Professor at the University of California in Davis the outstanding characteristic of the conflict of laws is the lack of consensus on the discipline's goals and methods. He proposes to put the accent in his course on the events for which public international law must find a solution in order to avoid the constant danger that threatens the discipline that is to become a simple academic game. Three examples of reported cases and the kinds of issues they raise are given in the Introduction. Professor Juenger next gives a detailed historical overview of the conflict of laws from Antiquity to Mancini. In addition the author presents the emergence of new orthodoxies or rather proposes to re-examine the traditional doctrines and points out the advantages of a teleological approach. That allows him to revisit the three cases mentioned in the Introduction. Les Bases éthiques pour le Droit et la Société Perspectives de la Commission indépendante sur les questions humanitaires internationales Sadruddin Aga Khan Conference of July 30 1985 Sadruddin Aga Khan President of the Independent Commission on International Humanitarian Issues recalls in his course on the ethical bases of law and society that the role of the commission he presides is to remind us of the basic elements of a code of ethics which has the same spiritual significance as that found in all major religions. Lawyers as well as scientists adds the author must mobilize their immense resources bearing in mind that the rule of law should never disregard moral appreciation. The Lives of Michel Foucault David Macey, 2019-01-22 The classic biography of the radical French philosopher with a new afterword by acclaimed Foucault scholar Stuart Elden. When he died of an AIDS related condition in 1984 Michel Foucault had become the most influential French philosopher since the end of World War II His powerful studies of the creation of modern medicine prisons psychiatry and other methods of classification have had a lasting impact on philosophers historians critics and novelists the world over But as public as he was in his militant campaigns on behalf of prisoners dissidents and homosexuals he shrouded his personal life in mystery In The Lives of Michel Foucault written with the full cooperation of Daniel Defert Foucault's former lover David Macey gives the richest account to date of Foucault's life and work informed as it is by the complex issues arising from his writings In this new edition Foucault scholar Stuart Elden has contributed a new afterword assessing the contribution of the biography in the light of more recent literature Hugo Grotius and International Relations Hedley Bull,Benedict Kingsbury,Adam Roberts,1990-07-26 While the works of Hugo Grotius 1583 1645 have long been held in high esteem by international lawyers this book addresses the broader and neglected theme of his contribution to the theoretical and practical aspects of international relations It critically reappraises Grotius thought examining it in relation to his predecessors and in the context of the wars and controversies of his time and assesses the strengths and weaknesses of the Grotian tradition of thought one which accepts the sovereignty of states but at the same time stresses the existence of shared values and the necessity of rules
