reduced to a single serviceable aircraft Gosling's first success came in April 1942 with a confirmed kill and then shortly after his twenty first birthday on 13 May a triumphant night on the seventeenth brought three certain kills and one damaged enemy aircraft After being the squadron's virgins they shot into the record books Gosling's pilot being awarded the DFC Flight Sergeant Gosling however received no award At this stage he became somewhat embittered by the class system he felt was operated by the RAF Having endured the torment of constant bombardment serious stomach complaints even flying with a bucket in the aircraft and near starvation he completed his tour and was repatriated to the UK via Brazil and Canada in the Queen Mary After a spell instructing new night navigators he joined 604 Squadron and in December 1943 he was promoted to Warrant Officer February 1944 saw the squadron reequipped with the Mosquito and assignment to 2 Tactical Air Force in preparation for D Day Now once again he was flying initially over southern England and the Channel The squadron became mobile after the landings and were based in various captured airfields in France but the conditions were so inadequate for operations that the squadron returned to English bases from where they operated over and beyond the advancing Allied troops Eventually after having been awarded a much deserved DFC he accepted the King's Commission This autobiography is written as stated by the author I want my readers to relive my experiences as they happened to me to take their hands and have them walk beside me I want them to feel the joy and the pain share the laughs and the heartache take pleasure in the triumphs agonise with me when things went wrong and understand why my Service years influenced so much of my life He has succeeded magnificently
