The Inner Sound of Art Iris Bruderer-Oswald, 2025-04-14 Edvard Munch's painting of Wilhelm Wartmann remained hidden from public view for many years. But the friendship between Wilhelm Wartmann and the artist Edvard Munch is reflected in their extensive correspondence with their letters documenting a deep affinity between the first director of the Kunsthaus Zürich and the Norwegian painter. Wartmann managed the fortunes of the Kunsthaus Zürich for forty years from 1909 to 1949. He oversaw the opening of the museum to international and contemporary art, promoted the development of a unique collection of old masters and modern art, and created a Europe-wide network of relationships with art lovers, collectors, art historians, museum directors, and artists such as Munch, Hodler, Kokoschka, and many others whose development he accompanied with great empathy. Wilhelm Wartmann laid the foundations for the Kunsthaus's current role and can be regarded as one of Switzerland's most important museum directors. Iris Bruderer-Oswald, who holds a doctorate in art history, has now published the first scholarly biography of Wilhelm Wartmann. It opens a new chapter in art history that will radiate from Zürich far into the European art world.

Abnormal Psychology William J. Ray, 2020-01-21 In Abnormal Psychology, best-selling author William J. Ray brings together current perspectives concerning the manner in which the human mind, behavior, and experience can be understood. In addition to the traditional psychological literature, this book draws from work in the cognitive and affective neurosciences, epidemiology, ethology, and genetics. Ray focuses on unifying and integrating the biopsychosocial understandings of human behavior within a broader consideration of human culture and language as it applies to abnormal psychology. With coverage of DSM-5, ICD-11, and RDoC, the fully revised Third Edition puts even greater emphasis on the range of human experiences and medical comorbidities and includes additional references to representations of mental health in popular culture to connect readers with familiar examples. This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package.

The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry Cary Nelson, 2012-01-06 The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry gives readers a cutting-edge introduction to the kaleidoscopic world of American poetry over the last century. Offering a comprehensive approach to the debates that have defined the study of American verse, the twenty-five original essays contained herein take up a wide array of topics: the influence of jazz on the Beats and beyond; European and surrealist influences on style; poetics of the disenfranchised; religion and the national epic; antiwar and dissent poetry; the AIDS epidemic; digital innovations; transnationalism; hip hop and more. Alongside these topics, major interpretive perspectives such as Marxist, psychoanalytic, disability, queer, and ecocritical are incorporated. Throughout, the names that have shaped American poetry in the period—Ezra Pound, Wallace Stevens, Marianne Moore, Mina Loy, Sterling Brown, Hart Crane, William Carlos Williams, Posey Langston, Hughes, Allen Ginsberg, John Ashbery, Rae Armantrout, Larry Eigner, and others—serve as touchstones along the tour of the poetic landscape.

The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp, 2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students Future Directions in Intermediality and Multimodality Signe Kjaer Jensen, Matilda Davidsson, 2025-07-11 This collection brings together leading scholars across disciplines to reflect on the relationship between intermediality and multimodality and future directions for the contemporary mediascape building on a 2022 Linnaeus University lecture series honouring the legacy of Lars Elleström following his untimely death in December 2021 The volume contributes to ongoing dialogues about media and society the challenges and opportunities for academia to engage with developments in the evolving mediascape and interdisciplinary pathways towards engaging with these questions Each chapter features an established figure in such fields as multimodality intermediality semiotics narratology art history and adaptation studies Each essay is prefaced with an introduction by the editors and bookended with a discussion transcribed from the original live presentations A concluding chapter looks ahead to future directions opening new lines of inquiry around the possibilities for intermediality and multimodality research towards continuing to build on Elleström's seminal work in the field This book will be of interest to scholars in multimodality intermediality and media and communication studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under an Attribution Non Commercial No Derivative Licence CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1970    Grapheion, 1998    Henrik Ibsen Ivo de Figueiredo, 2019-04-02 A magnificent new biography of Henrik Ibsen among the greatest of modern playwrights Henrik Ibsen 1820-1908 is arguably the most important playwright of the nineteenth century Globally he remains the most performed playwright after Shakespeare and Hedda Gabler A Doll's House Peer Gynt and Ghosts are all masterpieces of psychological insight This is the first full scale biography to take a literary as well as historical approach to the works life and times of Ibsen Ivo de Figueiredo shows how as a man Ibsen was drawn toward authoritarianism was absolute in his judgments over others and resisted the ideas of equality and human rights that formed the bases of the emerging democracies in Europe And yet as an artist he advanced debates about the modern individual's freedom and responsibility and cultivated his own image accordingly Where other biographies try to show how the artist creates the art this book reveals how in Ibsen's case the art shaped the artist

An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: Autobiographies, novels, poetry, letters, historical works, natural history and science, linguistics, painting and the other arts, politics, psychopathology, biography, miscellaneous, dissertations Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known These include his prose fiction and poetry his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts most notably his painting It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material all of this in several languages Organised generically and by subject and individual work the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity The bibliography is published in three parts Volume 1 General Studies 978 0 947623 81 4 and Volume 2 The Plays 978 0 947623 82 1 are also now available Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia Norwich

From Antiquity to the Enlightenment John P. McKay, Bennett D. Hill, John Buckler, 1999 Adirondack Life, 2002 East European Languages and Literatures Garth M. Terry, 1978 Mediating Modernisms Ruth B. Phillips, Norman Vorano, 2025-08-29 Mediating Modernisms explores the fertile exchanges between Indigenous artists living in colonial societies and the mid twentieth mediators who carried ideas of aesthetic modernism and modernist primitivism into these worlds Nature's Experiments and the Search for Symbolist Form Allison Morehead, 2017-02-27 This provocative study argues that some of the most inventive artwork of the 1890s was strongly influenced by the methods of experimental science and ultimately foreshadowed twentieth century modernist practices Looking at avant garde figures such as Maurice Denis douard Vuillard August Strindberg and Edvard Munch Allison Morehead considers the conjunction of art making and experimentalism to illuminate how artists echoed the spirit of an increasingly explorative scientific culture in their work and processes She shows how the concept of nature's experiments the belief that the study of pathologies led to an understanding of scientific truths above all about the human mind and body extended from the scientific realm into the world of art underpinned artists solutions to the problem of symbolist form and provided a ready made methodology for fin de si cle truth seekers By using experimental methods to transform symbolist theories into visual form these artists broke from naturalist modes and interrogated concepts such as deformation automatism the arabesque and madness to create modern works that were radically and usefully strange Focusing on the scientific psychological and experimental tactics of symbolism Nature s Experiments and the Search for Symbolist Form demystifies the avant garde value of experimentation and reveals new and important insights into a foundational period for the development of European modernism
