

THEMES IN LITERATURE

Themes in literature refer to the underlying universal ideas or concepts that explore the human condition and provide insight into life, society, and the human experience.

OVERVIEW

Themes are the fundamental concepts or ideas explored in literature. They serve as the underlying messages or insights conveyed to the readers about the human condition, society, morality, or other aspects of life. Themes often transcend the specific plot or characters, resonating with readers on a broader, more universal level.

EXAMPLES

- Love and sacrifice
- The hero's journey
- War and peace
- Coming of age
- Identity and belonging
- Good vs evil
- Injustice (class, gender, race, etc)
- Survival against the odds
- The American Dream

Augustine on the Nature of Virtue and Sin Katherine Chambers, 2024-01-10 Augustine of Hippo is a key figure in the history of Christianity and has had a profound impact on the course of western moral and political thought Katherine Chambers here explores a neglected topic in Augustinian studies by offering a systematic account of the meaning that Augustine gave to the notions of virtue vice and sin Countering the view that he broke with classical eudaimonism she demonstrates that Augustine s moral thought builds on the dominant approach to ethics in classical pagan antiquity A critical appraisal of this tradition reveals that Augustine remained faithful to the eudaimonist approach to ethics Chambers also refutes the view that Augustine was a political pessimist or realist showing that it is based upon a misunderstanding of Augustine s ideas about the virtue of justice Providing a coherent account of key features in Augustine s ethics her study invites a new and fresh evaluation of his influence on western moral
