Edith Piaf:

No Regrets Carolyn Burke, 2011-04-04 Edith Piaf was one of the most beloved singers of the twentieth century. From the start of her exceptional career in the 1930s, her waif-like form and heart-wrenching voice endeared her first to the French, then to audiences around the globe. As she moved from her youth singing in the streets to the glamour of the Paris music halls, Piaf formed lasting friendships with such figures as Maurice Chevalier, Jean Cocteau, and Marlene Dietrich. She wrote many of her own songs, aided the Resistance in the Second World War, and mentored younger singers like Yves Montand and Charles Aznavour. Yet her path to stardom was full of tragedies: the death of her daughter in infancy, the death of Marcel Cerdan, her greatest love, in a plane crash, her many illnesses, affairs, and addictions, all of which nourished her passionate performances and strengthened her enduring bond with audiences. In this mesmerising definitive new biography, Carolyn Burke gives us Piaf in her own time and place, illuminating through sympathetic readings of sources hitherto unavailable both the charm and the pathos of the Little Sparrow who enchanted generations and still enthalls us today.

No Regrets Carolyn Burke, 2011-03-22 The iconic French singer comes to life in this enthralling definitive biography which captures Edith Piaf's immense charisma along with the time and place that gave rise to her unprecedented international career. Raised by turns in a brothel, a circus caravan, and a working-class Paris neighborhood, Piaf began singing on the city's streets where she was discovered by a Champs-Élysées cabaret owner. She became a star almost overnight, seducing Paris's elite and the people of its slums in equal measure with her powerful, passionate voice. No Regrets explores her rise to fame and notoriety, her tumultuous love affairs, and her struggles with drugs, alcohol, and illness, while also drawing on new sources to enhance our knowledge of little-known aspects of her life. Piaf was an unlikely student of poetry and philosophy who aided Resistance efforts in World War II, wrote the lyrics for nearly one hundred songs including La Vie en rose, and was a crucial mentor to younger singers including Yves Montand and Charles Aznavour, who absorbed her love of chanson and her exacting approach to their métier. Here is Piaf in her own world, Paris in the first half of the twentieth century and in ours. Burke demonstrates how, with her courage, her incomparable art, and her universal appeal, the little sparrow endures as a symbol of France and a source of inspiration to entertainers worldwide.

Édith Piaf David Looseley, 2015 The world famous French singer Edith Piaf 1915-63 was never just a singer. This book suggests new ways of understanding her, her myth, and her meanings over time, at home and abroad, by proposing the notion of an imagined Piaf.

A Cry from the Heart Margaret Crosland, 2007 This definitive biography sheds new light on the phenomenon that was Edith Piaf, enlarging on and in some cases correcting the half-truths provided by Piaf in her two autobiographies. Piaf's rise to international stardom, her lifelong addiction to alcohol and heroin, and her turbulent love affairs are documented, as are her friendships with such stars as Jean Cocteau, Marlene Dietrich, Maurice Chevalier, Yves Montand, and Charlie Chaplin. This detailed account concludes with a moving description of Piaf's early death at the age of 47, when some two million fans followed the funeral procession through the streets of Paris to Pere Lachaise cemetery Expertly separates the woman from the myth giving full weight to both the novelettish aspects of her life and to the intelligence and musicality that made her France's greatest popular singer The Independent A Cry from the Heart Margaret Crosland, 2008 A Cry from the Heart Margaret Crosland, 2002 Edith Piaf Laurent Poret, The legend that emerged from a journalist's imagination and maintained by Piaf gave birth to it on 19 December 1915 in Paris at 72 rue de Belleville in the 20th arrondissement according to the plaque affixed to the house located at that address Some sources even say that she was born on the steps of the front door of the building on the pilgrimage of a police officer who took the baby out of her mother's womb However according to her birth certificate at the Paris Registry Office Edith Giovanna Gassion was born at 4 rue de la Chine the address of Tenon Hospital which is indeed one of the health establishments closest to rue de Belleville Born into poverty Edith Piaf is a child of the ball whose parents had been in the entertainment business for two generations The Wheel of Fortune Edith Piaf, 1965
