Good Life For You And Your Relative With A Disability:

Ageing with a Lifelong Disability Christine Bigby,2004 This guide provides specialist knowledge about ageing with a disability in the context of the more mainstream knowledge about ageing processes Dr Bigby uses the concept of successful ageing as a framework in which to consider the issues and practicalities for older people with a pre existing disability

Life Planning for Adults with Developmental Disabilities Judith Greenbaum,2007-05-01 A much needed resource for parents family and caregivers of adults with developmental disabilities like Down s syndrome fragile X and autism Life Planning for Adults with Developmental Disabilities offers resources and planning tools for helping the developmentally disabled adult build skills in employment education relationships independent living and finances EBOOK: Partnerships

In Family Care Mike Nolan,Ulla Lundh,John Keady,Gordon Grant,2003-08-16 What are the key features of partnerships between family and professional carers How do partnerships change over time What is needed to help create the best working partnerships Forging partnerships between service users family carers and service providers is a key theme in both the policy and academic literatures However what such partnerships mean and how they can be created and sustained while responding to change over time is far from clear This book considers how family and professional carers can work together more effectively in order to provide the highest quality of care to people who need support in order to remain in their own homes It adopts a temporal perspective looking at key transitions in caregiving and suggests the most appropriate types of help at particular points in time It draws on both empirical and theoretical sources emerging from several countries and relating to a number of differing caregiving contexts in order to illustrate the essential elements of relationship centred care Partnerships in Family Care will be important reading for all health care students and professionals with an interest in community and home care for the ill disabled and elderly A Full Life with Autism Chantal Sicile-Kira,Jeremy

Sicile-Kira,2025-06-25 A guide for helping our children lead meaningful and independent lives as they reach adulthood In the next five years hundreds of thousands of children with autism spectrum disorder will reach adulthood And while diagnosis and treatment for children has improved in recent years parents want to know What happens to my child when I am no longer able to care for or assist him Autism expert Chantal Sicile Kira and her son Jeremy offer real solutions to a host of difficult questions including how young adults of different abilities and their parents can navigate this new economy where adult service resources are scarce cope with the difficulties of living apart from the nuclear family find and keep a job that provides meaning stability and an income create and sustain fulfilling relationships Social Work with People with

Learning Difficulties Susan Hunter,Denis Rowley,2015-07-29 In the field of learning difficulties there has been a revolution in professional understanding and user aspirations towards delivery of services Institutional models no longer prevail language attitudes and practices have been transformed Full of up to date case studies practice examples and points for reflection this exciting textbook explores how to embed this culture shift into mainstream services It explores theoretical frameworks for working with people with learning difficulties and examines the role of services and the social worker drawing on person centred community centred and family involvement perspectives Essential reading for anyone studying social work or nursing people with learning difficulties      The Company of Others Sandra Shields,2006-06-01 In the next decade six million North American families will be caring for someone with a disability But other disabled people are not so lucky left to live in isolation and without support in an era of federal and state cutbacks This extraordinary book is about the transforming power of family and community on vulnerable individuals the mentally challenged the mentally ill the elderly and how these efforts enrich us as a society The book tells the stories interwoven with photographs of five such people who are surrounded by social circles friends and family whose respect encouragement and unconditional love give them a sense of purpose and belonging Featuring beautiful duotone photographs the stories told here are profoundly inspiring giving hope to anyone who because of age health or disability has been excluded from having a full and meaningful life Co produced with PLAN Planned Lifetime Advocacy Network      Creating Circles of Friends: A peer support and inclusion workbook Colin Newton,Derek Wilson,2005      Disability and Social Change Jeanette Robertson,2020-07-10T00:00:00Z This edited collection uses a critical theory perspective and draws on expertise from a range of contemporary policy and practice areas Contributors include people with disabilities family members researchers academics and practitioners This book is an ideal text for students of social work human services child and youth care and disability studies Chapters include first person accounts from persons with disabilities perspectives of families and historical perspectives as well as a critical exploration of demographics human rights issues disability legislation and policy in Canada theoretical approaches to disability intersectionality and disability Aboriginal people and disability mental health disability principles of anti ableist practice advocacy and strategies for change This book offers as a fresh Canadian perspective on disability from a critical lens challenging and inspiring students and practitioners alike to think outside the box and to examine their own attitudes and values toward disability ensuring that they do not inadvertently impose ableist and oppressive practices on one of Canada s most marginalized populations      Physical Health of Adults with Intellectual Disabilities Vee Prasher,Matthew Janicki,2008-04-15 This book is the second in a series with the International Association for the Scientific Study of Intellectual Disabilities Series Editor Matthew P Janicki These publications are designed to address the issues of health adult development and aging among persons with intellectual disabilities Physical health considerations of persons with an intellectual disability are attracting attention within the contexts of human rights public health and health promotion Research has shown that the prevalence of certain conditions and diseases is much higher in adults with an intellectual disability than in the general population Experts from specific healthcare specialties draw on a strong research base to discuss key physical health considerations for the intellectual disability community The result is a core resource for practitioners researchers students and advocates in this field      Safe and Secure Al Etmanski,Jack Collins,Vickie
