Meditation: The Art of Ecstasy Osho, 2023-02-28 Concentration is a choice It excludes all except its object of concentration it is a narrowing If you are walking on the street you will have to narrow your consciousness in order to walk You cannot ordinarily be aware of all that is happening because if you are aware of everything that is happening you will become unfocused So concentration is a need Concentration of the mind is a need in order to live to survive and exist That is why every culture in its own way tries to narrow the mind of the child occupied both Eastern and Western philosophical traditions such as How do we balance freedom with form How can tradition embrace change without losing its essence and What happens when seemingly opposite forces discover their shared humanity These questions unfold through characters who embody philosophical principles while remaining emotionally compelling their personal journeys reflecting the larger cultural synthesis at the heart of this work This theatrical experiment demonstrates how Dionysian ecstasy and Eastern harmony can converse in a shared theatrical language transcending time and geography in order to explore the essential balance between chaos and order freedom and form tradition and transformation It stands as both a literary text and a potential performance piece which celebrates the richness of global theatrical traditions a tale of transformation where Seven Veils dissolve revealing the unity beneath our cultural differences The extensive glossary and notes provide context for readers unfamiliar with either tradition making this work accessible to diverse audiences while honoring the depth and complexity of its source material
