Weber,Megan McKenna,Catholic Church. Diocese of Jefferson City (Mo.),1992      Our Church Mothers Gwen Ehrenborg,2021-09-21 Our Church Motherscontains seven first person letters from formidable historical women who crafted for themselves roles of strategic importance in the history of Christianity You will become personally familiar with Katharina Luther first lady of the Reformation Susanna Wesley the Mother of Methodism Catherine Booth co founder of the Salvation Army Mary the Mother of Jesus St Clare best friend of Francis of Assisi Mother Teresa of Calcutta and Judge Deborah as a forerunner You will be moved as you read these heroines letters written to encourage today s believers as they share their thoughts feelings and daring experiences as they were led by the Spirit of God Learn how these female leaders and their partners in ministry overcame tremendous challenges to bear fruit for the Kingdom of God Living in different countries centuries and cultures they certainly share admirable characteristics in sacrificially choosing to address ignored human needs they observe with exceptional faith and action A common theme among these women is that not only their own children but their constituents as well recognized them as exceptional Mother figures and as spiritual leaders anointed by God Each of these women were addressed as Mother even though three of them never had children by birth The five mothers who were also wives ably supported their husbands as helpmates while pursuing their own spiritual calling None of these women allowed negative social pressures to prevent them from achieving their ministry goals All seven women have name recognition today yet people are surprised to learn that Mother Teresa was actually an Irish nun born in Albania who became a citizen of India Did you know the monk Martin Luther at age 41 took a wife who was a 26 year old former nun who bore him 6 children or the Salvation Army founders William and Catherine Booth s love story rivals that of the Barrett Brownings and that Judge Deborah was the Joan of Arc of her day The writing style in each letter indicates a desire for a personal friendship between the author and their modern day reader as fellow believers When these ladies share the fruitful work of God in their lives they clearly hope to encourage others to believe they too can positively make a real change in their world for the benefit of others and the glory of God Let these heroic Mothers of the Faith inspire and challenge you to fulfill your destiny and unique service to Christ      Ebony ,1962-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine      Cincinnati Magazine ,2001-08 Cincinnati Magazine taps into the DNA of the city exploring shopping dining living and culture and giving readers a ringside seat on the issues shaping the region      The Christian Century ,1927      Beyond Belief, Second Edition Timothy Thorstenson,2025-04-14 How do we become more spiritually intelligent and feel more alive and aware What is the knowledge and what are the life experiences that can deepen our connection to the divine while strengthening our relationships and our sense of meaning and purpose In this book the author reflects on contemporary historical cultural and political events while drawing on his years of experience in major medical centers as a spiritual care provider educator and bioethicist He articulates the fascinating evolution of psychology theology and quantum physics over recent decades including recent research into the nature of the soul and our still unfolding understanding of the true nature of the universe And he draws from his own journey of moving through and beyond his early religious training and beliefs to capture a far more meaningful and spiritually intelligent perspective

Why We Belong Anthony L. Chute, Christopher W. Morgan, Robert A. Peterson, 2013-06-30 Denominations The mention of the word is often enough to spark strong reactions regardless of whether one is for or against them This hopeful new volume made up of contributions from prominent evangelical leaders argues for the importance of denominations highlighting their significant strengths while acknowledging potential weaknesses Contributors from a variety of backgrounds Anglican Presbyterian Baptist Pentecostal Lutheran and Methodist share their own personal stories related to why they identify with a particular tradition and yet still maintain a robust sense of evangelical unity across denominational lines Far from merely highlighting differences this book celebrates the unity that believers enjoy in the gospel for the purpose of fostering productive dialogue and increased understanding within the fragmented landscape of modern evangelicalism

End-Time Events Randall Cobb, 2025-01-07 As I visit different congregations I find that 98 percent of them do not teach the truth when it comes to the end times I happen to believe that everyone needs to know the truth when it comes to end time events so they know what to look for such as falling away the tribulation period and the final judgment The Bible clearly instructs us to be vigilant I have covered all the events leading up to the return of Christ But it also teaches that no one can say for certain that we are living in the end times This is at best a debatable proposition Jesus himself repeatedly said that no one knows or can know the day or hour of his return Matthew 24 36 Mark 13 32 Acts 1 7 To be sure we are surrounded by events and developments that could be interpreted as signs of the end On every corner we see famines earthquakes disasters troubles persecutions wars and rumors of wars Mark 13 7 9 But has there ever been a period in the history of the world when this was not the case

Keuss,2010-07-01 Freedom of the Self revitalizes the question of identity formation in a postmodern era through a deep reading of Christian life in relation to current trends seen in the Emergent and Missional church movements By relocating deep identity formation as formed and released through a renewed appraisal of kenotic Christology coupled with readings of Continental philosophy Derrida Levinas Marion and popular culture Keuss offers a bold vision for what it means to be truly human in contemporary society as what he calls the kenotic self In addition to providing a robust reflection of philosophical and theological understanding of identity formation from Aristotle and Augustine through to contemporary thinkers Freedom of the Self suggests some tangible steps for the individual and the church in regard to how everyday concerns such as economics literature and urbanization can be part of living into the life of the kenotic self
