American Labyrinth Raymond Haberski, Jr.,Andrew Hartman,2018-12-15 American Labyrinth contains a stimulating and useful collection of essays by historians reflecting on American intellectual history As a whole the book convinces the reader that the field of intellectual history is enjoying a renaissance The book will be especially prized by intellectual historians but historians of many different persuasions will find these essays rewarding too Choice Intellectual history has never been more relevant and more important to public life in the United States In complicated and confounding times people look for the principles that drive action and the foundations that support national ideals American Labyrinth demonstrates the power of intellectual history to illuminate our public life and examine our ideological assumptions This volume of essays brings together 19 influential intellectual historians to contribute original thoughts on topics of widespread interest Raymond Haberski Jr and Andrew Hartman asked a group of nimble sharp scholars to respond to a simple question How might the resources of intellectual history help shed light on contemporary issues with historical resonance The answers all rigorous original and challenging are as eclectic in approach and temperament as the authors are different in their interests and methods Taken together the essays of American Labyrinth illustrate how intellectual historians operating in many different registers at once and ranging from the theoretical to the political can provide telling insights for understanding a public sphere fraught with conflict In order to understand why people are ready to fight over cultural symbols and political positions we must have insight into how ideas organize enliven and define our lives Ultimately as Haberski and Hartman show in this volume the best route through our contemporary American labyrinth is the path that traces our practical and lived ideas Catalogue of the University of Michigan University of Michigan,1918 "The Argus" Law Reports ,1903 Up to the end of 1959 the Argus law reports contained reports of the Supreme court of Victoria
