Good The Bad And The Beautiful Discourse About Values In Yoruba Culture:

The Good, the Bad, and the Beautiful Barry Hallen, 2000-12-22 The Good the Bad and the Beautiful Discourse about Values in Yoruba Culture Barry Hallen Reveals everyday language as the key to understanding morals and ethics in Yoruba culture This contrasts with any suggestion that in Yoruba or more generally African society moral thinking manifests nothing much more than a supine acquiescence in long established communal values Hallen renders a great service to African philosophy Kwasi Wiredu In Yoruba culture morality and moral values are intimately linked to aesthetics The purest expression of beauty at least for human beings is to possess good moral character But how is moral character judged How do actions and especially words reveal good moral character in a culture that is still significantly based on oral tradition In this original and intimate look at Yoruba culture Barry Hallen asks the Yoruba onisegun the wisest and most accomplished herbalists or traditional healers individuals justly reputed to be well versed in Yoruba thought and expression what it means to be good and beautiful Posed as an outsider wanting to gain understanding of how to speak Yoruba correctly Hallen engages the onisegun and has them explain the subtleties and intricacies of Yoruba language use and the philosophy behind particular word choices Their instructions reveal a striking and profound depiction of Yoruba aesthetic and ethical thought The detailed interpretations of everyday language that Hallen supplies challenge prevailing Western views that African thought is nothing more than acquiescence to long established religious or communal values The philosophy of ordinary language reveals that moral reflection is indeed individual and that evaluations of action and character take place on the basis of clearly and logically delineated criteria With the onisegun as his guides Hallen identifies the priorities of Yoruba philosophy and culture through everyday expression and shows that there are rational pathways to both truth and beauty Barry Hallen has taught philosophy at the Obafemi Awolowo University formerly University of Ife in Nigeria He is a Fellow at the W E B DuBois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and Visiting Professor of Philosophy at Morehouse College He is coauthor with J Olubi Sodipo of Knowledge Belief and Witchcraft Analytic Experiments in African Philosophy Contents Ordinary Language and African Philosophy Moral Epistemology Me My Self and My Destiny The Good and the Bad The Beautiful Rationality Individuality Secularity and the Proverbial Appendix of Yoruba Language Quotations Glossary of Yoruba Terms

Africa and Its Significant Others, 2016-08-09 When did the intimate dialogue between Africa Europe and the Americas begin Looking back it seems as if these three continents have always been each other's significant others Europe created its own modern identity by using Africa as a mirror but Africans traveled to Europe and America long before the European age of discovery and African cultures can be said to lie at the root of European culture This intertwining has become ever more visible Nowadays Africa emerges as a highly visible presence in the Americas and African American styles capture Europe's youth many of whom are of North African descent This entanglement however remains both productive and destructive The continental economies are intertwined in ways disastrous for Africa and African knowledge is all too often exported and translated for US and European scholarly aims which increases the intercontinental knowledge gap This volume proposes a fresh look at the vigorous and painful but inescapable relationships between these significant others It does so as a gesture of gratitude and respect to one of the pioneering figures in this field Dutch Africanist and literary scholar Mineke Schipper who is taking her leave from her chair in Intercultural Literary Studies at the University of Leiden Where have the past four decades of African studies brought us What is the present day state of this intercontinental dialogue Sixteen of Mineke s colleagues and friends in Europe Africa and the Americas look back and assess the relations and debates between Africa Europe America Ann Adams Ernst van Alphen Mieke Bal Liesbeth Bekers Wilfried van Damme Ariel Dorfman Peter Geschiere Kathleen Gyssels Isabel Hoving Frans Willem Korsten Babacar M Baye Harry Olufunwa Ankie Peypers Steven Shankman Miriam Tlali and Chantal Zabus write about the place of Africa in today s African Diaspora about what sisterhood between African and European women really means about the drawbacks of an overly strong focus on culture in debates about Africa about Europe s reluctance to see Africa as other than its mirror or its playing field about the images of Africans in seventeenth century Dutch writing about genital excision the flaunting of the African female body and the new self writing about new ways to look at classic African novels and about the invigorating disturbing political art of intercultural reading

Deep Knowledge Oludamini Ogunnaike, 2020-10-26 This book is an in depth comparative study of two of the most popular and influential intellectual and spiritual traditions of West Africa Tijani Sufism and Ifa Employing a unique methodological approach that thinks with and from rather than merely about these traditions Oludamini Ogunnaike argues that they contain sophisticated epistemologies that provide practitioners with a comprehensive worldview and a way of crafting a meaningful life Using theories belonging to the traditions themselves as well as contemporary oral and textual sources Ogunnaike examines how both Sufism and Ifa answer the questions of what knowledge is how it is acquired and how it is verified Or more simply What do you know How did you come to know it How do you know that you know After analyzing Ifa and Sufism separately and on their own terms the book compares them to each other and to certain features of academic theories of knowledge By analyzing Sufism from the perspective of Ifa Ifa from the perspective of Sufism and the contemporary academy from the perspective of both this book invites scholars to inhabit these seemingly foreign intellectual traditions as valid and viable perspectives on knowledge metaphysics psychology and ritual practice Unprecedented and innovative Deep Knowledge makes a significant contribution to cross cultural philosophy African philosophy religious studies and Islamic studies Its singular approach advances our understanding of the philosophical bases underlying these two African traditions and lays the groundwork for future study

African Philosophies Séverine Kodjo-Grandvaux, 2025-08-19 For many students of philosophy in the West philosophy is understood as a discipline stemming from Ancient Greece embracing the great thinkers of medieval and early modern Europe and continuing through to the present day To the extent that other philosophical traditions are taken into account these tend to be selected philosophical traditions of Asia Rarely is African philosophy considered in this context even though Africa and the West are deeply interconnected through long histories of colonialism and slavery In this important book Séverine Kodjo-Grandvaux argues that a serious engagement with African philosophy is long overdue She shows that there is a rich tradition of philosophical thought in Africa that addresses issues ranging from the legacies of colonialism to the nature of time the state responsibility identity dignity and personhood An engagement with African philosophy also offers a fresh perspective on Western philosophy prompting us to interrogate ourselves and our own history Conceptualizing African philosophy becomes a way of conceptualizing the world and of understanding how to know ourselves through the gaze of another African

Philosophies is not so much a survey of philosophy in Africa but rather an account of how the question of African philosophy emerged in the second half of the 20th century and of what we can learn from a serious engagement with African philosophy today It will be of great interest to students and scholars in philosophy in colonial and postcolonial studies and throughout the humanities

Disentangling Consciencism Martin Odei Ajei, 2016-12-06 Kwame Nkrumah is globally recognized as a foremost pan Africanist strategist and statesman He is less widely acknowledged as a philosopher in spite of his considerable philosophical training seminal contribution to African political theory and incisive critique of the ethics of international relations Consciencism has the distinctive status of being the only published book that Nkrumah consciously meant to be a work of his philosophy yet it has failed to attract the focused attention of philosophers The chapters in Disentangling Consciencism Essays on Kwame Nkrumah's Philosophy critically explore the metaphysical ethical and political thought expressed in Consciencism In doing so they broaden our understanding of his philosophical ideas and their relevance for effective African contribution to thought in a contemporary world in which Africa increasingly totters on the margins of international affairs In much of current moral and political thinking there is a tendency to universalize liberal values and neglect non Western philosophical perspectives At the same time global normative thinking is overwhelmingly applied in non

Western contexts Writing from across three continents the contributors to this volume establish greater intellectual connection among African Asian and Western academics and their chapters offer explicit perspectives on the value of Nkrumah s philosophy and on the conceptual basis of early post colonial public policy options in Africa A valuable appendix provides the text of speeches delivered at the 1964 launch of Consciencism With insights into numerous dimensions of Nkrumah s philosophy this volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars of philosophy especially of non Western metaphysical moral and political thought and to anyone working in the history of African political theory
